Relations Of Ruling Class And Gender In Postindustrial Societies:

From Power Sharing to Democracy Sidney John Roderick Noel, The ^AOxford Handbook of Pierre Bourdieu Thomas Medvetz, Jeffrey J. Sallaz, 2018-04-02 The Oxford Handbook of Pierre Bourdieu examines the legacy of one of the most influential social thinkers of the last half century Taken together these writings offer a comprehensive overview of Bourdieu's biography his main theoretical ideas and his ongoing influence on the social sciences Politics and Ideology in Canada Michael Ornstein, Michael Stevenson, 2003-02-18 Winner of the Harold Adams Innis Prize Politics and Ideology in Canada examines a period of crucial historical change in Canada beginning in the mid 1970s when the crisis of the Keynesian welfare state precipitated a transition to a new political order based on the progressive downsizing of state involvement in the economy and society Using class and ideology as key concepts Michael Ornstein and Michael Stevenson examine this transition in terms of the nature of hegemony and hegemonic crisis and the conditions of political order and instability These concepts guide the interpretation of three large surveys of representative samples of the Canadian public and two unique elite surveys conducted between 1975 and 1981 The surveys cover an exceptionally broad spectrum of political issues including social programs civil and economic rights economic policy foreign ownership labour relations and language issues and sovereignty A wide ranging analysis of public and elite attitudes reveals a hegemonic order through the early 1980s built around public support for the institutions of the Canadian welfare state But there was also widespread public alienation from politics Public opinion was quite strongly linked to class but not to party politics Regional variation in political ideology on a broad range of issues was less pronounced than differences between Quebec and English Canada Much deeper ideological divisions separated the elites with a dramatic polarization between corporate and labour respondents State elites fell between these two though generally more favourable to capital The responses of the business elites reveal the ideological roots of the Mulroney years in support for cuts in social programs free trade privatization and deregulation The Changing Canadian Population Barry Edmonston, Eric Fong, 2011 Informative and helpful essays that study census data regarding developments in Canadian society At the center Vasilikie (Vicky) Demos, Marcia Texler Segal, 2015-08-24 This volume reflects on how the study of gender has changed and how studying gender has affected our research methods and our knowledge of the world around us The interdisciplinary nature of gender studies and the cross pollination of theoretical perspectives are illustrated as is the globalization of gender theory research and policies Work in Tumultuous Times Vivian Shalla, Wallace Clement, 2007 Offering a critique of how social structures and relations as well as ideologies shape workplaces labour markets and households in contemporary Canada this work exposes the uncertainty insecurity and instability that characterise both paid and unpaid work It also proposes alternative policies and practices Eros and Alienation Alan Sears, 2025-01-20 Sears takes social reproduction feminism and queer Marxism in exciting new directions as he historicizes penetration and orgasms He expands the concept of alienated labor to all life making and founds a queer ecology foregrounding colonized racialized and disabled voices Peter Drucker author of Warped Meticulously outlines how capitalism shapes human intimacy A sweeping original analysis that challenges how we think about sexuality life making and building a better world Holly Lewis author of The Politics of Everybody A compelling argument on the pervasive alienation of capitalist society that truncates and distorts our capacities for creative expression love and human flourishing M E O'Brien author of Family Abolition Our deeply human drive to shape the world around us and fulfill ourselves through labor is subverted by capitalist alienation leaving us to find fulfillment elsewhere As a result our erotic drives become the central focus for transformation and life making but are themselves restricted and fueled by whatever energy is left after completing the monetized or social reproductive work required to survive This alienation encounters ongoing resistance as life making activity can never be fully separated from the person who labors Eros and Alienation delves into the underexplored relationship between alienated labor and sexuality Alan Sears explores the ways this alienation frames the processes of gender and sexual formation showing how the organization of work contributes to the development of a dominant regime of gendered sexualities defined by a binary gender mapping of desire as heterosexual homosexual or bisexual Alan Sears is Professor of Sociology at Toronto Metropolitan University He is an activist and author of several books including The Next New Left     Perspectives on Contemporary Professional Work Adrian Wilkinson, Donald Hislop, Christine Coupland, 2016-01-29 How is the world of professions and professional work changing This book offers both an overview of current debates surrounding the nature of professional work and the implications for change brought about by the managerialist agenda The relationships professionals have with their organizations are variable indeterminate and uncertain and there is still debate over the ways in which these should be characterized and theorized The contributors discuss these implications with topics including hybrid organizations and hybrid professionalism the changing nature of professional and managerial work profession and identity and the emergence of HRM as a new managerial profession This book will be of interest to academics and postgraduate students seeking a comparative study on contemporary professional work It will also be of use to a number of practitioners namely human resource managers looking for ways in which to approach the changing professional world     Democracy, Citizenship and the Global City Engin F. Isin, 2013-04-15 Democracy Citizenship and the Global City focuses on the controversial neglected theme of citizenship It examines the changing role of citizens their rights obligations and responsibilities as members of nation states and the issue of accountability in a global society Using this interdisciplinary approach the book offers an innovative collection of work from Robert A Beauregard Anna Bounds Janine Brodie Richard Dagger Gerard Delanty Judith A Garber Robert J Holton Warren Magnusson Raymond Rocco Nikolas Rose Evelyn S Ruppert Saskia Sassen Bryan S Turner John Urry Gerda R Wekerle and Nira Yuval Davis     Asian American Women and Men Yen Le Espiritu, 2008 Labor laws and love Yen Le Espiritu explores how racist and gendered labor conditions and immigration laws have affected relations between and among Asian American women and men Asian American Men and Women documents how the historical and contemporary oppression of Asians in the United States has restructured the balance of power between Asian American women and men and shaped their struggles to create and maintain social institutions and systems of meaning Espiritu emphasizes how race gender and class as categories of difference do not parallel but instead intersect and confirm one other The New African Diaspora in Vancouver Gillian

