A Relevant Word Robert G. Duffett, 1995 After demonstrating why and how our culture has changed Duffett offers a methodology for communicating the Christian faith that is sensitive to the needs of seekers Stop Preaching and Start Communicating Tony Gentilucci, 2009-02-02 Stop Preaching and Start Communicating examines the medium of television as a powerful method of communication to consider what we can learn from it as communicators of the most important message the world needs to hear Tony discusses knowing your target audience how to begin and end your message effectively communicating without notes the need for one memorable big idea and how to communicate to transform rather than simply inform Preaching with Relevance Keith Willhite, Clear communication of the relevance of the biblical text to contemporary culture is the responsibility of the pastor Keith Willhite offers strategies for exegetically solid and culturally apt sermon preparation Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching

Rethinking the Church James Emery White, 2003-07-01 Why is it important to rethink the church Today many leaders focus on how their ministries can be run more efficiently But the foundational question according to James Emery White should be Why do we have this ministry and then Why do we do this ministry the way we do Is it effective Rethinking the Church helps pastors and lay leaders work through questions that must be answered if a church is to rethink evangelism discipleship ministry worship community and the structure of the church Break old molds check assumptions and be sensitive says White He uses the language and aims of seeker targeted churches but urges readers not to tie themselves to any model without understanding the individual purpose of their church Now thoroughly revised and expanded Rethinking the Church contains more emphasis and key material on how to move from rethinking to transition White blends biblical reflection and hands on experience and uses the early church as described in the Book of Acts as the ultimate example Rhetoric of the Protestant Sermon in America Jonathan J. Edwards, Eric C. Miller, 2020-01-20 In Rhetoric of the Protestant Sermon in America Pulpit Discourse at the Turn of the Millennium ten scholars analyze notable sermons from the fifty year span between 1965 and 2015 during which the Protestant sermon has undergone significant change in the United States Contributors examine how this turbulent time period witnessed a variety of important shifts in the arguments evidences and rhetorical strategies employed by contemporary preachers Because religious practice is inextricably tangled in the culture politics and economy of its historical situation the public expression of a faith is certain to move with the times In their treatment of race sex gender class and citizenship sermons apply ancient texts to current events and controversies often to revealing effect This collection thoughtfully edited by Eric C Miller and Jonathan J Edwards demonstrates how the genre of the Protestant sermon has evolved or resisted evolution across the years Scholars of religion rhetoric communication sociology and cultural studies will find this book particularly useful The Four Pages of the Sermon, Revised and Updated Paul Scott Wilson,2018-09-18 Doing justice to the complexity of the preaching task and the questions that underlie it author Paul Scott Wilson organizes both the preparation and the content of the sermon around its four pages Each page addresses a different theological and creative component of what happens in any sermon Page One presents the trouble or conflict that takes place in or that underscores the biblical text itself Page Two looks at similar conflict sin or brokenness in our own time Page Three returns to the Bible to identify where God is at work in or behind the text in other words to discover the good news Page Four points to God at work in our world particularly in relation to the situations described in Page Two This approach is about preaching the gospel in nearly any sermonic form Wilson teaches the what why and how of sermon construction all rooted in a theology of the Word This completely revised edition guides readers through the sermon process step by step with the aim of composing sermons that challenge and provide hope by focusing on God more closely than on humans It has been largely rewritten to include an assessment of where preaching is today in light of propositional preaching the New Homiletic African American preaching the effect of the internet and use of technology A chapter on exegesis has been added plus new focus on the importance of preaching to a felt need the need for proclamation in addition to teaching and developing tools to ensure sermon excellence New sermon examples have been added along with a section that responds to critics and looks to the future Preaching to a Shifting Culture Scott M.
