Sharpe Hornblower The Count of Monte Cristo and the recent BBC co production of The Three Musketeers Sam Wanamaker Diana Devlin,2019-06-13 Actor Director Visionary The fascinating life of Sam Wanamaker is explored for the first time in this biography by Diana Devlin who worked closely with Wanamaker during the last twenty years of his life Sam Wanamaker 1909 1993 is best known as the man who spent the last twenty five years of his life campaigning to reconstruct Shakespeare s Globe near its original site in London Born in the USA he trained as an actor in Chicago and began his career during the golden age of radio drama before moving on to Broadway A vocal left wing activist Wanamaker moved to the UK during the turbulent era of the anti Communist witch hunts Having crossed the Atlantic he carved a successful international career as actor producer and director He directed the opening production at the Sydney Opera House With his staunch sense of purpose he made as many enemies as friends charismatic and persuasive he was also stubborn and domineering But above all he was a man of great vision and it was that vision that inspired many to help make his dream of Shakespeare s Globe come into being which opened to much fanfare in 1997 The Marxist and the Movies Larry Ceplair,2007-11-16 As part of its effort to expose Communist infiltration in the United States and eliminate Communist influence on movies from 1947 1953 the House Committee on Un American Activities subpoenaed hundreds of movie industry employees suspected of membership in the Communist Party Most of them including screenwriter Paul Jarrico 1915 1997 invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to answer questions about their political associations They were all blacklisted In The Marxist and the Movies Larry Ceplair narrates the life movie career and political activities of Jarrico the recipient of an Oscar nomination for his screenplay for Tom Dick and Harry 1941 and the producer of Salt of the Earth 1954 one of the most politically besieged films in the history of the United States Though Jarrico did not reach the upper echelon of screenwriting he worked steadily in Hollywood until his blacklisting He was one of the movie industry s most engaged Communists working on behalf of dozens of social and political causes Song of Russia 1944 was one of the few assignments that allowed him to express his political beliefs through his screenwriting craft Though MGM planned the film as a conventional means of boosting domestic support for the USSR a wartime ally of the United States it came under attack by a host of anti Communists Jarrico fought the blacklist in many ways and his greatest battle involved the making of Salt of the Earth Jarrico other blacklisted individuals and the families of the miners who were the subject of the film created a landmark film in motion picture history As did others on the blacklist Jarrico decided that Europe offered a freer atmosphere than that of the cold war United States Although he continued to support political causes while living abroad he found it difficult to find remunerative black market screenwriting assignments On the scripts he did complete he had to use a pseudonym or allow the producers to give screen credit to others Upon returning to the United States in 1977 he led the fight to restore screen credits to the blacklisted writers who like himself had been denied screen credit from the late 1940s to the mid 1960s Despite all the obstacles he encountered Jarrico never lost his faith in the progressive potential of movies and the possibility of a socialist future The Marxist and the Movies details the relationship between a screenwriter's work and his Communist beliefs From Jarrico's immense archive interviews with him and those who knew him best and a host of other sources Ceplair has crafted an insider's view of Paul Jarrico's life and work placing both in the context of U S cultural history Cowboy Hamlets and zombie Romeos Kinga Földvry,2020-12-15 The book presents a systematic method of interpreting Shakespeare film adaptations based on their cinematic genres Its approach is both scholarly and reader friendly and its subject is fundamentally interdisciplinary combining the findings of Shakespeare scholarship with film and media studies particularly genre theory The book is organised into six large chapters discussing films that form broad generic groups Part I looks at three genres from the classical Hollywood era western melodrama and gangster noir while Part II deals with three contemporary blockbuster genres teen film undead horror and biopic Beside a few better known examples of mainstream cinema the volume also highlights the Shakespearean elements in several nearly forgotten films bringing them back to critical attention Kiss the Blood Off My Hands Robert Miklitsch,2014-09-15 Consider the usual view of film noir endless rainy nights populated by down at the heel boxers writers and private eyes stumbling toward inescapable doom while stalked by crooked cops and cheating wives in a neon lit urban jungle But a new generation of writers is pushing aside the fog of cigarette smoke surrounding classic noir scholarship In Kiss the Blood Off My Hands On Classic Film Noir Robert Miklitsch curates a bold collection of essays that reassesses the genre's iconic style history and themes Contributors analyze the oft overlooked female detective and little examined aspects of filmmaking like love songs and radio aesthetics discuss the significance of the producer and women's pulp fiction and investigate topics as disparate as Disney noir and the Fifties heist film B movie back projection and blacklisted British directors At the same time the writers' collective reconsideration shows the impact of race and gender history and sexuality technology and transnationality on the genre As bracing as a stiff drink Kiss the Blood Off My Hands writes the future of noir scholarship in lipstick and chalk lines for film fans and scholars alike Contributors Krin Gabbard Philippa Gates Julie Grossman Robert Miklitsch Robert Murphy Mark Osteen Vivian Sobchack Andrew Spicer J P Telotte and Neil Verma To the Golden Cities Deborah Dash Moore,1996 The first great modern migration of the Jewish people from the Old World to America has been often and expertly chronicled but until now the second great wave of Jewish migration has been overlooked After World War II spurred by a postwar economic boom American Jews sought new beginnings in the nation's South and West There they shaped a new postwar style of American Judaism for the second half of the twentieth century Today these sun soaked entrepreneurial communities contribute greatly to the American Jewish landscape In this book the vibrant Jewish culture of Los Angeles and Miami comes to life through Moore's skillful weaving of individual voices dreams and accomplishments
