Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 Huxford's Old Book Value Guide Bob Huxford, Sharon Huxford, 1992 This totally new fourth edition is intended to be a companion volume Over 25 000 listings are included with current values More than just a price guide you ll also find scores of buyers listed by the type of subject matter they are looking for so it s a selling guide as well Book Prices: Used and Rare, 1994 Edward N. Zempel, 1994 Subculture Dick Hebdige, 2013-10-08 First Published in 2002 It is easy to see that we are living in a time of rapid and radical social change It is much less easy to grasp the fact that such change will inevitably affect the nature of those disciplines that both reflect our society and help to shape it Yet this is nowhere more apparent than in the central field of what may in general terms be called literary studies New Accents is intended as a positive response to the initiative offered by such a situation Each volume in the series will seek to encourage rather than resist the process of change To stretch rather than reinforce the boundaries that currently define literature and its academic study Maximum Feasible Participation Stephen Schryer, 2018-06-05 This book traces American writers contributions and responses to the War on Poverty Its title comes from the 1964 Opportunity Act which established a network of federally funded Community Action Agencies that encouraged maximum feasible participation by the poor With this phrase the Johnson administration provided its imprimatur for an emerging model of professionalism that sought to eradicate boundaries between professionals and their clients a model that appealed to writers especially African Americans and Chicanos as associated with the cultural nationalisms gaining traction in the inner cities These writers privileged artistic process over product rejecting conventions that separated writers from their audiences Participatory professionalism however drew on a social scientific conception of poverty that proved to be the paradigm s undoing the culture of poverty thesis popularized by Oscar Lewis Michael Harrington and Daniel Moynihan For writers and policy experts associated with the War on Poverty this thesis described the cultural gap that they hoped to close Instead it eventually led to the dismantling of the welfare state Ranging from the 1950s to the present the book explores how writers like Jack Kerouac Amiri Baraka Gwendolyn Brooks Oscar Zeta Acosta Alice Walker Philip Roth and others exposed the War on Poverty s contradictions during its heyday and kept its legacy alive in the decades that followed Crime and Terrorism Peter Grabosky, Michael Stohl, 2010-09-21 Terrorism and crime are two areas of knowledge that have traditionally been looked at independently In this timely and original text two of the leading authors in the field provide a clear and thorough look at terrorism from a criminological perspective Integrating the latest research the book explores the motives of criminals and terrorists the causes of crime and terrorism and the impact of the law and the legal system Central to this exploration the authors examine the nexus between criminal and terrorist organizations and the commonalities and differences between them and what this means for public policy and safety and security within states Cross cultural and international in perspective this is a fresh and original text that will appeal to undergraduates academics and researchers in criminology politics international relations sociology communication and cultural studies Compact Criminology is an exciting series that invigorates and challenges the international field of criminology Books in the series are short authoritative innovative assessments of emerging issues in criminology and criminal justice offering critical accessible introductions to important topics They take a global rather than a narrowly national approach Eminently readable and first rate in quality each book is written by a leading specialist Compact Criminology provides a new type of tool for teaching learning and research one that is flexible and light on its feet The series addresses fundamental needs in the growing and increasingly differentiated field of criminology

The Race Card Richard Thompson Ford, 2009-03-03 A New York Times Notable Book of the Year What do hurricane Katrina victims millionaire rappers buying vintage champagne and Ivy League professors waiting for taxis have in common All have claimed to be victims of racism But these days almost no one openly defends bigoted motives so either a lot of people are lying about their true beliefs or a lot of people are jumping to unwarranted conclusions or just playing the race card Daring entertaining and incisive The Race Card brings sophisticated legal analysis eye popping anecdotes and plain old common sense to this heated topic

Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren's writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren's literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism
