Memory Of The Modern:

The Memory of the Modern Matt K. Matsuda, 1996 A multidisciplinary work Memory of the Modern examines stock markets tango dancers vagabond murderers neurology monument destruction and colonial policies to document how individuals and institutions shaped memory in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The book studies these diverse memory sites to show how memory and history are fought over shaped and put to personal and ideological use

Memory in Early Modern Europe, 1500-1800 Judith Pollmann, 2017 For early modern Europeans the past was a measure of most things good and bad For that reason it was also hotly contested manipulated and far too important to be left to historians alone Memory in Early Modern Europe offers a lively and accessible introduction to the many ways in which Europeans engaged with the past and practised memory in the three centuries between 1500 and 1800 From childhood memories and local customs to war traumas and peacekeeping it analyses how Europeans tried to control mobilize and reconfigure memories of the past Challenging the long standing view that memory cultures transformed around 1800 it argues for the continued relevance of early modern memory practices in modern societies History and Memory in Modern Ireland Ian McBride, 2001-11-08 Discussing the relationship between the past and the present in Irish society this 2001 title outlines the ways in which Irish identities have been shaped by oral tradition icons and images rituals and re enactments It examines pivotal moments in Irish history such as the 1798 rebellion the Famine the Great War and the Northern Ireland troubles investigating the ways in which they have been recalled commemorated and mythologised Beginning with the conviction that commemoration has its own history the essays address questions concerning the workings of communal memory How have particular political and social groups interpreted appropriated and distorted the past for their own purposes How are collective memories transmitted from one generation to the next Why does collective amnesia work in some situations and not in others What is the relationship between academic history and popular memory

Shakespeare, memory, and modern Irish literature Nicholas Taylor-Collins, 2023-02-14 This original and innovative book proposes dismemory as a new form of intertextual engagement with Shakespeare by modern and contemporary Irish writers Through reflection on these canonical writers and ranging across thirteen Shakespeare plays Taylor Collins demonstrates how Irish writers who helped to fashion and critique the Irish nation state carry an indelible if often subdued mark of Shakespeare s early modern English influence The volume overall renews and revitalises the Shakespeare modern Ireland connection Taylor Collins reveals Hamlet s hauntological legacy in Playboy of the Western World Ulysses and Ghosts how the corporal economies that exert pressure from Coriolanus and Ben Jonson flicker through to the antiheroes in Beckett s Three Novels and how the landed legacies of territorial contests in Shakespeare are engaged with in Yeats s poetry and similarly how the diseased muddiness in Hamlet is addressed by Heaney Places of Memory in Modern China Marc Andre Matten, 2011-12-09 In the last decades the scholarship on issues of national and cultural identity of China has been constantly on the rise This edited volume aims at addressing these issues by applying Pierre Nora's approach of places of memory lieux de mémoire to the Chinese context The volume assembles a number of articles that focus on the most significant places of memory in modern and contemporary China ranging from Qin Shihuang's Terracotta Warriors to the Chiang Kai-shek Memorial Hall The genesis and nature of these places are discussed in detail by combining approaches of both cultural and historical sciences In addition issues of cultural memory and politics are addressed in order to question the ideological construction of these places

Handbook of Pre-Modern Nordic Memory Studies Jürg Glauser, Pernille Hermann, Stephen A. Mitchell, 2018-11-19 In recent years the field of Memory Studies has emerged as a key approach in the Humanities and Social Sciences and has increasingly shown its ability to open new windows on Nordic Studies as well The entries in this book document the work to date of this approach on the pre-modern Nordic world mainly the Viking Age and the Middle Ages but including as well both earlier and later periods Given that Memory Studies is an ever-expanding critical strategy the approximately eighty contributors in this volume also discuss the potential for future research in this area Topics covered range from texts to performance to visual and other aspects of material culture all approached from within an interdisciplinary framework International specialists coming from such relevant fields as archaeology mythology history of religion folklore history law art literature philology language and mediality offer assessments on the relevance of Memory Studies to their disciplines and show it at work in case studies Finally this handbook demonstrates the various levels of culture where memory had a critical impact in the pre-modern North and how deeply embedded the role of memory is in the material itself

Memory and the Dissolution of the Monasteries in Early Modern England Harriet Lyon, 2021-10-21 The dissolution of the monasteries was recalled by individuals and communities alike as a seismic rupture in the religious cultural and socio-economic fabric of early modern England It was also profoundly important in shaping contemporary historical consciousness the topographical imagination and local tradition Memory and the Dissolution is a book about the dissolution of the monasteries after the dissolution Harriet Lyon argues that our understanding of this historical moment is enriched by taking a long chronological view of the suppression by exploring how it was remembered to those who witnessed it and how this memory evolved in subsequent generations Exposing and repudiating the assumptions of a conventional historiography that has long been coloured by Henrician narratives and sources this book reveals that the fall of the religious houses was remembered as one of the most profound and controversial transformations of the entire English Reformation

Scots Imagination and Modern Memory Andrew Blaikie, 2013-08-20 Blaikie explores how our different ways of seeing influence the relationship between place and belonging He argues that our memories however brief or complex invoke imagined pasts But do our recollections share a common frame of reference Blaikie's c

