Memories Dreams Nightmares Memoirs Of A Holocaust Survivor:

Memories, Dreams, Nightmares Jack Weiss, 2005 The compelling memoir tells the story of Holocaust survivor Jack Weiss This is the story of his abused childhood how a deported eleven year old boy escaped from certain death to join his father in the middle of a war He was deported again to the infamous Auschwitz Birkenau concentration camp where he was selected for forced labour Somehow he miraculously survived these horrors and at the age of 17 he was brought by the Canadian Jewish Congress to Winnipeg Manitoba where was finally able to carve out a life for himself Letters from the Lost Helen Waldstein Wilkes, 2010 On March 15 1939 Helen Waldstein's father snatched his stamped exit visa from a distracted clerk to escape from Prague with his wife and child As the Nazis closed in on a war torn Czechoslovakia only letters from their extended family could reach Canada through the barriers of conflict The Waldstein family received these letters as they made their lives on a southern Ontario farm where they learned to be Canadian and forget their Jewish roots Helen Waldstein read these letters as an adult this changed everything As her past refused to keep silent Helen followed the trail of the letters back to Europe where she discovered living witnesses who could attest to the letters contents She has here interwoven their stories and her own into a compelling narrative of suffering survivor guilt and overcoming intergenerational obstacles when exploring a traumatic past The Honourable Member for Vegreville Anthony Hlynka, 2005 Translated from Anthony Hlynka's personal memoirs this is the compelling story of the only sitting member of parliament of Ukrainian origin from 1940 to 1945 Representing the constituency of Vegreville Alberta for the Social Credit party Hlynka was a high profile Member of Parliament who garnered much attention from the English language press and was instrumental in raising awareness of the plight of displaced persons following the Second World War This book is a unique historical document drawn from his memoirs press reports from the era and material provided by Stephanie Hlynka his widow Missing Pieces Olga Verrall, 2007 Until age seven Olga Barsony Verrall lived an idyllic life in Szarvas a small town in Hungary surrounded by her doting observant Jewish family After the Nazi invasion in 1944 Olga found herself along with most of her family interned in the Auspitz labour camp Eventually reunited after the war A long journey of physical and mental healing along with the support of her family helped Olga piece her life back together For Olga writing her memoir was a catharsis For her readers it will be an inspiration Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary
