Raging Hearth Spirit In The Household Of God:

Paul Tillich and Pentecostal Theology Nimi Wariboko, Amos Yong, 2015-11-17 Paul Tillich 1886 1965 is widely regarded as one of the most influential theologians of the 20th century. By bringing his thought together with the theology and practices of an important contemporary Christian movement, Pentecostalism, this volume provokes active, productive, critical, and creative dialogue with a broad range of theological topics. These essays stimulate robust conversation, engage on common ground regarding the work of the Holy Spirit, and offer significant insights into the universal concerns of Christian theology and Paul Tillich and his legacy.

Dismantling the Dualisms for American Pentecostal Women in Ministry Lisa Stephenson, 2011-10-06 The pneumatological magna carta of Acts 2 has never translated into a fully liberating praxis for Pentecostal women in ministry. Scholars have given this problem limited attention, but their works do not adopt the perspective of pneumatology or engage feminist theology. In neglecting pneumatology, Pentecostals have ignored a methodological approach and a dominant orienting motif that is fundamental to their spirituality. In neglecting feminist theology, they proffer an incomplete solution that addresses anthropological paradigms to the exclusion of ecclesiological ones. After analyzing the historical and theological factors resulting in the present situation among American Pentecostal women in ministry, this book proposes a Feminist Pneumatological anthropology and ecclesiology that address the problematic dualisms that have perpetuated Pentecostal women's ecclesial restrictions.

Turning to the Heavens and the Earth Julia Brumbaugh, Natalia Imperatori-Lee, 2016-05-16 The Earth needs our attention: the best of our intellectual, ethical, and spiritual wisdom and action. In this collection, written in honor of Elizabeth A. Johnson, scholars from the United States and around the world contribute their insights on how theology today can and must turn to the world in new ways in light of contemporary science and our ecological crisis. The essays in this collection advance theological visions for the human task of healing our destructive relationship with the earth and envision hope for our planet's future.

Wisdom Commentary: Luke 17 Barbara E. Reid, OP, Shelly Matthews, 2021-01-15 Because there are more women in the Gospel of Luke than in any other gospel, feminists have given it much attention. In this commentary, Shelly Matthews and Barbara Reid show that feminist analysis demands much more than counting the number of female characters. Feminist biblical interpretation examines how the female characters function in the narrative and also scrutinizes the workings of power with respect to empire, to anti-Judaism, and to other forms of othering. Matthews and Reid draw attention to the ambiguities of the text, both the liberative possibilities and the ways that Luke upholds the patriarchal status quo, and guide readers to empowering reading strategies.

Studying Global Pentecostalism Allan Anderson, Michael Bergunder, Andre F. Droogers, Cornelis van der Laan, 2010-09-24 With its remarkable ability to adapt to many different cultures Pentecostalism has become the world's fastest growing religious movement More than five hundred million adherents worldwide have reshaped Christianity itself Yet some fundamental questions in the study of global Pentecostalism and even in what we call Pentecostalism remain largely unaddressed Bringing together leading scholars in the social sciences history and theology this unique volume explores these questions for this rapidly growing multidisciplinary field of study A valuable resource for anyone studying new forms of Christianity it offers insights and guidance on both theoretical and methodological issues The first section of the book examines such topics as definitions essentialism postcolonialism gender conversion and globalization The second section features contributions from those working in psychology anthropology sociology and history The third section traces the boundaries of theology from the perspectives of pneumatology ecumenical studies inter religious relations and empirical theology

Teaching as a Sacramental Act Mary Elizabeth Moore, 2004-11-01 Moore asserts that Christian vocation and the teaching vocation in particular can be best understood as sacramental mediating the grace of God through ordinary creation for the sanctification of human life and the well being of all creation She develops her argument through three important factors a historical theological analysis of the Christian sacraments and sacramentality a phenomenological study of teaching events and a description of six sacramental movements and corresponding teaching practices informed by Jewish Christian traditions and Eucharistic practices The nine detailed chapters include Searching for the Sacred Sacred Teaching Education as Sacrament Expecting the Unexpected Remembering the Dismembered Seeking Reversals Giving Thanks Nourishing Life Reconstructing Community and Repairing the World and Mapping the Future of Sacramental Teaching Teaching as a Sacramental Act is ideal for students pastors Christian educators spiritual directors and pastoral caregivers who want to rethink and reshape the teaching ministry of the church

Interdisciplinary and Religio-Cultural Discourses on a Spirit-Filled World V. Kärkkäinen, K. Kim, A. Yong, 2013-09-12 This volume presents interdisciplinary intercultural and interreligious approaches directed toward the articulation of a pneumatological theology in its broadest sense especially in terms of attempting to conceive of a spirit filled world

