Memory Lane Swansea:

Memory Lane Swansea ,1999 Swansea City 2010/11: Walking on Sunshine Keith Haynes,2011-08-01 A sensational account of Swansea City's 2010/11 season covering 12 months in the life of a Welsh football club that in 2002 was just 40 minutes away from extinction and expulsion from the football league. In June 2010 under new management the club pushed its way kicking and screaming in to the psyche of the Welsh football public challenging at every level the presumed domination of Cardiff City. In November they put out the Cardiff fire with a resounding victory in the capital city followed by performance after performance on the pitch in front of thousands of adoring fans. This is the story of that season told by the very people who saw all those dramatic events unfold. It is an account of a club which refused to die which would never give in and which went in eight years from the very depths of despair to the edge of a brave new world the greatest league in the world the Premier League.

Shine On Swansea City Keith Haynes,2012-08-01 In 2011 nine years after being on the brink of obscurity Swansea City made it to the Premier League following their defeat of Reading in the Championship play off final at Wembley. Wales at last had a premier club in the Premier League. This no holds barred account graphically describes that first year in the Premier League and the dramas of one football fan's journey. Written off by pundits at the beginning of the season this turned out to be an explosive year in the history of Swansea City FC.

Queen of Clubs Simon Glyndwr John,2012-06-07 The village of Glanddu's struggling rugby club just manages to survive thanks to its formidable chairwoman and treasurer. Bankruptcy looms until three people arrive in the village during the rugby season: a recently retired English rugby giant, a Russian gangster and a Welsh born film star looking to provide a shrine for her adoring fans.

Cinema Memories Melvyn Stokes,Matthew Jones,Emma Pett,2022-03-10 Cinema Memories brings together and analyses the memories of almost a thousand people of going to the cinema in Britain during the 1960s. It offers a fresh perspective on the social, cultural and film history of what has come to be seen as an iconic decade with the release of films such as A Taste of Honey, The Sound of Music, Darling, Blow Up, Alfie, The Graduate and Bonnie and Clyde. Drawing on first hand accounts authors Melvyn Stokes, Matthew Jones and Emma Pett explore how cinema goes, constructed meanings from the films they watched through a complex process of negotiation between the films concerned, their own social and cultural identities and their awareness of changes in British society. Their analysis helps the reader see what light the cultural memory of 1960s cinema going sheds on how the Sixties in Britain is remembered and interpreted. Positioning their study within debates about memory, 1960s cinema and the seemingly transformative nature of this decade of British history the authors reflect on the methodologies deployed, the use of memories as historical sources and the various ways in which cinema and cinema going came to mean something to their audiences.