Creese,2011-08-13 The New African Diaspora in Vancouver documents the experiences of immigrants from countries in sub Saharan Africa on Canada s west coast Despite their individual national origins many adopt new identities as African and are actively engaged in creating a new place based African community In this study Gillian Creese analyzes interviews with sixty one women and men from twenty one African countries to document the gendered and racialized processes of community building that occur in the contexts of marginalization and exclusion as they exist in Vancouver Creese reveals that the routine discounting of previous education by potential employers the demeaning of African accents and bodies by society at large cultural pressures to reshape gender relations and parenting practices and the absence of extended families often contribute to downward mobility for immigrants The New African Diaspora in Vancouver maps out how African immigrants negotiate these multiple dimensions of local exclusion while at the same time creating new spaces of belonging and emerging collective identity It's a Working Man's Town Thomas William Dunk,2003 In a valuable addition to the debate on the nature of contemporary working class culture Thomas Dunk shows that the function and meaning of gender ethnicity popular leisure activities and common sense knowledge are intimately linked with the way an individual s experience is structured by class After reviewing the principal theoretical problems relating to the study of working class culture and consciousness Dunk provides a detailed ethnographic analysis of the Boys the male working class subjects of this study Male working class culture he argues contains both the seeds of a radical response to social inequality and a defensive reaction against alternative social practices and ideas In a new forward Dunk contextualizes the original text with regard to the debates about class and masculinity that have occurred since the book was first published Women's Organizing and Public Policy in

Canada and Sweden Linda Briskin,Mona Eliasson,1999-10-25 Women s Organizing and Public Policy in Canada and Sweden highlights the impact of women s organizing on the framing and implementing of public policy the reconstituting of discourse and the practices of unions political parties and the state It examines the strategies women have used to organize themselves as a vocal and politicized constituency In so doing it stretches definitions of organizing and of political practice politicizes the social and the private and expands conceptions of agency Comparing Sweden and Canada allows the mechanisms at work in each society to emerge more clearly challenging what is often taken for granted Contributors include Christina Bergqvist Uppsala Sweden Linda Briskin Barbara Cameron York Canada Marianne Carlsson Uppsala Sweden Rebecca Priegert Coulter University of Western Ontario Canada Mona Eliasson Georgina Feldberg York Canada Sue Findlay private scholar Canada Lena Gon s National Institute for Working Life Sweden Wuokko Knocke National Institute for Working Life Sweden Catharina
