Faith and Fiction Barbara Pell, 2006-01-01 Is it possible to write an artistically respectable and theoretically convincing religious novel in a non religious age Up to now there has been no substantial application of theological criticism to the works of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan the two most important Canadian novelists before 1960 Yet both were religious writers during the period when Canada entered the modern non religious era and both greatly influenced the development of our literature MacLennan s journey from Calvinism to Christian existentialism is documented in his essays and seven novels most fully in The Watch that Ends the Night Callaghan s fourteen novels are marked by tensions in his theology of Catholic humanism with his later novels defining his theological themes in increasingly secular terms This tension between narrative and metanarrative has produced both the artistic strengths and the moral ambiguities that characterize his work Faith and Fiction A Theological Critique of the Narrative Strategies of Hugh MacLennan and Morley Callaghan is a significant contribution to the relatively new field studying the relation between religion and literature in Canada

Secular Steeples 2nd edition Conrad Ostwalt, 2012-09-27 An exploration of secularization in America this book provides students with an innovative way of understanding the relationship between religion and secular culture In Secular Steeples Conrad Ostwalt challenges long held assumptions about the relationship between religion and culture and about the impact of secularization Moving away from the idea that religion will diminish as secularization continues Ostwalt identifies areas of popular culture where secular and sacred views and objectives interact and enrich each other The book demonstrates how religious institutions use the secular and popular media of television movies and music to make sacred teachings relevant From megachurches to sports arenas the Bible to Harry Potter biker churches to virtual worship communities Ostwalt demonstrates how religion persists across cultural forms secular and sacred with secular culture expressing religious messages and sometimes containing more authentic religious content than official religious teachings An ideal text for anyone studying religion and popular culture each chapter provides questions for discussion a list of important terms and guided readings

Reading for Redemption Christian R. Davis, 2011-02-07 The goal of this book is to define and explain the archetypal pattern of redemption that underlies our whole notion of resolution in literature and to demonstrate through multiple examples that successful literature poems and stories that have shown endurance or popularity uses this pattern in specific ways This theory should help readers to interpret both particular works of literature and the general notion of literature The pattern of redemption employed here in its ideal form involves the sacrifice of an innocent redeemer to save something that has been lost Because this pattern of redemption is typically associated with Christianity this book can be taken as proposing a Christian theory of criticism Current textbooks on literary criticism and theory cover a range of perspectives such as Marxism feminism multiculturalism reader response and queer theory but they invariably ignore the field of Christian criticism Therefore this book may be most useful as a supplementary text for courses in literary criticism that might include a Christian perspective At the same time however the terms and methodology proposed here are not exclusive to or dependant on Christian beliefs so readers of all types may find this approach useful The greatest strength of this book is its application of the theory to numerous examples from a wide range of genres and periods of literature testing the theory on classical and Shakespearean works such as the Iliad and Odyssey Hamlet and Coriolanus best sellers such as The Lord of the Rings Le

Petit Prince Valley of the Dolls and Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows horror stories such as Frankenstein postcolonial novels such as Things Fall Apart and The Kite Runner and lyric poems Consequently even readers who are skeptical of the assumptions used here should find the many concrete examples thought provoking Secular Steeples Conrad Ostwalt,2003-03-24 Conrad Ostwalt explores the confluence of religion and popular cultural forms in the secular world demonstrating that a secular religiosity has co opted some of the functions previously reserved for religions institutions

