Freedman,2021-10-21 Few historical images are more powerful than those of wartime London Having survived a constant barrage of German bombs the city is remembered as an island of courage and defiance These wartime images are still in use today to support a wide variety of political viewpoints But how well do such descriptions match the memories of those who survived the blitz Jean Freedman interviewed more than fifty people who remember London during the war focusing on under represented groups including women Jews and working class citizens In addition she examined original propaganda secret government documents wartime diaries and postwar memoirs Of particular significance to Freedman were the contemporary music theater film speeches and radio drama used by the British government to shape public opinion and impart political messages Such bits of everyday life are mentioned in virtually every civilian s experience of wartime London but their interpretations of them often clashed with their government s intentions By exploring the differences between wartime documentation and postwar memory oral and written artifacts and the voices of the powerful and the obscure Freedman illuminates the complex interactions between myth and history She concludes that there are as many interpretations of what really happened during Britain s finest hour as there are people who remember it

Drake,1897      Singing Out David Burke,2015-03-01 The Life And Work Of 3 Female Folk Icons David Burke takes the lives of three of British folk music s best known and best loved women and intertwines their stories Why these three As David explains Maddy Prior June Tabor and Linda Thompson have both endured and evolved The people s relationship with its heritage may be capricious but Maddy June and Linda have remained resolutely committed to it while concurrently contemporising it They all began in the folk clubs of the second folk revival in the 1960s but whilst staying true to their roots have never been afraid to try new things sometimes to the horror of traditional folkies Maddy Prior MBE is best known as being the singer with Steeleye Span though she has done many different things including the Silly Sisters with June Tabor June tried to juggle being a librarian and a singer until singing thankfully won out Elvis Costello said If you don't like listening to June Tabor you should stop listening to music To a large extent Linda Thompson's later career has been blighted by hysterical dysphonia a condition that has stopped her singing for long periods For this book all three women kindly provided interviews but Linda could only communicate via e-mail her condition which comes and goes was so bad at the time However her albums with ex-husband Richard Thompson are classics as are her own solo albums it is just sad that illness has deprived her and us of more of them In addition to the three subjects David has interviewed amongst others Ian Anderson Martin Carthy Christy Moore Martin Simpson Rufus Wainwright and even the creator of the Wombles pop group Mike Batt who produced Steeleye Span
