Management Jens O. Riis, Riitta Smeds, Rik Van Landeghem, 2013-04-17 Learning has become a constant state of mind for most professionals in today's organizations However to become a true learning enterprise organizations cannot stop at instilling this yearning for knowledge into their collaborators They must also capture and formalize the common know how of the organization as well as provide time and infrastructure to allow learning moments to happen The aim of the Gaming Workgroup within IFIP 5.7 on Integrated Production Management Systems and the European Group of University Teachers for Industrial Management EHTB is to develop tools and formalisms to support experimental learning in these organizations It has been proven that modelling the know how using visual environments such as multimedia and graphic simulations is a first step This in turn allows for the development of games i.e. challenging settings that foster group interaction and problem solving Games in Operations Management provides an excellent overview of the different game formats that have been developed and tested in past years and includes games in a manufacturing environment games in a services environment and games for teaching organizational values The book comprises the selected revised proceedings of the 4th International Workshop on Games in Production Management Experimental Learning in Industrial Management which was sponsored by the International Federation for Information Processing IFIP and held in November 1998 in Ghent Belgium The book will be of particular interest to organizational trainers providing a good overview of state of the art game and training formats as well as hints and advice on how to organize interactive training sessions It will also be of interest to researchers in industrial engineering industrial management and operations management Experimental Learning in Production Management

Riitta Smeds, J. Smeds, 2013-06-29 This book is based on the presentations at the Third Workshop on Games in Production Management The Effects of Games on Developing Production Management held in Espoo Finland June 27-29 1997 The workshop was organized by the Special Interest Group on Games of IFIP Working Group 5.7 which is coordinated by Professor Jens Riis The Special Interest Group aims to enhance learning in production management in academia and in industry through the development application and research of simulation games Currently the Special Interest Group is developing a catalogue of games in production management which will be available on the Internet The two previous workshops of the Special Interest Group were held in Aalborg and in Sflnderborg and a workshop and exhibition of simulation games was arranged in connection with the APMS 96 Conference in Kyoto in November 1996 In these workshops various simulation games have been presented experimented and discussed and experiences exchanged As a result a network of researchers and teachers interested in games has been created The third workshop with participants from ten countries further expanded and strengthened the network and created ideas for potential joint research projects in simulation for learning in production management The workshop was sponsored by the IFIP Working Group 5.7 on Computer Aided Production Management Systems Helsinki University of Technology the Finnish Graduate School of Industrial Management and the City of Espoo which we gratefully acknowledge