Reading Deconstruction/Deconstructive Reading George Douglas Atkins,2021-05-11 Deconstruction a mode of close reading associated with the contemporary philosopher Jacques Derrida and other members of the Yale School is the current critical rage and is likely to remain so for some time Reading Deconstruction Deconstructive Reading offers a unique informed and badly needed introduction to this important movement written by one of its most sensitive and lucid practitioners More than an introduction this book makes a significant addition to the current debate in critical theory G Douglas Atkins first analyzes and explains deconstruction theory and practice Focusing on such major critics and theorists as Derrida J Hillis Miller and Geoffrey Hartman he brings to the fore issues previously scanted in accounts of deconstruction especially its religious implications Then through close readings of such texts as Religio Laici A Tale of a Tub and An Epistle to Dr Arbuthnot he proceeds to demonstrate and exemplify a mode of deconstruction indebted to both Derrida and Paul de Man This skillfully organized book designed to reflect the both and nature of deconstruction thus makes its own contribution to deconstructive practice The important readings provided of Dryden Swift and Pope are among the first to treat major Augustan texts from a deconstructive point of view and make the book a valuable addition to the study of that period Well versed in deconstruction the variety of texts he treats and major issues of current concern in literary study Atkins offers in this book a balanced and judicious defense of deconstruction that avoids being polemical dogmatic or narrowly ideological Whereas much previous work on and in deconstruction has been notable for its thick prose jargon and general obfuscation this book will be appreciated for its clarity and grace as well as for its command of an impressively wide range of texts and issues Without taming it as an instrument of analysis and potential change Atkins makes deconstruction comprehensible to the general reader His efforts will interest all those concerned with literary theory and criticism Augustan literature and the relation of literature and religion Diane di Prima David Stephen Calonne,2019-01-24 Diane di Prima Visionary Poetics and the Hidden Religions reveals how central di Prima was in the discovery articulation and dissemination of the major themes of the Beat and hippie countercultures from the fifties to the present Di Prima 1934 was at the center of literary artistic and musical culture in New York City She also was at the energetic fulcrum of the Beat movement and with Leroi Jones Amiri Baraka edited The Floating Bear 1961 69 a central publication of the period to which William S Burroughs Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg Charles Olson and Frank O Hara contributed Di Prima was also a pioneer in her challenges to conventional assumptions regarding love sexuality marriage and the role of women David Stephen Calonne charts the life work of di Prima through close readings of her poetry prose and autobiographical writings exploring her thorough immersion in world spiritual traditions and how these studies informed both the form and content of her oeuvre Di Prima's engagement in what she would call the hidden religions can be divided into several phases her years at Swarthmore College and in New York her move to San Francisco and immersion in Zen her researches into the I Ching Paracelsus John Dee Heinrich Cornelius Agrippa alchemy Tarot and Kabbalah of the mid sixties and her later interest in Tibetan Buddhism Diane di Prima Visionary Poetics and the Hidden Religions is the first monograph devoted to a writer of genius whose prolific work is notable for its stylistic variety wit and humor struggle for social justice and philosophical depth Novels, Novelists, and Readers Mary F. Rogers, 1991-07-03 Focusing on British and American novels Rogers takes a sociological look at the business of literature the book industry and the experiences of novelists and readers Viewing the novel as a vehicle of cultural meaning the author shows how the literary canon overlooks substantial similarities among novels in favor of restrictive codes based on social as well as literary considerations She emphasizes the kinship between the social sciences and humanities in her analysis by reinvigorating affection for the novel and also establishing its rich cultural significance The Faith of Jesus Christ Richard B. Hays, 2002 In this important study Hays argues against the mainstream that any attempt to account for the nature and method of Paul's theological language must first reckon with the centrality of narrative elements in his thought Through an in depth investigation of Galatians 3:1-4:11 Hays shows that the framework of Paul's thought is neither a system of doctrines nor his personal religious experience but the sacred story of Jesus Christ Faith Rising—Between the Lines David B. Bowman, 2021-05-25 This writing intends to rouse would be believers to faith or enhance the faith of others through the adventure of modern fiction While taking note of the secularity of our era the author insists the Spirit of God has not departed the scene The opening poem by Emily Dickinson Tell all the truth but tell it slant proposes the author's contention that the indirect discourse of fictional writers may welcome readers to faith's door in ways sermonistic speech never did The modern authors chosen for this purpose are Izak Dinesen Annie Dillard Kent Haruf Loren Eiseley Gary Trudeau Garrison Keillor William Golding Walker Percy Frederick Buechner and Gabriel Marcel Having explained one work each by these noted authors the book closes by pointing to ways in which embedded faith may rise out of these pages to meet the reader where he or she lives A Subversive Gospel Michael Mears Bruner, 2017-10-24 The good news of Jesus Christ is a subversive gospel and following Jesus is a subversive act Exploring the theological aesthetic of American author Flannery O'Connor Michael Bruner argues that her fiction reveals what discipleship to Jesus Christ entails by subverting the traditional understandings of beauty truth and goodness Religious Feeling and Religious Commitment in Faulkner, Dostoyevsky, Werfel and Bernanos Jeremy Smith, 2016-07-28 First published in 1988 the aim of this study is to define the role of religious meaning in the modern novel and to demonstrate that the novel can successfully express a religious feeling but not a religious commitment Through the analysis of four novels by Faulkner Dostoyevsky Werfel and Bernanos the work explains why novels with a single definite commitment tend to be implausible and lacking in aesthetic unity This book will be of interest to those studying religion in 19th Century literature All Quiet on the Western Front - Erich Maria Remarque
