Memories From The Dust:

Dust Gary Hooper, 1991 Memories from the Dust Ray L. Johnston, 2002 Sirens Sacha Black, 2022-05-26 Trey is dead maybe He is alone in Obex with nothing except his memories But reminiscing reminds him of all his past mistakes And Trey made a lot of those As he journals Trey shares stories from his past and the many problems in his present Can he learn from his mistakes and make up for them in his future You'll come for the never before seen stories and stay for the secrets lies and truths only ever revealed in a personal diary Get it now This is a bonus short novella in the Eden East series a YA fantasy trilogy by Sacha Black If you love secrets regrets and shocking truths found inside journals you'll love this bonus novella Violent Inheritance E Cram, 2022-05-24 Violent Inheritance deepens the analysis of settler colonialism's endurance in the North American West and how infrastructures that ground sexual modernity are both reproduced and challenged by publics who have inherited them E Cram redefines sexual modernity through extractivism wherein sexuality functions to extract value from life including land air minerals and bodies Analyzing struggles over memory cultures through the region's land use controversies at the turn of and well into the twentieth century Cram unpacks the consequences of western settlement and the energy regimes that fueled it Transfusing queer eco criticism with archival and ethnographic research Cram reconstructs the linkages land lines between infrastructure violence sexuality and energy and shows how racialized sexual knowledges cultivated settler colonial cultures of both innervation and enervation From the residential school system to elite health seekers desiring the electric climates of the Rocky Mountains to the wartime incarceration of Japanese Americans Cram demonstrates how the environment promised to some individuals access to vital energy and to others the exhaustion of populations through state violence and racial capitalism Grappling with these land lines Cram insists helps interrogate regimes of value and build otherwise unrealized connections between queer studies and the environmental and energy humanities Memories of a Dust Bowl Kid, 2006 The New Emily Dickinson Studies Michelle Kohler, 2019-05-16 This collection presents new approaches to Emily Dickinson's oeuvre Informed by twenty first century critical developments the Dickinson that emerges here is embedded in and susceptible to a very physical world and caught in unceasing interactions and circulation that she does not control The volume's essays offer fresh readings of Dickinson's poetry through such new critical lenses as historical poetics ecocriticism animal studies sound studies new materialism posthumanism object oriented feminism disability studies queer theory race studies race and contemporary poetics digital humanities and globalism These essays address what it means to read Dickinson in braille online graffitied and internationally alongside the work of poets of color Taken together this book widens our understanding of Dickinson's readerships of what the poems can mean and for whom Kentucky Stories Byron Crawford, 2001-04 Footprints In Time Thomas Sayre, 2021-04-12 Footprints in Time was written to show that no matter how far back in time you were born no matter your station in life and no matter how long you may live you all leave your own individual imprints in time These imprints I call footprints The Post-Industrial Landscape as Site for Creative Practice Gwen Heeney, 2018-06-11 This book brings together experts in the fields of art history visual arts music cultural geography curatorial practice and landscape architecture to explore the role of material memory in the post industrial landscape and the ways in which that landscape can act as a site for many forms of creative practice It examines the role of material memory in the siting of public artworks and politically inspired installation art within the socio economic post industrial landscape The post industrial ruin as a place for innovation in the curatorial process is also investigated as are social memory and the complexities of inscribing memory into places A number of chapters focus on photography and its important role in recording memory as transformation abandonment and erosion Artists and musicians present personal case studies examining the siting of permanent and temporary artworks which can invoke memory of both culture and place The land itself and its associated histories of post industry are explored in artistic terms investigating dislocation wasted spaces and extinction Landscape architects and cultural geographers explore the aesthetic of the urban ruin its natural and human ecologies and the re wilding of urban spaces The volume provokes discussion by a group of diverse experts on a very contemporary subject time lines James Knight, Richard Biddle, Aksania Xenogrette, Mina Polen, Sandcave, Mandy Gibson, 2013-02-12 Six Twitter poets showcase their work in this diverse anthology From James Knight's 13 tweet preface 6 Poetry has been given a lifeline by online social networking The private and personal has become the public and universal 7 All of the poets in this volume publish and collaborate on Twitter Our words thrash and leap through the rapids of the timelines 8 People don't usually have time for poetry But poems popping up in timelines give instant sensation gratification 9 The tweet is the sonnet for the 21st Century If a sonnet embodies elegant compression a tweet is a mind expanding miniature 10 The tweet is the building block of many of the poems in this book In some cases it's obvious in others less so 11 The poets in this anthology are diverse but we share a playful attitude to words and an interest in hallucinatory subjectivity 12 We come from the UK the USA Mexico Australia The internet brought us together made us virtually a movement Archaeologies of an Uncertain Future Karen McPherson, 2006-12-15 In Archaeologies of an Uncertain Future McPherson explores the memory work alternative historiographies and feminist aesthetics by which women writers revisit the past and reimagine the future Grounded within critical discourses across many disciplines McPherson's analysis engages contemporary discussions about autobiographical genres post modern historiographies memoirs and literary genealogies Cosmic Apprentice Dorion Sagan, 2013-05-01 In the pursuit of knowledge Dorion Sagan argues in this dazzlingly eclectic rigorously crafted and deliciously witty collection of essays scientific authoritarianism and philosophical obscurantism are equally formidable obstacles to discovery As science has become more specialized and more costly its questing spirit has been constrained by dogma And philosophy perhaps the discipline best placed to question orthodoxy has retreated behind dense theoretical language and arcane topics of learning Guided by a capacious democratic view of science inspired by the examples set by his late parents Carl Sagan who popularized the study of the cosmos and Lynn Margulis an evolutionary biologist who repeatedly clashed with the scientific establishment Sagan draws on classical and contemporary philosophy to intervene provocatively in often charged debates on thermodynamics linear and nonlinear time purpose ethics the links between language and psychedelic drugs the search for extraterrestrial intelligence and the occupation of the human body by microbial others Informed by a countercultural sensibility a deep engagement with speculative thought and a hardheaded scientific skepticism he advances controversial positions on such seemingly sacrosanct subjects as evolution and entropy At the same time he creatively considers a wide range of thinkers from Socrates to Bataille and Descartes to von Uexküll to reflect on sex biopolitics and the free will of Kermit the Frog Refreshingly nonconformist and polemically incisive Cosmic Apprentice challenges readers to reject both dogma and cliché and instead recover the intellectual spirit of adventure that should and can once again animate both science and philosophy Belles Mark Dunn,1989 Private and Fictional Words (Routledge Revivals) Coral Ann

