Plotinus A Bibliography 195:

Central Works of Philosophy, Volume 1 John Shand, 2005-09-01 Ranging over 2 500 years of philosophical writing this five volume collection of essays is an unrivalled companion for studying and reading philosophy Each essay provides an overview of a work and a clear exposition of its central ideas Covering the most influential works of our greatest philosophers the series offers remarkable insights into the ideas out of which our present ways of thinking emerged VOLUME 1 offers readers a deep understanding of ancient philosophy and the medieval period in Western Europe during which philosophers sought to harmonize the great thinkers of antiquity with Christian belief The works of Plato Aristotle Lucretius Sextus Empiricus Plotinus Augustine Anselm Aquinas Duns Scotus and Ockham are considered Contributors include Hugh H Benson Stephen R L Clark Richard Cross Paula Gottlieb R J Hankinson Peter King Christopher Kirwan Harry Lesser John Marenbon and Paul O Grady Philosophy in Christian Antiquity Christopher Stead, 1994-11-24 Christianity began as a little known Jewish sect but rose within 300 years to dominate the civilised world It owed its rise in part to inspired moral leadership but also to its success in assimilating criticising and developing the philosophies of the day which offered rationally approved life styles and moral directives Without abandoning their allegiance to their founder and to Holy Scripture Christians could therefore present their faith as a new philosophy This book which is written for non specialist readers provides a concise conspectus of the emergence of philosophy among the Greeks an account of its continuance in early Christian times and its influence on early Christian thought especially in formulating the doctrines of the Trinity and the Incarnation and finally a brief critical assessment of the philosophy of St Augustine arguably the greatest philosopher of the first millennium

Central Works of Philosophy v1 John Shand, 2015-01-28 This collection of essays showcases the most important and influential philosophical works of the ancient and medieval period roughly from 600 BC to AD 1600 Each chapter takes a particular work of philosophy and discusses its proponent its content and central arguments These are Plato's Republic Aristotle Nichomachean Ethics Lucretius On the Nature of the Universe Sextus Empiricus Outlines of Pyrrhonism Plotinus The Enneads Augustine's City of God Anselm's Proslogion Aquinas Summa Theologiae Duns Scotus Ordinatio William of Ockham's Summa Logicae Central Works of Philosophy John Shand, 2005 Mystical Monotheism John Peter Kenney, 2010-12-01 In this engaging and provocative study John Peter Kenney examines the emergence of monotheism within Greco Roman philosophical theology by tracing the changing character of ancient realism from Plato through Plotinus Besides acknowledging the philosophical and theological significance of such ancient thinkers as Plutarch Numenius Alcinous and Atticus he demonstrates the central importance of Plotinus in clarifying the relation of the intelligible world to divinity Kenney focuses especially on Plotinus's novel concept of deity arguing that it constitutes a type of mystical monotheism based upon an ultimate and inclusive divine One beyond description or discursive knowledge Presenting difficult material with grace and clarity Kenney takes a wide ranging view of the development of ancient Platonic theology from a philosophical perspective and synthesizes familiar elements in a new way His is a revisionist thesis with significant implications for the study of Greco Roman Jewish and Christian thought in this period and for the history of Western religious thought in general

Truthfulness, Realism, Historicity Peter Turner, 2016-02-17 Were holy men historical figures or figments of the theological imagination Did the biographies devoted to them reflect facts or only the ideological commitments of their authors For decades scholars of late antiquity have wrestled with these questions when analysing such issues as the Christianization of Europe the decline of paganism and the rise of the holy man and of the hagiographical genre In this book Peter Turner suggests a new approach to these problems through an examination of a wide range of spiritual narrative texts from the third to the sixth centuries A D pagan philosophical biographies Greek and Latin Christian saints lives and autobiographical works by authors such as Julian and Augustine Rather than scrutinizing these works for either historical facts or religious and intellectual attitudes he argues that a deeper historicity can be found only in the interplay between these types of information On the textual level this analysis recognises the genuine commitment of spiritual authors to write truthfully and to record realistically a world felt to be replete with spiritual and symbolic meaning On the historical level it argues that holy men expecting the same symbolism within their own lives adopted lifestyles which ultimately provoked and confirmed this world view Such praxis is detectable not only in the holy men who inspired biography but also in the period s scattered autobiographical writings As much a historical as a textual phenomenon this spiritually minded scrutiny of the world created interpretations which were always open and contested Therefore this book also associates spiritual narrative texts with only one possible voice of religious experience in a constant dialogue between believers opponents and the sceptical undecided The Platonizing Sethian Background of Plotinus's Mysticism Zeke Mazur, 2020-10-12 In The Platonizing Sethian Background of Plotinus's Mysticism Zeke Mazur offers a radical reconceptualization of Plotinus with reference to Gnostic thought and praxis A crucial element in the thought of the third century CE philosopher Plotinus his conception of mystical union with the One cannot be understood solely within the conventional history of philosophy or as the product of a unique sui generis psychological propensity This monograph demonstrates that Plotinus tacitly patterned his mystical ascent to the One on a type of visionary ascent ritual that is first attested in Gnostic sources These sources include the Platonizing Sethian tractates Zostrianos NHC VIII 1 and Allogenes NHC XI 3 of which we have Coptic translations from Nag Hammadi and whose Greek Vorlagen were known to have been read in Plotinus's school Philosophy Hans E. Perszyk, 2023 John Bishop and Ken Perszyk argue that it is reasonable to reject the standard conception of a personal omniGod They present an alternative view euteleology reality is inherently purposive and the universe exists ultimately because its overall end which is the supreme good is made concretely real within it