The Blackwell Companion to Postmodern Theology Graham Ward, 2008-04-15 This Companion provides a definitive collection of essays on postmodern theology drawing on the work of those individuals who have made a distinctive contribution to the field and whose work will be significant for the theologies written in the new millennium The definitive collection of essays on postmodern theology drawing on the work of those individuals who have made a distinctive contribution to the field Each essay is introduced with a short account of the writer s previous work enabling the reader to view it in context Discusses the following disciplines Aesthetics Ethics Gender Hermeneutics Phenomenology Heideggerians and Derrideans Edited by Graham Ward one of the most outstanding and original theologians working in the field today Transformative Lutheran Theologies Mary J. Streufert, 2010-09-01 The first of its kind this book is a systematic representation of Lutheran feminist womanist and mujerista theologies systematic in that it addresses classical loci of systematic theology contemporary in that it is resoundingly constructive and relevant for the contemporary church and feminist in that the contributors write from a feminist perspective although they reflect a variety of positions within feminist discourse The Task of Theology Anselm Min , 2014-09-11 A rare opportunity to read and reflect upon the thought of some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theology in one volume this collection offers informative indicators of the state of theology today Together these provocative essays offer a resource for teachers and a chance to facilitate conversation among those working in different areas of an increasingly fragmented discipline Publisher

Beyond the Impasse Amos Yong, 2014-09-25 No one who cares about a theology that does justice to what the Bible tells us about the cosmic ministry of the Holy Spirit can afford to ignore this important work Amos Yong s book itself displays the robust sense of discernment that he asks all of us to exercise in our engagement with non Christian religions RICHARD J MOUW Fuller Theological Seminary Finally a Spirit based theology of religions that takes the Spirit seriously Drawing on his Pentecostal roots Yong offers guidelines for discerning the voice of the Spirit in other traditions a voice that may call us to unexpected christological conclusions This is truly a pioneering work that opens new theological paths but modestly recognizes that there is still much to explore PAUL F KNITTER Xavier University Few areas in theology are as complex controversial and urgent as theology of religions Amos Yong has advanced the discussion significantly with his creative and sophisticated proposal for a pneumatological theology of religions While undoubtedly controversial Yong s proposal frames the issues in fresh ways and suggests new options for an evangelical theology of religions Harold Netland Trinity Evangelical Divinity School With scholarly rigor and intellectual acumen Yong s theology takes seriously and appreciatively the diversity of the work of the universal Spirit in the cultures and religious communities of the world His position is fully evangelical but is richly informed by his Pentecostal roots and context He sets this Pentecostal evangelical theology of religions in the center of the ongoing discussion not only among evangelicals but also in the whole church John B Cobb Jr Claremont School of Theology and Claremont Graduate Schools An insightful theological reflection on the place of world religions within the broader framework of Christian theology Yong provides a theological basis for everyday interaction with members of other religions and an understanding of other religious traditions in the providence of God This is an excellent book that ought to be widely read and discussed Irving Hexham University of Calgary Augustine and Social Justice Teresa Delgado, John

Doody, Kim Paffenroth, 2015-01-14 This volume brings into dialogue the ancient wisdom of Augustine of Hippo a bishop of the early Christian Church of the fourth and fifth centuries with contemporary theologians and ethicists on the topic of social justice Each essay mines the major themes present in Augustine's extensive corpus of writings from his Confessions to the City of God with an eye to the following question how can this early church father so foundational to Christian doctrine and teaching inform our twenty first century context on how to create and sustain a more just and equitable society In his own day Augustine spoke to conditions of slavery conflict and war violence and poverty among many others These conditions while reflecting the characteristics of our technological age continue to obstruct our collective efforts to bring about the common good for the global human community The contributors of this volume have taken great care to read Augustine through the lens of his own time and place at the same time they provide keen insights and reflections which advance the conversation of social justice in the present

Dissident Women, Beguines, and the Quest for Spiritual Authority

Catherine Lambert, 2024-11-12 Dissident Women Beguines and the Quest for Spiritual Authority focuses on the responses of a group of twenty first century women to the lives and writings of thirteenth century beguine mystics and reveals how the struggle to discover their own inner spiritual authority connects two groups of women across centuries For contemporary women who are disenchanted with the institutional church and who seek spiritual direction models deeply rooted within the tradition may not be the most helpful The author explores the value of exemplars from the fringes ushering Hadewijch of Brabant Mechthild of Magdeburg and Marguerite Porete into the spotlight The contemporary women studied developed a relationship with the beguines that transformed and influenced their own journeys Their encounters underline the importance of remembering the beguine mystics the value of contemplative engagement with historical mystics and the need for explicit validation of the richness of the edges of tradition within spiritual direction Dissident Women Beguines and the Quest for Spiritual Authority will be of particular interest to scholars of mysticism and spirituality as well as practical pastoral and feminist theology

Imago Trinitatis Mark S. Medley, 2002-03-07 Imago Trinitatis contributes to the contemporary task of seeking to retrieve the central Christian symbol of the triune God It interfaces the trinitarian theology of Catherine LaCugna and new anthropological models based on women's interpreted experience of relationality offered by feminist theologians especially the vision of the post patriarchal self of Catherine Keller in order to delineate a theological conception of the human person as communion By reinterpreting imago Dei as imago Trinitatis Mark Medley offers a proposal towards claiming that a trinitarian feminist theological anthropology understands human personhood as being formed and transformed in one's personal existence to God's personal existence as persons of communion

The Raging Hearth Nancy M. Victorin-Vangerud, 2000 A feminist theology of the spirit The Raging Hearth examines how the doctrine of the spirit has been developed in the context of family relations in the ancient and modern world

Breath of Life Edwards, Denis, 2014-04-10 Offers a theological narrative of the Creator Spirit as a story with four continuing episodes creation grace the Christ event and the church Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B.

Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach
