Peter Sculthorpe His Music And Ideas 1929 1979:

Peter Sculthorpe Michael Hannan, 1982 Biography of Australian classical composer Peter Sculthorpe Analyses of Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Music, 1940-2000 D. J. Hoek, 2007-02-15 The latest volume in the Music Library Association's Index and Bibliography series Analyses of Nineteenth and Twentieth Century Music 1940 2000 features over 9 000 references to analyses of works by more than 1 000 composers of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries References that address form harmony melody rhythm and other structural elements of musical compositions have been compiled into this valuable resource This update of Arthur Wenk's well known bibliography last published in 1987 includes all the original entries from that work along with additional references to analyses through 2000 International in scope the bibliography covers writings in English French German Italian and other European languages and draws from 167 periodicals as well as important theses dissertations books and Festschriften References are arranged alphabetically by composer and include subheadings for specific works and genres This bibliography provides students scholars performers and librarians with broad coverage detailed indexing and ready access to a large and diverse body of analytical literature on nineteenth and twentieth century music Australian Music and Modernism, 1960-1975 Michael Hooper, 2019-10-31 Drawing on newly available archival material key works and correspondence of the era Australian Music and Modernism defines Australian Music as an idea that emerged through the lens of the modernist discourse of the 1960s and 70s At the same time that the new Australian Music was distinctive of the nation it was also thoroughly connected to practices from Europe and shaped by a new engagement with the music of Southeast Asia This book examines the intersection of nationalism and modernism at this formative time During the early stages of Australian Music there was disagreement about what the idea itself ought to represent and indeed whether the idea ought to apply at all Michael Hooper considers various perspectives offered by such composers as Peter Sculthorpe Richard Meale and Nigel Butterley and analyzes some of the era's significant works to articulate a complex understanding of Australian Music at its inception Australia's Jindyworobak Composers David Symons, 2020-11-29 Australia's Jindyworobak Composers examines the music of a historically and artistically significant group of Australian composers active during the later post colonial period 1930s c 1960 These composers sought to establish a uniquely Australian identity through the evocation of the country's landscape and environment including notably the use of Aboriginal elements or imagery in their music texts dramatic scenarios or programmes Nevertheless it must be observed that this word was originally adopted as a manifesto for an Australian literary movement and was for the most part only retrospectively applied by commentators rather than the composers themselves to art music that was seen to share similar aesthetic aims Chapter One demonstrates to what extent a meaningful relationship may or may not be discernible between the artistic tenets of Jindyworobak writers and apparently likeminded composers In doing so it establishes the context for a full exploration of the music of Australian composers to whom Jindyworobak has come to be popularly applied The following chapters explore the music of composers writing within the Jindyworobak period itself and finally the later twentieth century afterlife of Jindyworobakism This will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers of Ethnomusicology Australian Music and Music History Australia's Music: Themes of a New Society (2nd ed.)
