Bland, Anne L. Taylor, S. Lynn Shollen, Anne Marie Weber-Main, Patricia A. Mulcahy, 2009-02-16. Few things are more essential to the success of an academic institution than vital faculty members. This book is a rich combination of findings from the literature and practical tools which together assist academic leaders and faculty in implementing and participating in a successful formal mentoring program that can be used as a strategy for maintaining the vitality of a diverse faculty across all stages of an academic career. In Faculty Success through Mentoring, the authors describe the tangible benefits of formal traditional mentoring programs in which mentor-mentee interactions are deliberate, structured, and goal-oriented. They outline the characteristics of effective mentors, mentees, and mentoring programs and cover other models of mentoring programs such as group and peer mentoring, which are particularly suited for senior and mid-career faculty. Also included are tools that institutions, mentors, and mentees can use to navigate successfully through the phases of a mentoring relationship. One of the unique features of this book is its explicit attention to the challenges to effective mentoring across genders, ethnicities, and generations. No matter what role one plays in mentoring, this book is an invaluable resource. Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 2002 American Book Publishing Record, 2006

Color Navigating Mentoring Relationships Sonja M. Brown Givens, Keisha Edwards Tassie, 2016-07-18 Women of Color Navigating Mentoring Relationships explores and critically examines the opportunities and challenges presented in mentoring relationships involving women of color While all mentoring relationships are unique to the individuals involved in them this book highlights the roles of race class and gender oriented constructions in the establishment maintenance and dissolution of specific mentoring relationships in which women of color are engaged This edited collection argues that traditional notions of mentoring fail to account for intersectionality and power dynamics that can have profound effects on mentoring practices and that institutional best practices for mentoring do little to address the impact of constructions of otherness on the success or failure of mentoring relationships involving women of color Recommended for scholars of communication studies gender studies race studies and for scholars pursuing a career in academia
