Reinventing A Region Restructuring In West Yorkshire Urban And Regional Planning And Development:

Developing Locally Beer, Andrew, Haughton, Graham, Alaric Maude, 2003-11-26 This work offers comparisons of local and regional economic development organisations objectives activities and effectiveness across four English speaking nations

Ibss: Political Science: 1994 British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics, 1995-12-08 The IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge of the social sciences

Developing Locally , Consumer Services and Economic Development Colin C. Williams, 1997 Consumer Services and Economic Development evaluates the role of consumer services as motors for local economic development in contemporary advanced economies The contributions that specific consumer service industries are making to local economic development are analysed Tourism sports universities retailing and the cultural industries are each examined in turn Following this the roles that the consumer services sector are playing in economic regeneration are investigated in a number of different contexts a global city several contrasting urban areas and a rural locality In each case whether consumer services have taken a lead or supportive role in local economic development is surveyed and their effectiveness in promoting economic regeneration is evaluated This book dispels the common myth that consumer services are residual activities dependent upon other economic sectors for their vitality and viability Providing a comprehensive overview and evaluation of the contributions of the consumer services sector to economic development this book reveals the need for a fundamental reconceptualization of both the function of services in particular and economic development theory and practice more generally Reinventing

a Region Graham Haughton, David Whitney, 1994 This text deals with the changing economy of West Yorkshire as its industrial base diminishes It examines the effects of local initiative urban development and environmental planning on the area and looks to the future with the implications of the Single European Market Conceptions of Space and Place in Strategic Spatial Planning Simin Davoudi, Ian Strange, 2008-11-24 Bringing together authors from academia and practice this book examines spatial planning at different places throughout the British Isles Six illustrative case studies of practice examine which conceptions of space and place have been articulated presented and visualized through the production of spatial strategies Ranging from a large conurbation London to regional Yorkshire and Humber and national levels the case studies give a rounded and grounded view of the physical results and the theory behind them While there is widespread support for re orienting planning towards space and place there has been little common understanding about what constitutes spatial planning and what conceptions of space and place underpin it This book addresses these questions and stimulates debate and critical thinking about space and place among academic and professional planners Reclaiming the City Andy Coupland, 2005-10-05 This is a book based on a research project taking a critical look at mixed use development It examines the history and development of land use zoning International Bibliography of Economics 1994 British
