Singing Towards The Future:

Singing Towards the Future lian goodall,2008-10-01 This book tells the the story of the famous Nova Scotian classical singers rise to fame Illustrated with archival photos and sketches Transforming Choral Singing Charles W. Beale,Charles Beale,2024 In Transforming Choral Singing An Activist s Guide for Choir Directors author Charles W Beale draws from his many years of choral directing experience to put forth a new vision for choral singing to move audiences and change the world He lays down a non canonical and inclusive framework grounded in critical musicology and pedagogy for mission driven and activist oriented engagement with the choral arts and provides practical takeaways for choral practitioners and conductors through a lively mix of practical workshops tips and suggestions The Singing Teacher's Guide to Transgender Voices Liz Jackson Hearn,Brian Kremer,2018-05-18 The Singing Teacher s Guide to Transgender Voices is the first comprehensive resource developed for training transgender and nonbinary singers This text aids in the development of voice pedagogy tailored to the needs of transgender singers informed by cultural competence and bolstered by personal narratives of trans and nonbinary singing students The singing life of a transgender or nonbinary student can be overwhelmingly stressful Because many of the current systems in place for singing education are so firmly anchored in gender binary systems transgender and gender nonconforming singers are often forced into groups with which they feel they don t belong Singers in transition are often afraid to reach out for help because the likelihood of finding a voice teacher who is competent in navigating the social emotional physical and physiological challenges of transition is minimal at best This text equips teachers with a sympathetic perspective on these unique struggles and with the knowledge and resources needed to guide students to a healthy joyful and safe singing life It challenges professional and academic communities to understand the needs of transgender singers and provide evidence based voice education and real world opportunities that are authentic and genuine The Singing Teacher s Guide to Transgender Voices is the first book of its kind to provide thorough organized information on the training of trans singers for educators in both the academic and independent teaching realms So You Want to Sing Sacred Music Matthew Hoch,2016-12-14 Sacred music traditions vary profoundly from one religion to the next Even within the Christian faith one can hear a wide variety of music among and within different denominations Catholics mainline Protestants and Evangelicals have all developed unique traditions Many people are not exposed to multiple faith experiences in their upbringings which can make exploring an unfamiliar sacred music style challenging Because of this singers and teachers regularly encounter religious singing styles to which they have not yet been exposed In So You Want to Sing Sacred Music multiple contributors offer a broad overview of sacred singing in the Judeo Christian tradition Evan Kent Anthony Ruff Matthew Hoch and Sharon L Radionoff share their expertise on topics as diverse as Jewish cantorial music Gregorian chant post Vatican II Catholic music choral traditions and contemporary Christian music This plethora of styles represents the most common traditions encountered by amateur and emerging professional singers when exploring sacred performance opportunities In each chapter contributors consider liturgical origins musical characteristics training requirements repertoire and resources for each of these traditions The writers all professional singers and teachers with rich experience singing these styles also discuss vocal technique as it relates to each style Contributors also offer professional advice for singers seeking work within each tradition s institutional settings surveying the skills needed while offering practical advice for auditioning and performing successfully in the world of sacred music So You Want to Sing Sacred Music is a helpful resource for any singer looking to add sacred performance to their portfolio or seeking opportunities and employment where sacred music is practiced and performed Additional chapters by Scott McCoy Wendy LeBorgne and Matthew Edwards address universal questions of voice science and pedagogy vocal health and audio enhancement technology The So You Want to Sing series is produced in partnership with the National Association of Teachers of Singing Like all books in the series So You Want to Sing Sacred Music features online supplemental material on the NATS website Please visit www.nats.org to access style specific exercises audio and video files and additional resources Musical Education and Vocal Culture for Vocalists and Teachers of Singing Albert Bernhard Bach, 1898 The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing, Volume I: Development Frank A. Russo, Beatriz Ilari, Annabel J. Cohen, 2020-05-19 The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing Volume I Development introduces the many voices necessary to better understand the act of singing a complex human behaviour that emerges without deliberate training Presenting research from the social sciences and humanities alongside that of the natural sciences and medicine alike this companion explores the relationship between hearing sensitivity and vocal production in turn identifying how singing is integrated with sensory and cognitive systems while investigating the ways we test and measure singing ability and development Contributors consider the development of singing within the context of the entire lifespan focusing on its cognitive social and emotional significance in four parts Musical historical and scientific foundations Perception and production Multimodality Assessment In 2009 the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada funded a seven year major collaborative research initiative known as Advancing Interdisciplinary Research in Singing AIRS Together global researchers from a broad range of disciplines addressed three challenging questions How does singing develop in every human being How should singing be taught and used to teach How does singing impact wellbeing Across three volumes The Routledge Companion to Interdisciplinary Studies in Singing consolidates the findings of each of these three questions defining the current state of theory and research in the field Volume I Development tackles the first of these three questions tracking development from infancy through childhood to adult years Moses and the Journey to Leadership Norman J. Cohen, 2008 Leaders are not simply born they are molded through life s victories and failures triumphs and defeats No one exemplifies this process better than Moses the most important and celebrated character in the Hebrew Bible Faced with great internal and external challenges he was sculpted into a great leader not only by circumstance but also by his own
