Simkin, 1996 This work is the only comprehensive guide to sequels in English with over 84 000 works by 12 500 authors in 17 000 sequences Crazy Melon and Chinese Apple Frances Chung, 2000-12-18 Two previously unpublished collections by an important Chinese American poet depict daily life inside New York's Chinatown and across the Chinese diaspora during the 1960s and 70s Frances Chung's poetry stands alone as the most perceptive aesthetically accomplished and compassionate depiction of a supposedly impenetrable community during the late 1960s and 70s Written For the Chinatown People and imprinted with Chung's own ink seal Crazy Melon is collects brief poems and prose vignettes set in New York's Chinatown and Lower East Side Chung incorporates Spanish and Chinese into her English in deft evocations of these neighborhoods streets fantasies commerce and toil The title of her second collection Chinese Apple translates the Chinese word for pomegranate there she offers small crimson bites of new themes and cityscapes delightfully understated eroticism tributes to other poets impressions of other Chinese diasporic communities during her travels in Central America and Asia Its new formal experiments show that Chung's poetic prowess

continued to deepen before her early death Publication of these two works will finally allow Chung s growing circle of admirers to experience the full range of her skills and sensibility and will draw many others into that circle Her poems are an inimitable synthesis of American urban vernacular and imagery various East Asian and Spanish language poetics and a concern for ethnic and feminist cultural and political survival in writing that was so vital to American poets around the time that Chung first began to compose Her always fresh perspective on the worlds around her smoothly shifts through multiple lenses making wonderful use of her power to dream in four languages Children's Books In Print 1979-1980 ,1979

Shadows of December M. A. Senft,2019-10-08 Behind life s thin veil of the knowable into a fissure undefined by time and its constructs lies a place where souls move about freely without detection A place where ghostly encounters meet angelic challenges and a desire to alter the foreseeable future is of paramount concern Stark changes that threaten all of mankind and what it means to be human are set into motion by a time when profit and greed outweighed concern for the future But none of this is known to Jay a 14 year boy living in a rural town in 1947 Self absorbed and mischievous his life is upended when an angel and her constant companion interrupt his life Soon he will be shown the future and the horrors it brings Provided a glimpse into a domain outside perception and beyond observation Jay is transported from an uncomplicated life he has taken for granted so that he can see things as they really are On his journey through layers of realities he will learn the errors of his ways and witness how his actions can influence humanities future Flea Market Trader Sharon Huxford,Bob Huxford,2001-10-15 Containing over 10 000 alphabetical listings with current values this unique and completely revised price guide provides information on the latest market trends Includes hundreds of b w photos
