Religion And Politics In Enlightenment Europe Erasmus Institutes:

Religion and Politics in Enlightenment Europe James E. Bradley, Dale K. Van Kley, 2001 This work shows that the collapse of the post reformation confessional state was more the result of religious dissent from within much of it orthodox than attacks of an anti religious Enlightenment In sharp contrast to the Reformation era religious conflicts which tended to pit Protestant and Catholic confessions and states against each other the 18th century religious conflicts described in this work took place within the various confessional establishments and states that founded and maintained them such as Russian Orthodoxy in the East and the Anglican Establishment in England and Ireland In the course of its analysis this work destroys the notion of any kind of privileged relationship between religion and political or social reaction This work reveals the religious roots of modern ideas of individual rights and limitations on government as well as the imperative of political order and the need for social hierarchy

One Generation from Extinction Mark Griffiths, 2012-09-12 When Robert Raikes started his first Sunday School in 1780 he saw his idea grow to reach 300 000 unchurched children within five years this in a nation widely ignorant of Christian ideas and values Mark Griffiths has used Raikes pioneering work in examining child evangelism in the UK Working from extensive local and national research leading to a PhD he considers how children tick what basic theology is at work in Christian outreach and what constitutes best practice in child evangelism His text is studded with insights and observations and brings together the author's passion for his subject with the rigour of careful research This is an unparalleled resource laying the foundations of future growth

The Eighteenth-century Current Bibliography, 2001 Education, Politics and Religion James Arthur, Liam Gearon, Alan Sears, 2010-06-28 In recent years a number of popular books have savaged religion arguing it is a dangerous delusion that poisons human societies and relationships This is but the most recent manifestation of a secularising agenda that has been sweeping contemporary democratic societies since the Enlightenment This book pushes back against that agenda examining its key assumptions and arguing that the exclusion of religious people and ideas from education and the public square is both undemocratic and unwise For the most part the book draws arguments and examples from Christianity the religious tradition of the authors but it recognises that many religions share the concerns and possibilities examined The book examines contemporary expressions of the secularising agenda in Western democracies with particular focus on how that is played out in education It demonstrates how republican theory understood within a faith perspective provides a shared understanding and substantive basis for education within a Western democracy It explores the historical connections and disconnections between religion and civic life in the West from ancient to contemporary times and examines religiously based civic action and pedagogical approaches contending both have the potential to contribute greatly to democracy It will be of value to any who are interested in exploring how democracies can include the voices of all their citizens the religious and the secular Heythrop Journal, 2002 A select book list appears quarterly Internationale Bibliographie der Rezensionen wissenschaftlicher

Literatur, 2003 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2003 The Republic of Grace Douglas Bradford Palmer, 2004 Abstract At the center of eighteenth century international Jansenism were a group of migr French priests living in the Dutch city of Utrecht where they coordinated the efforts of a learned and cosmopolitan group of clerics university professors and governmental officials an international Republic of Grace that both resembled and competed with the Enlightenment s Republic of Letters It was a religious and intellectual community that was dedicated to reform within the Catholic Church consciously pan European in its outlook and in the eighteenth century threatened the political and religious foundations of Europe s Old Regime Jansenist religious reform carried out in the spirit of the Counter Reformation crossed from the religious sphere into the political so that Jansenists viewed the French Revolution as the opportunity to complete the task of the Counter Reformation Church And because this debate was waged in the eighteenth century it utilized the century s most powerful tool for manipulating public opinion the pen and printing press Modeled on the studies of the eighteenth century public sphere inspired by Jürgen Habermas s The Structural Transformation of the Public Sphere An Inquiry into a Category of Bourgeois Society this dissertation argues that Habermas public sphere is far too limited in scope for he claimed that the basis for its growth was bourgeois and secular in nature The activities of the Jansenists however demonstrate a public sphere that was religious in nature where faith mattered more than reason well into the eighteenth and even the nineteenth century Furthermore this dissertation significantly adds to the intellectual and cultural history of eighteenth century Europe and the origins of the French Revolution by analyzing the contributions made by the international Jansenist community to the revolutionary discourse of late eighteenth century Europe Encyclopedia of Religion in American Politics Jeffrey Schultz, John G. West, Iain Maclean, 1998-12-14 Today such issues as abortion capital punishment sex education racism prayer in public schools and family values keep religion and politics closely entwined in American public life This encyclopedia is an A to Z listing of a broad range of topics related to religious issues and politics ranging from the religious freedom sought by the Pilgrims in the 1620s to the rise of the religious right in the 1980s Language Choice in Enlightenment Europe Vladislav Rjéoutski, Willem Frijhoff, 2025-10-01 This multinational collection of essays challenges the traditional image of a monolingual Ancient Regime in Enlightenment Europe both East and West Its archival research explores the important role played by selective language use in social life and in the educational provisions in the early constitution of modern society A broad range of case studies show how language was viewed and used symbolically by social groups ranging from the nobility to the peasantry to develop express and mark their identities Early Modern Universities, 2020-12-07 Early Modern Universities Networks of Higher Education publishes twenty essays on early modern institutional academic networks and the history of the book The case studies examine universities schools and academies across a wide geographical range throughout Europe and in Central America The volume suggests pathways for future research into institutional hierarchies cultural ties and how networks of policy makers were embedded in complex scholarly and scientific developments Topics include institutions and political entanglements locality and mobility especially the movement of scholars and scholarship between institutions communication collaboration and the circulation of academic knowledge The essays use studies of print and book cultures to provide insights into cooperative interregional markets travel and trade Contributors Laurence Brockliss Liam Chambers Liam Chambers Peter Davidson Mordechai Feingold Alette Fleischer Willem Frijhoff Anja Silvia Goeing Martina Hacke Michael Hunter Urs B Leu David A Lines Ian Maclean Thomas O Connor Glyn Parry Yar P rez Mar n Elizabeth Sandis Andreas Sohn Jane Stevenson Iolanda Ventura and Benjamin Wardhaugh

