Raffles Place Ragtime:

Raffles Place Ragtime Philip Jeyaretnam, 2021      Raffles Place Ragtime Philip Jeyaretnam, 2010      Chapters on Asia: Selected papers from the Lee Kong Chian Research Fellowship (2019) Emma Harper, Tam Ong Y-Lynn, Marc Sebastian Rerceretnam, Yosuke Watanabe, 2020-03-31 Chapters on Asia features selected papers written by scholars who have been awarded the National Library's Lee Kong Chian Research Fellowship. These works examine the history and heritage of Singapore and the region and contain fresh research based on materials and resources from the collections of the National Library and National Archives of Singapore.      The Philip Jeyaretnam Collection Philip Jeyaretnam, 2017-02-15 This collection rounds up three of Philip Jeyaretnam's best known works in a single volume. Together they showcase his mastery of the written word across a range of forms, subject matter and emotional landscapes. The short stories and novels set in Singapore explore themes of identity, materialism, interracial relationships, power and betrayal while exposing the nation's frailties, cracks and contradictions. Jeyaretnam's characters, the thinkers, dreamers and doers, make their own way searching for meaning in the gaps between achievement, aspiration and regret. First Loves displays Jeyaretnam's intimate understanding of young love and loss while Raffles Place Ragtime examines the place of love in relation to ambition, deception and material aspiration. In Abraham's Promise, an old man comes to an understanding and reconciliation of his life and times hard won in maturity. Charged with emotional power and clarity, Jeyaretnam's spare, thoughtful prose shows off his gift for characterisation and confirms him as an elegant, eloquent stylist.      The Cultural Politics of English as an International Language Alastair Pennycook, 2017-03-16 A much cited and highly influential text by Alastair Pennycook, one of the world's authorities in sociolinguistics. The Cultural Politics of English as an International Language explores the globalization of English by examining its colonial origins, its connections to linguistics and applied linguistics, and its relationships to the global spread of teaching practices. Nine chapters cover a wide range of key topics including international politics, colonial history, critical pedagogy, postcolonial literature. The book provides a critical understanding of the concept of the worldliness of English or the idea that English can never be removed from the social, cultural, economic or political contexts in which it is used. Reissued with a substantial preface, this Routledge Linguistics Classic remains a landmark text which led a much needed critical and ideologically informed investigation into the burgeoning topic of World Englishes. Key reading for all those working in the areas of Applied Linguistics, Sociolinguistics and World Englishes.

Writing Singapore Shirley Geok-lin Lim, Philip Holden, Angelia Poon, 2009-01-01 A comprehensive historical anthology of English language literary works from Singapore. It attempts to place the texts that have imagined the territory and the people who are now recognizably Singaporean in a historical narrative to be read, studied, critiqued and treasured.      Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W. Conolly, 2004-11-30 Documents the history and development of Post colonial literatures in English together with English and American literature and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide

Looking East to Look West Sunanda K. Datta-Ray,2009 When P V Narasimha Rao and Manmohan Singh launched India's Look East policy it was only the first stage of the strategy to foster economic and security cooperation with the United States But Looking East became an end in itself and Singapore a valid destination largely because of Lee Kuan Yew He had been trying since the 1950s to persuade India's leaders that China would steal a march on them if they neglected domestic reform and ignored a region that India had influenced profoundly in ancient times With his deep understanding of Indian life close ties with India's leaders from Jawaharlal Nehru on and sound grasp of realpolitik Lee never tired of stressing that Asia would be submerged if India did not emerge Looking East to Look West recounts how India and Singapore rediscovered long forgotten ties in the endeavour to create a new Asia Singapore sponsored India's membership of regional institutions India and Singapore broke diplomatic convention with unprecedented economic and defence agreements that are set to transform boundaries of trade and cooperation This book traces the process from the earliest mention of Suvarnabhumi in the Ramayana to Lee Kuan Yew's letter to Lal Bahadur Shastri within moments of declaring independence on 9 August 1965 from the Tata's pioneering industrial training venture in Singapore to Singapore's Information Technology Park in Bangalore It explains the part Lee played in India's emergence as a player in the emerging Concert of Asia History comes alive in these pages as Sunanda K Datta Ray who had eight long conversations with Lee Kuan Yew tells the story in the words of the main actors and with a wealth of anecdotes and personal details not available to many chroniclers Passport Singapore Alexandra Kett,1998 Passport Singapore is a comprehensive guide to understanding Singapore's people culture etiquette and communication styles Business people and non business travelers will learn how to avoid cultural faux pas and begin to understand a Singapore's values and belief systems Illustrated 50 Years Of Indian Community In Singapore Gopinath Pillai,K Kesavapany,2016-07-04 From Tamils to Malayalees from Bengalis to Punjabis the diverse Indian community in Singapore has played a large part in building the country To understand the Indian community one must know certain basic facts about them First is their love for culture which transcends religious and linguistic differences Some of the best classical Hindustani singers are Muslims The best Malayalam singer of Hindu religious songs is a Christian Second is their love of debates Argument is part of Indian tradition because of the belief that truth can only be arrived at vigorous debate The third characteristic is the community's respect for education Indians across castes and religions have always venerated knowledge and learning as being a value in itself The fourth characteristic of the Indians is their devoutness they take their religious duties seriously and perform them regularly This celebratory volume highlights the progress contributions and challenges of the community for the past 50 years since Singapore's independence in 1965 Dunia buku Singapura ,1992 If We Dream Too Long Goh Poh Seng,2010-01-01 Widely regarded as the first Singapore novel If We Dream Too Long explores the dilemmas and challenges faced by its hero Kwang Meng as he navigates the difficult transitional period between youthful aspirations and the external demands of society and family. Shy and sensitive, he feels detached from mainstream life and is unable to identify with the values that animate his friends. Kwang Meng takes refuge in dreams of exotic faraway places and imagines merging himself with the sea which he loves. Yet amidst this uncertainty, the reader feels that all is not lost; that the young dreamer will eventually find his way. Kwang Meng's experiences reflect the author's fascination with the question of self amidst the dreariness and aimlessness of an increasingly urbanized and materialistic Asian society. This book also provides a fascinating portrait of Singapore as it was in the 1960s, a landscape and society that have undergone many changes but remain faintly visible in modern Singapore. Since its first publication in 1972, If We Dream Too Long has moved and delighted generations of readers. This much-loved novel has been used as a text in university literature courses in Singapore, Malaysia, and the Philippines and has been translated into Tagalog and Russian.
