Perspectives On The Study Of Film:

Global Perspectives on Literary Tourism and Film-Induced Tourism Baleiro, Rita, Pereira, Rosária, 2021-12-10 At the end of the 20th century the traditional forms of tourism transformed they expanded by the introduction of new postmodern tourist forms bringing innovative offers to the marketplace Two of these new fast growing forms are literary tourism and film induced tourism both of which fall under the umbrella of cultural tourism Both niches of cultural tourism share the need to create products and experiences that meet the tourists expectations Global Perspectives on Literary Tourism and Film Induced Tourism discusses literary tourism and film induced tourism and documents the advances in research on the intersections of literature film and the act of traveling Covering a wide range of topics from film tourism destinations to digital literary tourism this book is ideal for travel agents tourism agencies tour operators government officials postgraduate students researchers academicians cultural development councils and associations and policymakers Getting Reel: A Social Science Perspective on Film Michael Douglas Gose, 2006 Perspectives on Multimodality Eija Ventola, Cassily Charles, Martin Kaltenbacher, 2004 This volume sign posts several paths of multimodality research and theory building today The chapters represent a cross section of current perspectives on multimodal discourse with a special focus on theoretical and methodological issues mode hierarchies modelling semiotic resources as multiple semiotic systems multimodal corpus annotation In addition it discusses a wide range of applications for multimodal description in fields like mathematics entertainment education museum design medicine and translation Perspectives on European Film and History Leen Engelen, Roel Vande Winkel, 2007 This volume addresses the representation of European history in European cinema through a collection of nine case studies such as Der Untergang 2004 and Dawn 1928 International Perspectives on Feminism and Sexism in the Film Industry Sarı, Gülşah, Çetin, Derya, 2019-11-22 Gender studies has maintained its status as a heavily researched field However women and their role in cinema is a vastly understudied topic that deals with various aspects of feminism and sexism The function of women in the film industry has evolved over time and proven to be an interesting area of research regarding the transition from sexual icons to respected professionals Feminism is a widely researched subject yet its specific application within cinema is an area that has yet to be studied International Perspectives on Feminism and Sexism in the Film Industry is an essential reference source that examines the representation of women in cinema and provides a feminist approach to various aspects of the film industry including labor production and the cultural impact of women in motion pictures Featuring research on topics such as violence against women feminist film theory and psychoanalysis this book is ideally designed for directors industry professionals writers screenwriters activists professors students administrators and researchers in fields that include film studies gender studies mass media and communications Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990-10 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume one examines the film as film volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film volume three draws on the history of film and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors sources and historical information as well as an index of authors titles and film personalities Passionate Views Carl Plantinga, Greg M.

Smith, 1999-04-23 The movie theater has always been a place where people come together to share powerful emotional experiences from the fear generated by horror films and the anxiety induced by thrillers to the laughter elicited by screwball comedies and the tears precipitated by melodramas Indeed the dependability of movies to provide such experiences lies at the center of the medium's appeal and power Yet cinema's ability to influence even manipulate the emotions of the spectator is one of the least explored topics in film theory today In Passionate Views thirteen internationally recognized scholars of film studies philosophy and psychology explore the emotional appeal of the cinema Employing a novel cognitive perspective the volume investigates the relationship between genre and emotion explores how film narrative music and cinematic techniques such as the close up are used to elicit emotion and examines the spectator's identification with and response to film characters An impressive range of films and topics is brought together by Carl Plantinga and Greg M Smith including the success of Stella Dallas and An Affair to Remember as tearjerkers the power of Night of the Living Dead to inspire fear and disgust the sublime evoked in The Passion of Joan of Arc Aguirre the Wrath of God and The Children of Paradise the emotional basis of film comedy as seen in When Harry Met Sally the use of cinematic cues in Raiders of the Lost Ark and Local Hero to arouse emotions the relationship between narrative flow and emotion in Once Upon a Time in the West and E.T. the emotive use of music in The Elephant Man and A Clockwork Orange Stranger than Paradise's sense of timing desire and resolution in Casablanca audience identification with the main characters in Groundhog Day and The Crying Game portrayal of perversity in The Silence of the Lambs Flaming Creatures and Shivers and empathy elicited through closeups of actors' faces in Yankee Doodle Dandy and Blade Runner Passionate Views offers a new approach to our understanding of film and will be of interest to anyone fascinated by the emotional power of motion pictures and their relationship to the central concerns of our lives as well as by the techniques filmmakers use to move an audience Perspectives on Film, 1978

Film and Place in an Intercultural Perspective Krzysztof Stachowiak, Hania Janta, Jani Kozina, Therese Sunngren-Granlund, 2023-09-26 The book offers an interdisciplinary overview of the film and place relationship from an intercultural perspective It explores the complex domain of place and space in cinema and the film industry's role in establishing cultural connections and economic cooperation between India and Europe With contributions from leading international scholars various case studies scrutinise European and Indian contexts exploring both the established and emerging locations The book extends the dominantly Britain oriented focus on India's cinema presence in Europe to European countries such as Italy Switzerland Poland Slovenia Finland and Sweden where the Indian film industry progressively expands its presence The chapters of this book look at Indian film production in Europe as a cultural bridge between India and Europe fostering mutual understanding of the culture and society of the two regions This interdisciplinary
