Raisin In The Sun The Unfilmed Original Screenplay:

A Raisin in the Sun Lorraine Hansberry, 1955-04-01 Under the editorship of the late Robert Nemiroff with a provocative and thoughtful introduction by preeminent African American scholar Margaret B Wilkerson and a commentary by Spike Lee this completely restored screenplay is the accurate and authoritative edition of Lorraine Hansberry's script and a testament to her unparalleled accomplishment as a Black artist The 1961 film version of A Raisin in the Sun with a screenplay by the author Lorraine Hansberry won an award at the Cannes Film Festival even though one third of the actual screenplay Hansberry had written had been cut out The film did essentially bring Hansberry's extraordinary play to the screen but it failed to fulfill her cinematic vision Now with this landmark edition of Lorraine Hansberry's original script for the movie of A Raisin in the Sun that audiences never viewed readers have at hand an epic eloquent work capturing not only the life and dreams of a Black family but the Chicago and the society that surround and shape them Important changes in dialogue and exterior shots a stunning shift of focus to her male protagonist and a dramatic rewriting of the final scene show us an artist who understood and used the cinematic medium to transform a stage play into a different art form a profound and powerful film

Bound by Love Laura Mattoon D'Amore, 2011-05-25 What does it mean to be bound by love Sometimes the bonds of love supply bliss and sometimes they demand sacrifice Sometimes experiencing love saves people and sometimes it kills them Being bound by love often engenders moral responsibility in other cases it enslaves and imprisons the soul American mythologies especially those presented in film and television perpetuate love as the central narrative of one's life the search for a connection forged by love permeates every facet of human existence from our desire to be accepted or our longing to be needed to our fury at being rejected Sometimes love is the stuff of happiness fulfilling in every regard But there are also times when love makes us do things we should not do sometimes it turns us into people we do not want to become The commonality between love that satisfies and love that destroys is the bond between people who open themselves to the vulnerability of love Examination of the theme of familial bonds in film and television explores how the process of forming and maintaining those bonds complicates revises and reproduces ideas about love The chapters in this book explore how the nature of bonds and familial responsibility inform a popular cultural dialogue about the changing nature of the American family over the past sixty years

The Work of Democracy Ben Keppel, 1995 By carefully tracing the public lives of Bunche Clark and Hansberry Keppel shows how the mainstream media selectively appropriated the most challenging themes and goals of the struggle for racial equality so that difficult questions about the relationship between racism and American democracy could be softened if not entirely evaded

Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance Steven C. Tracy, 2011-11-01 Writers of the Black Chicago Renaissance comprehensively explores the contours and content of the Black Chicago Renaissance a creative movement that emerged from the crucible of rigid segregation in Chicago's Black Belt from the 1930s through the 1960s Heavily influenced by the Harlem Renaissance and the Chicago Renaissance of white writers its participants were invested in political activism and social change as much as literature art and aesthetics The revolutionary writing of this era produced some of the first great accolades for African American literature and set up much of the important writing that came to fruition in the Black Arts Movement The volume covers a vast collection of subjects including many important writers such as Richard Wright Gwendolyn Brooks and Lorraine Hansberry as well as cultural products such as black newspapers music and theater The book includes individual entries by experts on each subject a discography and filmography that highlight important writers musicians films and cultural presentations and an introduction that relates the Harlem Renaissance the White Chicago Renaissance the Black Chicago Renaissance and the Black Arts Movement Contributors are Robert Butler Robert H Cataliotti Maryemma Graham James C Hall James L Hill Michael Hill Lorraine King Lawrence Jackson Angelene Jamison Hall Keith Leonard Lisbeth Lipari Bill V Mullen Patrick Naick William R Nash Charlene

Regester Kimberly Ruffin Elizabeth Schultz Joyce Hope Scott James Smethurst Kimberly M Stanley Kathryn Waddell Takara Steven C Tracy Zoe Trodd Alan Wald Jamal Eric Watson Donyel Hobbs Williams Stephen Caldwell Wright and Richard Yarborough      Neo-segregation Narratives Brian Norman, 2010-01-01 This study of what Brian Norman terms a neo segregation narrative tradition examines literary depictions of life under Jim Crow that were written well after the civil rights movement From Toni Morrison s first novel The Bluest Eye to bestselling black fiction of the 1980s to a string of recent work by black and nonblack authors and artists Jim Crow haunts the post civil rights imagination Norman traces a neo segregation narrative tradition one that developed in tandem with neo slave narratives by which writers return to a moment of stark de jure segregation to address contemporary concerns about national identity and the persistence of racial divides These writers upset dominant national narratives of achieved equality portraying what are often more elusive racial divisions in what some would call a postracial present Norman examines works by black writers such as Lorraine Hansberry Toni Morrison Alice Walker David Bradley Wesley Brown Suzan Lori Parks and Colson Whitehead films by Spike Lee and other cultural works that engage in debates about gender Black Power blackface minstrelsy literary history and whiteness and ethnicity Norman also shows that multiethnic writers such as Sherman Alexie and Tom Spanbauer use Jim Crow as a reference point extending the tradition of William Faulkner s representations of the segregated South and John Howard Griffin s notorious account of crossing the color line from white to black in his 1961 work Black Like Me      Fear of a Hip-Hop Planet D. Marvin Jones, 2013-04-01 Is Gangsta Rap just black noise Or does it play the same role for urban youth that CNN plays in mainstream America This provocative set of essays tells us how Gangsta Rap is a creative report about an urban crisis our new American dilemma and why we need to listen Increasingly police politicians and late night talk show hosts portray today s inner cities as violent crime ridden war zones The same moral panic that once focused on blacks in general has now been refocused on urban spaces and the black men who live there especially those wearing saggy pants and hoodies The media always spotlights the crime and violence but rarely gives airtime to the conditions that produced these problems The dominant narrative holds that the cause of the violence is the pathology of ghetto culture Hip hop music is at the center of this conversation When 16 year old Chicago youth Derrion Albert was brutally killed by gang members many blamed rap music Thus hip hop music has been demonized not merely as black noise but as a root cause of crime and violence Fear of a Hip Hop Planet America s New Dilemma explores and demystifies the politics in which the gulf between the inner city and suburbia have come to signify not only a socio economic dividing line but a new socio cultural divide as well      Lorraine Hansberry Susan Sinnott, 1999-01-01 Lorraine Hansberry tells the fascinating story of the brave and talented woman who almost single handedly overcame the racial obstacles that made for a segregated American theatre in the years following World War II Hansberry was just twenty nine years old when her play A Raisin in the Sun opened in 1959 an era where her very existence as a black female writer was considered unusual The play was an overnight sensation earning its author the

double distinction of being the youngest playwright and first black person to win the New York Drama Critics Circle Award In Hansberry's own words A Raisin in the Sun tells the truth about people We have among our miserable and downtrodden ranks people who are the very essence of human dignity That is what after all the laughter and tears the play is supposed to say
