Linduff, 2018-12-20 Memory and Agency in Ancient China offers a novel perspective on China s material culture The volume explores the complex life histories of selected objects whose trajectories as ginle objects biographies and object types lineages cut across both temporal and physical space The essays written by a team of international scholars analyse the objects in an effort to understand how they were shaped by the constraints of their social political and aesthetic contexts just as they were also guided by individual preference and capricious memory They also demonstrate how objects were capable of effecting change Ranging chronologically from the Neolithic to the present and spatially from northern to southern mainland China and Taiwan this book highlights the varied approaches that archaeologists and art historians use when attempting to reconstruct object trajectories It also showcases the challenges they face particularly with the unearthing of objects from archaeological contexts that paradoxically come to represent the earliest known point of their post recovery lives Museums in China Marzia Varutti, 2014 This volume based on extensive research in a number of the museums themselves examines recent changes in their display methods narratives actors and architectural style It also considers their representation of Chinese national identity millenarian history and extraordinary cultural diversity Picturing Heaven in Early China Lillian Lan-ying Tseng, 2020-03-17 Tian or Heaven had multiple meanings in early China It had been used since the Western Zhou to indicate both the sky and the highest god and later came to be regarded as a force driving the movement of the cosmos and as a home to deities and imaginary animals By the Han dynasty which saw an outpouring of visual materials depicting Heaven the concept of Heaven encompassed an immortal realm to which humans could ascend after death Using excavated materials Lillian Tseng shows how Han artisans transformed various notions of Heaven as the mandate the fantasy and the sky into pictorial entities The Han Heaven was not indicated by what the artisans looked at but rather was suggested by what they looked into Artisans attained the visibility of Heaven by appropriating and modifying related knowledge of cosmology mythology astronomy Thus the depiction of Heaven in Han China reflected an interface of image and knowledge By examining Heaven as depicted in ritual buildings on household utensils and in the embellishments of funerary settings Tseng maintains that visibility can hold up a mirror to visibility Heaven was culturally constructed and should be culturally reconstructed Catalog of the Avery Memorial Architectural Library of Columbia University: Portl - Rodf Avery Library, 1968 The History of Literature in Wei, Jin, Southern and Northern Dynasty Li Shi, The book is the volume of The History of Literature in Wei Jin Southern and Northern Dynasty among a series of books of Deep into China Histories The earliest known written records of the history of China date from as early as 1250 BC from the Shang dynasty c 1600 1046 BC and the Bamboo Annals 296 BC describe a Xia

dynasty c 2070 1600 BC before the Shang but no writing is known from the period The Shang ruled in the Yellow River valley which is commonly held to be the cradle of Chinese civilization However Neolithic civilizations originated at various cultural centers along both the Yellow River and Yangtze River These Yellow River and Yangtze civilizations arose millennia before the Shang With thousands of years of continuous history China is one of the world s oldest civilizations and is regarded as one of the cradles of civilization The Zhou dynasty 1046 256 BC supplanted the Shang and introduced the concept of the Mandate of Heaven to justify their rule The central Zhou government began to weaken due to external and internal pressures in the 8th century BC and the country eventually splintered into smaller states during the Spring and Autumn period These states became independent and warred with one another in the following Warring States period Much of traditional Chinese culture literature and philosophy first developed during those troubled times In 221 BC Qin Shi Huang conquered the various warring states and created for himself the title of Huangdi or emperor of the Qin marking the beginning of imperial China However the oppressive government fell soon after his death and was supplanted by the longer lived Han dynasty 206 BC 220 AD Successive dynasties developed bureaucratic systems that enabled the emperor to control vast territories directly In the 21 centuries from 206 BC until AD 1912 routine administrative tasks were handled by a special elite of scholar officials Young men well versed in calligraphy history literature and philosophy were carefully selected through difficult government examinations China s last dynasty was the Qing 1644 1912 which was replaced by the Republic of China in 1912 and in the mainland by the People s Republic of China in 1949 Chinese history has alternated between periods of political unity and peace and periods of war and failed statehood the most recent being the Chinese Civil War 1927 1949 China was occasionally dominated by steppe peoples most of whom were eventually assimilated into the Han Chinese culture and population Between eras of multiple kingdoms and warlordism Chinese dynasties have ruled parts or all of China in some eras control stretched as far as Xinjiang and Tibet as at present Traditional culture and influences from other parts of Asia and the Western world carried by waves of immigration cultural assimilation expansion and foreign contact form the basis of the modern culture of China
