What this revised volume provides is a collection of chapters offering theological perspectives, social science research, and insights on ministry practice about the spiritual lives of children: how they relate to God, how this relationship grows, and what helps in promoting the spiritual formation and vitality of children in the home, church, and school. This book offers twenty-three chapters by professors, graduate students, social science researchers, and ministry leaders from different denominational traditions, addressing a wide range of issues in theory, research, and ministry practice with children.
