the first time in 1862 as news of the Union's disastrous defeat at Fredericksburg was landing in newspapers and while the Matthew Brady Studio's horrific photographs of Antietam were on view Watkins's work tied the West to Northern cultural traditions and played a key role in pledging the once wavering West to Union. Motivated by Watkins's pictures Congress would pass legislation signed by Abraham Lincoln that preserved Yosemite as the prototypical national park, the first such act of landscape preservation in the world. Carleton Watkins' Making the West American includes the first history of the birth of the national park concept since pioneering environmental historian Hans Huth's landmark 1948 Yosemite: The Story of an Idea. Watkins's photographs helped shape America's idea of the West and helped make the West a full participant in the nation. His pictures of California, Oregon, and Nevada, as well as modern-day Washington, Utah, and Arizona, not only introduced entire landscapes to America but were important to the development of American business, finance, agriculture, government policy, and science. Watkins's clients, customers, and friends were a veritable who's who of America's Gilded Age, and his connections with notable figures such as Collis P. Huntington, John and Jessie Benton Frémont, Eadweard Muybridge, Frederick Billings, John Muir, Albert Bierstadt, and Asa Gray reveal how the Gilded Age helped make today's America. Drawing on recent scholarship and fresh archival discoveries, Tyler Green reveals how an artist didn't just reflect his time but acted as an agent of influence. This telling of Watkins's story will fascinate anyone interested in American history, the West, and how art and artists impacted the development of American ideas, industry, landscape, conservation, and politics.

Imagine Living Life Well with Perspective & Perseverance Maureen Whitaker, 2023-03-28 Imagine Living Life Well with Perspective Perseverance Book Three of Book Series Volume V From Great Times to Facing Dragons Persevering Anna has a dream which they hope is not a prophecy. It is Walk on the Wild Side. It reveals something to them and they meet with their doctor friends. They begin seminars through organizations. One event has an incident which lands Liam, Anna, Mike, and Dave in an extreme Life Challenge. They use The Seal's for Healing and Protection. They hold their moral and social Code of Honor in the highest esteem. They faced double-edged situations and proceed to Choose Wisely in Speaking their Truths. They live life how they believe and Walk Their Talk. One of the single most important and vital aspects of the human condition living on this Earth is our Ability to Effectively Communicate with all other human beings without prejudice and with tolerance to foster a rapport with others and share knowledge, history, information, and truths. Liam said emphatically, "If ever I felt there were others who I likened to The Four Musketeers, One for All and All for One, it is the four of us. We each battle for each other to the benefit of the whole. Not many friends can do this as well as we four. It is totally awesome." Mike retires from the military, and it is quite an event with a formal dinner and a dance. A Code of Honor is provided. The idea of listening to one's Inner Whisperings is discussed. In a wooded forest, something is found, and this is quite an important event. The four plan and set dates to go on a road trip in their lovely motorcoach a week after school began. Now on to Book Four, the first half of Volume VI.
