Re/centring Lives and Lived Experience in Education ,2022-07-11

Teaching and learning are profoundly personal experiences yet systems of education often prioritize disembodied and decontextualized approaches that continue the historical marginalization of the lives they seek to represent Re centring teachers and learners places individuals at the heart of education and in so doing re positions knowledge as contextual and constructivist This approach at once pedagogical and practical has the capacity to transform the classroom from a place too often characterized by what is missing to a place of presence Through critical qualitative creative and arts integrated approaches this collection explores the co curricular capacity of lived experience to re centre human being in education
