Regional Citizen:

Regional Integration, Identity & Citizenship in the Greater Horn of Africa Kidane Mengisteab, Redie Bereketeab, 2012
Examines how regional integration can resolve the crises of the Greater Horn of Africa exploring how it can be used as a mechanism for conflict resolution promoting the economy and tackling issues of identity and citizenship The Greater Horn of Africa GHA is engulfed by three interrelated crises various inter state wars civil wars and inter communal conflicts an economic crisis manifested in widespread debilitating poverty chronic food insecurity and famines and environmental degradation that is ravaging the region While it is apparent that the countries of the region are unlikely to be able to deal with the crises individually there is consensus that their chances of doing so improve markedly with collective regional action The contributors to this volume address the need for regional integration in the GHA They identify those factors that can foster integration such as the proper management of equitable citizenship rights as well as examining those that impede it including the region's largely ineffective integration scheme IGAD and explore how the former can be strengthened and the latter transformed explain how regional integration can mitigate the conflicts and examine how integration can help to energise the region's economy Kidane Mengisteab is Professor of African Studies and Political Science at Penn State University Redie Bereketeab is a researcher at the Nordic Africa Institute Sweden Citizenship after the Nation State Charlie Jeffery, Daniel Wincott, 2013-11-29 Offering an confrontation of the uncritical choice of the nation state as a unit of analysis in postwar social science this book utilises specially collected data from 14 regions across five European states to explore how citizens define and pursue collective goals at regional scale as well as at the scale of the nation state

Regional Contexts and Citizenship Education in Asia and Europe Kerry J. Kennedy, Andreas Brunold, 2015-10-05
This book is concerned with the social and political aspects of regional groupings particularly how citizenship education fares in regional contexts The European Union EU has revolutionised its political and economic aims into more encompassing social and political goals The Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN on the other hand is still moving towards fuller integration in social and economic terms as South East Asian nations seek a greater role on the global stage and particularly in the global economy Both the EU and ASEAN have drawn up educational frameworks that collectively work to harness educational achievements which in turn work to fulfill social and economic objectives at the regional level This book portrays citizenship issues affecting the two regions and describes the way citizenship education can reflect and address these issues Case studies on EU and ASEAN member countries make up the book's two parts which analyse among other issues The Changing Landscape of Citizenship Education in England Political Didactics and Political Education in Germany Rethinking a Conceptual Framework for Citizenship Education in ASEAN Countries Education for ASEANness A tool to build an ASEAN community This book explores new ideas on citizenship and comparative education in regional contexts and will be of interest to researchers concerned with the impact of regionalism on social development and to citizenship educators studying

Citizenship in the 21st Century Martin Gitlin,2019-07-15 What does it mean to be a citizen in the 21st century Globalization the dominance of corporations the influence of technology massive immigration and geopolitical shifts have changed our world considerably in just a few decades How have these changes affected the responsibilities placed on us as citizens and also on governments and leaders around the world Tackling a number of fascinating issues pertaining to our future the viewpoints in this resource examine our place in the world today and predict the ways in which citizenship will continue to evolve Citizenship in Question Benjamin N. Lawrance,Jacqueline Stevens,2017-02-02 The contributors to Citizenship in Question demonstrate that the line separating citizenship and noncitizenship is ambiguous and inconsistent In case studies analyzing the legal barriers to citizenship rights in over twenty countries the contributors show how states use citizenship requirements to police racial ethnic class and religious difference "Code of Massachusetts regulations, 1994"

Borders Jean-Thomas Arrighi,Dejan Stjepanović,2020-06-09 Migrating Borders explores the relationship between territory and citizenship at a time when the very boundaries of the political community come into question Made up of an interdisciplinary team of social scientists the book provides new answers to the age old question of nationalities as it unfolds in a particular context the European multilevel federation where polities are linked to each other through a complex web of vertical and horizontal relations Individual chapters cover and compare well known cases such as Catalonia Kosovo and Scotland but also others that often fall under the radar of mainstream analysis such as the Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus or the Roma At a time of heightened uncertainty surrounding the European integration project the book offers an invaluable theoretical and empirical compass to navigate some of the most pressing issues in contemporary European politics Exploring what happens to citizenship when borders migrate over people Migrating Borders will be of great interest to scholars of Ethnic and Migration Studies European Politics and Society Nationalism European Integration and Citizenship
