Radio Luxembourg Richard Nichols,1983 Radio Luxembourg, the Station of the Stars Richard Nichols,1983 The Cultural Histories of Radio Luxembourg and Europe n°1 Richard Legay,2023-12-30 This book focuses on two commercial radio stations Radio Luxembourg and Europe n 1 which were popular institutions in Western Europe throughout the Long Sixties working across media and broadcasting transnationally It argues that the existence of an overarching dispositif of commercial radio stations enabled them to operate on various dimensions and differentiated them from other broadcasters The book therefore answers current calls in media history to look beyond national and single medium borders and contributes to the cultural and media history of Western Europe A Social History of Early Rock 'n' Roll in Germany Julia Sneeringer,2018-05-31 A Social History of Early Rock n Roll in Germany explores the people and spaces of St Pauli s rock n roll scene in the 1960s Starting in 1960 young British rockers were hired to entertain tourists in Hamburg s red light district around the Reeperbahn in the area of St Pauli German youths quickly joined in to experience the forbidden thrill of rock n roll and used African American sounds to distance themselves from the old Nazi generation In 1962 the Star Club opened and drew international attention for hosting some of the Beatles most influential performances In this book Julia Sneeringer weaves together this story of youth culture with histories of sex and gender popular culture media and subculture By exploring the history of one locale in depth Sneeringer offers a welcome contribution to the scholarly literature on space place sound and the city and pays overdue attention to the impact that Hamburg had upon music and style She is also careful to place performers such as The Beatles back into the social spatial and musical contexts that shaped them and their generation This book reveals that transnational encounters between musicians fans entrepreneurs and businessmen in St Pauli produced a musical style that provided emotional and physical liberation and challenged powerful forces of conservatism and conformity with effects that transformed the world for decades to come Encyclopedia of Radio 3-Volume Set Christopher H. Sterling,2004-03 Produced in association with the Museum of Broadcast Communications in Chicago the Encyclopedia of Radio includes more than 600 entries covering major countries and regions of the world as well as specific programs and people networks and organizations regulation and policies audience research and radio s technology This encyclopedic work will be the first broadly conceived reference source on a medium that is now nearly eighty years old with essays that provide essential information on the subject as well as comment on the significance of the particular person organization or topic being examined Crossing the Ether Sean Street,2006 Histories of British broadcasting suggest that the BBC monopoly was never seriously challenged until the coming of ITV in 1955 Crossing the Ether counters this view telling the story of commercial radio s first challenge to the Public Service monopoly between 1930 and 1939 In the telling this account provides substantial primary evidence that radio in Britain during the 1930s was a battleground between continental based stations run by British and American commercial interests and the BBC beset by paternalistic and sabbatarian principles The Early Shortwave Stations Jerome S. Berg, 2013-10-04 In July 1923 less than three years after Westinghouse station KDKA signed on company engineer Frank Conrad began regular simulcasting of its programs on a frequency in the newly discovered shortwave range It was an important event in a technological revolution that would make dependable worldwide radio communication possible for the first time In subsequent years countless stations in practically all countries followed suit taking to shortwave to extend reception domestically or reach audiences thousands of miles away Shortwave broadcasting would also have an important role in World War II and in the Cold War In this his fourth book on shortwave broadcast history the author revisits the period of his earlier work On the Short Waves 1923 1945 and focuses on the stations that were on the air in those early days The year by year account chronicles the birth and operation of the large international broadcasters as well as the numerous smaller stations that were a great attraction to the DXers or long distance radio enthusiasts of the time With more than 100 illustrations and extensive notes bibliography and index the book is also a valuable starting point for further study and research Radio Broadcasting Gordon Bathgate, 2020-11-23 An in depth look at a century of radio history and its continuing relevance in a radically changed world A century after Marconi's experimental transmissions this book examines the history of radio and traces its development from theories advanced by James Clerk Maxwell and Heinrich Hertz to the first practical demonstrations by Guglielmo Marconi It looks back to the pioneering broadcasts of the BBC examines the development of broadcast networks in North America and around the world and spotlights radio's role in the Second World War The book also features the radio programs and radio personalities that made a considerable impact on listeners during the Golden Era It examines how radio faced by competition from television adapted and survived Indeed radio has continued to thrive despite increased competition from mobile phones computers and other technological developments Radio Broadcasting looks ahead and speculates on how radio will fare in a multi platform future The Armchair Diplomat on Europe Melissa Rossi, 2005-08-04 It happens all the time you're watching the Champion's League pondering Robert Kilroy Silk's unnatural glow reading the latest newspaper debate about EU bendy banana laws and thinking what's really going on in Europe Does anyone actually know what they're talking about And where are Riga and Vilnius anyway You needn't worry any more With this armchair guide you'll discover the strange and fascinating world that calls itself Europe without ever having to leave your own home There are insights into culture how to join the Finns beating themselves with birch twigs in the sauna the lowdown on the people that matter porn stars turned politicians in Italy fascinating facts and explanations of historical rifts and you thought the relationship between Britain and France was bad You'll find out how to talk like Berlusconi unravel the workings of the EU and guide yourself from the Baltics to Belgium Portugal to Poland The Armchair Diplomat Europe offers the basics of euro education for very little pain Perfect for slackers with a passion for travel Europe - On Air Suzanne Lommers, 2012 During the interwar years broadcast radio became a popular way for Europeans to consume local national

These memories handwritten by Elmo Cermaria Nonno Peppe for his grandson Checco Francesco Nicolini tell of when as a young man of 20 he found himself hurled into the inferno of the First World War In those days you could cry your heart out for a bread roll denied then miraculously regained thanks to the compassion of a German soldier the hated enemy These recollections are terse without a trace of rhetoric and devoid of recriminations Nonno Peppe tells the facts just as he experienced them first hand without expressing any condemnation of those responsible for them even though an awareness of the large scale massacre he witnessed transpires from his account When Nonno Peppe delivered the manuscript to his grandson on his wedding day he asked him to make a promise Let the President of the Republic know what we did for Italy A hundred years ago whole generations of young Italian men were stripped of human honor and dignity Only a few of these young men would live on and become our grandfathers and only a few of us would be fortunate enough to become grandchildren of the Great War and bear witness to their ordeal The A to Z of British Radio Seán Street,2009-08-04