Howells,2014-08-07 First published in 1987 this is an introductory study of the most widely read Canadian women novelists of the 1970s and 1980s At its centre lies the question of how the search for a distinctive cultural identity relates to the need for a national cultural identity in the post colonial era Coral Ann Howells argues that Canadian women's fiction throughout the period of study represents how the Canadian cultural identity exceeds its geographical limits and those traditional structures of patriarchal authority need revision if women's alternative views are to be taken into account Including short biographical sketches and a complete list of the books published by the authors under discussion writers examined include Margaret Atwood Alice Munro and Margaret Laurence Children's Magazine Guide ,2005 Advances in Industrial

Design Cliff Sungsoo Shin,Giuseppe Di Bucchianico,Shuichi Fukuda,Yong-Gyun Ghim,Gianni Montagna,Cristina Carvalho,2021-07-08 This book addresses current research trends and practice in industrial design Going beyond the traditional design focus it explores a range of recent and emerging aspects concerning service design human computer interaction and user experience design sustainable design virtual and augmented reality as well as inclusive universal design and design for all A further focus is on apparel and fashion design here innovations developments and challenges in the textile industry including applications of material engineering are taken into consideration Papers on pleasurable and affective design covering studies on emotional user experience emotional interaction design and topics related to social networks are also included Based on the AHFE 2021 International Conferences on Design for Inclusion Interdisciplinary Practice in Industrial Design Affective and Pleasurable Design Kansei Engineering and Human Factors for Apparel and Textile Engineering held virtually on 25-29 July 2021 from USA this book provides researchers and professionals in engineering design human factors and ergonomics human computer interaction and materials science with extensive information on research trends innovative methods and best practices and is expected to foster collaborations between experts from different disciplines and sectors The Savage Seas Paul Anthony Williams,2015-09-11 Hush little child do not speak Silence brings you a special treat One quick swipe and all will be gone And you can join your loving mom Hush little one see the world burn Yet still it twists and always turns Whispers lay before all of us Don't leave now there's no rush Hush little child see the world die As darkness shall fall Beneath the wings of black butterflies As I lay you down upon the forest of the east Look at the butterflies come to you Upon you they shall feast This is the fourth book of the Dark Clown Series and is the final book in this first chapter of my fantasy series the second chapter is planned to begin from 2018 with a new series of four books to continue the adventures before that I have a new trilogy of crime horror books which will be coming 2016 onwards and a full length thriller titled project3 due in 2018 Poetry for the Soul, from the Soul Saras Ramesar,2005 In the swirling depth of our being feelings flutter emotions whisper do we have the courage to acknowledge to explore our emotions our feelings our deepest dreams and desires In the ancient land of the unconscious the search for a lost soul and just one moment in eternity commences When one finds the courage to explore the hidden torments ghostly thoughts and gremlins plunder serenity but with the courage to explore comes an enchanting garden of memories archives of pleasure and miracles too The courage to explore life is like wisdom on wings bringing the meeting of minds elements and nature together Reality is questioned and the play of love is enacted The key to healing the key to a heart is discovered and as the streams of emotions say farewell humming wings beat to the tune that life in all its facets is in its simplicity beautiful

Whiskers Marylyn Anselm,2016-12-13 Whiskers by Marylyn Anselm This collection of passionate poetry traces the theme of life's many ups and downs In the words of the poet it calls upon the pressure points of life a time to be born a time as a child a time as a young adult full of expectations a time as a parent working to keep your home together a time to ponder on how you have lived your life a time to reflect on death and your legacy and finally a time to pray Blue Eclipse Book II Patrick Joseph,2020-11-12 A poetic story rhyme that is a compilation of scripted youthful times Within these pages is a shard from a greater story that chronicles the legacy of characters meant for the entertainment each individually purposed for a grand design And as the wheels of fate turn each character will play their part unable to understand the greater role they partake in within the great theatrics of the world play Each figure within this are pulled from historical sources past and present with subtle liberties to flesh out the true nature of their character So as disparate destined paths cross into the other and intersect the fiery ambition they possess will become their sword while the purity of their immortal soul will become their shield individually designed to protect a sincere dream while defending their outer shell from being torn away from this mortal coil And as each soul delves beyond the grip of the unfamiliar of their opening acts a threshold would demand to be crossed as they individually with warm hearts and open minds yearn for meaning as they individually await a glimpse of their true purpose escaping the confines of ephemeral restraints to push to a space that exists beyond sight