Memory and Identity in Modern and Postmodern American Literature Lovorka Gruic Grmusa, Biljana Oklopčić, 2022-09-16 This book discusses how American literary modernism and postmodernism interconnect memory and identity and if and how the intertwining of memory and identity has been related to the dominant socio cultural trends in the United States or the specific historical contexts in the world The book s opening chapter is the interrogation of the narrator s memories of Jay Gatsby and his life in F Scott Fitzgerald s The Great Gatsby The second chapter shows how in William Faulkner s Light in August memory impacts the search for identities in the storylines of the characters The third chapter discusses the correlation between memory self and culture in Tennessee Williams s A Streetcar Named Desire Discussing Robert Coover s Gerald s Party the fourth chapter reveals that memory and identity are contextualized and that cognitive processes including memory are grounded in the body s interaction with the environment featuring dehumanized characters whose identities appear as role plays The subsequent chapter is the analysis of how Jonathan Safran Foer s Everything Is Illuminated deals with the heritage of Holocaust memories and postmemories The last chapter focuses on Thomas Pynchon s Against the Day the reconstructive nature of memory and the politics and production of identity in Southeastern Europe

The Great War and Modern Memory Paul Fussell,2000 The year 2000 marks the twenty fifth anniversary of the publication of The Great War and Modern Memory winner of the National Book Award the National Book Critics Circle Award and recently named by the Modern Library one of the twentieth century s 100 Best Non Fiction Books Fussell s landmark study of WWI remains as original and gripping today as ever before a literate literary and illuminating account of the Great War the one that changed a generation ushered in the modern era and revolutionized how we see the world Exploring the work of Siegfried Sassoon Robert Graves Edmund Blunden David Jones Isaac Rosenberg and Wilfred Owen Fussell supplies contexts both actual and literary for those writers who most effectively memorialized WWI as an historical experience with conspicuous imaginative and artistic meaning For this special edition the author has prepared a new afterword and a suggested further reading list As this classic work draws upon several disciplines among them literary studies military history cultural criticism and historical inquiry it will continue to appeal to students scholars and general readers of various backgrounds

Monuments and Memory in Early Modern England Peter Sherlock,2008 This book is a study of the material culture of memory in sixteenth and seventeenth century England in the form of monuments to the dead By interpreting messages of their images and inscriptions it explores how early modern people wanted to be remember

The ^AGreat War and Modern Memory Paul Fussell,2013-05-15 A new edition of Paul Fussell s literate literary and illuminating account of the Great War now a classic text of literary and cultural criticism

Modern Erasures Pierre Fuller,2022-04-07 Modern Erasures is an ambitious and innovative study of the acts of epistemic violence behind China s transformation from a semicolonized republic to a Communist state over the twentieth century Pierre Fuller charts the pedigree of Maoist thought and practice between the May Fourth movement of 1919 and the peak of the Cultural Revolution in 1969 to shed light on the relationship between epistemic and physical violence book burning and bloodletting during China s revolutions Focusing on communities in remote Gansu province and the wider region over half a century Fuller argues that in order to justify the human cost of revolution and the building of the national party state a form of revolutionary memory developed in China on the nature of social relations and civic affairs in the recent past Through careful analysis of intellectual and cultural responses to and memories of earthquakes famine and other disaster events in China this book shows how the Maoist evocation of the old society earmarked for destruction was only the most extreme phase of a transnational colonial era conversation on the backwardness of rural communities

Gender, Place, and Memory in the Modern Jewish Experience Tova Cohen, 2003 This book is an expression of how the different memories of different gendered experiences affected the Jewish attitudes towards modernity Focusing on three geographical centers pre war and wartime Europe the United States and Israel the fifteen articles provide a backdrop to understanding the variation of Jewish life and identity Bulletin of High Points in the Teaching of Modern Languages in the High Schools of New York City, 1917

Ambiguous Memory Siobhan Kattago, 2001-07-30 Ambiguous Memory examines the role of memory in the building of a new national identity in reunified Germany The author maintains that the contentious debates surrounding contemporary monuments to the Nazi past testify to the ambiguity of German memory and the continued link of Nazism with contemporary German national identity The book discusses how certain monuments and the ways Germans have viewed them contribute to the different ways Germans have dealt with the past and how they continue to deal with it as one country Kattago concludes that West Germans have internalized their Nazi past as a normative orientation for the democratic culture of West Germany while East Germans have universalized Nazism and the Holocaust transforming it into an abstraction in which the Jewish question is down played In order to form a new collective memory the author argues that unified Germany must contend with these conflicting views of the past incorporating certain aspects of both views Providing a topography of East West and unified German memory during the 1980s and the 1990s this work contributes to a better understanding of contemporary national identity and society The author shows how public debate over such issues at Ronald Reagan s visit to Bitburg the renarration of Buchenwald as Nazi and Soviet internment camp the Goldhagen controversy and the Holocaust Memorial debate in Berlin contribute to the complexities surrounding the way Germans see themselves their relationship to the past and their future identity as a nation In a careful analysis the author shows how the past was used and abused by both the East and the West in the 1980s and how these approaches merged in the 1990s This interesting new work takes a sociological approach to the role of memory in forging a new integrative national identity

Encyclopedia of the Mind Harold Pashler, 2013-01-14 It s hard to conceive of a topic of more broad and personal interest than the study of the mind In addition to its traditional investigation by the disciplines of psychology psychiatry and neuroscience the mind has also been a focus of study in the fields of philosophy economics anthropology linguistics computer science molecular biology education and literature In all these approaches there is an almost universal fascination with how the mind works and how it affects our lives and our behavior Studies of the mind and brain have crossed many exciting thresholds in recent years and the study of mind now represents a thoroughly cross disciplinary effort Researchers from a wide range of disciplines seek answers to such questions as What is mind How does it operate What is consciousness This encyclopedia brings together scholars from the entire range of mind related academic disciplines from across the arts and humanities social sciences life sciences and computer science and engineering to explore the multidimensional nature of the human mind Prognosis Tests in the Modern Foreign Languages Vivian Allen Charles Henmon, Modern Foreign Language Study, 1929 Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum, 1922 Subject Index of the Modern Books Acquired by the British Museum in the Years 1916-1920 British Museum.