Conversion and the Politics of Religion in Early Modern Germany German Studies Association. Conference,2012 The Protestant and Catholic Reformations thrust the nature of conversion into the center of debate and politicking over religion as authorities and subjects imbued religious confession with novel meanings during the early modern era The volume offers insights into the historicity of the very concept of conversion One widely accepted modern notion of the phenomenon simply expresses denominational change Yet this concept had no bearing at the outset of the Reformation Instead a variety of processes such as the consolidation of territories along confessional lines attempts to ensure civic concord and diplomatic quarrels helped to usher in new ideas about the nature of religious boundaries and therefore conversion However conceptualized religious change conversion had deep social and political implications for early modern German states and societies

Towards Rethinking Politics, Policy and Polity in the Anthropocene Hans Günter Brauch,2025-02-24 Humankind faces two anthropogenic threats to its survival that are closely linked The first is the end of the Holocene and the start of the Anthropocene which was marked by the test of a nuclear bomb on 16 July 1945 In the prevailing peace and security narrative nuclear weapons and the other country bloc or alliance pose a perceived threat to humankind s survival In the Anthropocene narrative we are the threat through our way of life and the burning of fossil fuels The start of the Anthropocene coincides with a change in the international order with the setting up of the UN and the Bretton Woods Institutions Three stages of this order are distinguished the Cold War bipolarity the post Cold War era unipolarity and the end of the rule based global liberal order multipolarity on 24 February 2022 In this book ten multidisciplinary perspectives discuss complexity Anthropocene geopolitics peace and security discourses and the debate on the Anthropocene planetary boundaries complex crises and integrative geography in the Anthropocene governance and politics and the Patriacene and gender Both existential threats for humankind are illustrated by cover photos of the first nuclear weapons test on 16 July 1945 and by Category 5 Hurricane Otis an extreme weather event impacting on Acapulco in Mexico on 25 October 2023 The Anthropocene as a new epoch of Earth history coincides in 1945 with a change in the international order In the security and peace narrative the other and nuclear weapons pose an existential threat in the Anthropocene narrative This dual existential change requires a rethinking of politics policy and polity In the social sciences the Anthropocene is being discussed from multidisciplinary perspectives geography political science and peace security and gender studies This is an open access publication American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Christianity and the Soul of the University Douglas V. Henry,Michael D. Beaty,2006 Leading scholars explore the role of faith in the university setting Historical Abstracts Eric H. Boehm,1999 Curriculum Reform in the European Schools Sandra Leaton Gray,David Scott,Peeter Mehisto,2018-05-29 This book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license This open access book examines the modern role of the European School system within the European Union at a time when the global economy demands a new vision for contemporary education The European schools are currently in a state of crisis their 60 year old tradition of bilingual and multilingual education is being strained by rapid EU expansion and the removal of English speaking teachers as a result of Brexit Their tried and tested model of mathematics and science education has rapidly been overtaken by new developments in pedagogy and assessment research while recruitment and retention of students and teachers has become increasingly fraught as European member states review what they are and what they are not prepared to fund The authors draw on original and empirical research to assess the European Schools place in a new Europe where the entire post war European Project is potentially at risk This well researched volume will be of interest to practitioners working in European schools as well as students and scholars of EU politics and international education
