Systemic-Dialogical Therapy with Individuals Paolo Bertrando, Claudia Lini, 2025-09-03 In this book Paolo Bertrando and Claudia Lini provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the systemic dialogical approach adapted to the ever evolving requirements of modern day therapy with individuals Following on from the field defining work Systemic Therapy with Individuals and easily used as a companion this book introduces a new dialogical approach which will encourage practising therapists to adopt a collaborative and empowered stance in their work The authors interweave clinical examples and transcripts of sessions collated from over a decade of work to illustrate the applied benefits of this approach in the contemporary therapeutic space The case studies include work with those experiencing the oppression of patriarchal relationships social and emotional isolation physical abuse and pathological shame reinvigorating and modernising the therapist s understanding of these lived experiences Moving from general concepts to practical issues the book explores queer theory feminist theory non traditional family formats and the impact of neoliberalism The holistic and systemic approach will guide the reader to work better with clients from all genders races and economic situations Building on the foundations of systemic therapy the theories develop our understanding of emotions and the body while Bertrando and Lini introduce the concept of finding one s place as a means of encouraging individual positional responsibility Presenting an empathetic and inclusive understanding of contemporary life and psychic experiences as well as personal couple and familial relationships this book provides invaluable techniques on how to conduct sessions and will benefit students and practitioners of psychotherapy including systemic family therapists psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychologists psychiatric nurses occupational therapists and social workers Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb, 2008 This encyclopedia spans the relationships among business ethics and society with an emphasis on business ethics and the role of business in society The SAGE Encyclopedia of Business Ethics and Society Robert W. Kolb, 2018-03-27 Spans the relationships among business ethics and society by including numerous entries that feature broad coverage of corporate social responsibility the obligation of companies to various stakeholder groups the contribution of business to society and culture and the relationship between organizations and the quality of the environment The Crafting of Grief Lorraine Hedtke, John Winslade, 2016-07-15 Many books on grief lay out a model to be followed either for bereaved persons to live through or for professionals to practice and usually follow some familiar prescriptions for what people should do to reach an accommodation with loss The Crafting of Grief is different it focuses on conversations that help people chart their own path through grief Authors Hedtke and Winslade argue convincingly that therapists and counselors can support people more by helping them craft their own responses to bereavement rather than trying to squeeze experiences into a model In the pages of this book readers will learn how to develop lines of inquiry based on the concept of continuing bonds and they ll discover ways to use these ideas to help the bereaved craft stories that remember loved ones lives Transforming Emotion Glenda Fredman, 2004-02-13 Starting from the position that there is no universal story of emotion necessarily acceptable to all cultures and that we cannot assume a common language of emotion that accurately transfers meanings and experiences between people this volume approaches emotion as the story people weave of physical sensation display and judgements through multi layered contexts of their relationships and cultures Emotion stories are seen as intricately woven with stories of identity therefore having implications for how people perceive their moral worth Within a framework informed by communication theories social constructionism and systemic and narrative therapies Glenda Fredman offers a repertoire of possibilities to talk about feelings share understanding and transform emotion Using her personal stories transcripts of conversations and case vignettes to speak the theory she shows how paying careful attention to each person s emotional language rules and theories can avoid coercion undermining isolating or creating an impasse between the people involved

Justice in the Making: Relating, Participating, Communicating Robyn Ann Penman, 2025-01-12 Why don t measures relying on distributive justice really seem to solve social justice problems How can we account for the persistence of racist injustice despite good intentions How well is justice really served in our adversarial system in courts Are procedural justice measures really good enough Has restorative justice been co opted and compromised by the conventional justice system Robyn Penman invites you to explore with her what it can mean to reimagine justice as something we make together in the dynamic process of relating and communicating with all its uncertainties and open endedness She draws particularly on ideas from the relational turn in philosophy on pragmatism on social constructionism and on a communication perspective Using a relational communication framework Robyn Penman shows how it is possible to pick up the threads of recent critiques and reform proposals in the justice literature and transform them into something so much better In doing so she develops a rich grammar including concepts such as relational responsivity and responsibility to account for the dynamics of making justice She also offers new insights and possibilities towards acting justly in an ongoing co created process The
