Radical Feminism Writing Critical Agen:

Radical Feminism, Writing, and Critical Agency Jacqueline Rhodes, 2012-02-01 This book traces the intersection of radical feminism composition and print culture in order to address a curious gap in feminist composition studies the manifesto writing collaborative action taking radical feminists of the 1960s and 1970s Long before contemporary debates over essentialism radical feminist groups questioned both what it was to be a woman and to perform womanhood and a key part of that questioning took the form of very public very contentious texts by such writers and groups as Shulamith Firestone the Redstockings and WITCH the Women's International Terrorist Conspiracy from Hell Rhodes explores how these radical women's texts have been silenced in contemporary rhetoric and composition and compares their work to that of contemporary online activists finding that both point to a network literacy that blends ever shifting identities with ever changing technologies in order to take action Ultimately Rhodes argues the articulation of radical feminist textuality can benefit both scholarship and classroom as it situates writers as rhetorical agents who can write resist and finally act within a network of discourses and identifications

Radical Feminism, Writing, and Critical Agency Jacqueline Rhodes, 2005-01-01 Links radical feminist writings of the 1960s and 1970s to contemporary online women's networks

Women in American History Peg A. Lamphier, Rosanne Welch, 2017-01-23 This four volume set documents the complexity and richness of women's contributions to American history and culture empowering all students by demonstrating a more populist approach to the past Based on the content of most textbooks it would be easy to reach the erroneous conclusion that women have not contributed much to America's history and development Nothing could be further from the truth Offering comprehensive coverage of women of a diverse range of cultures classes ethnicities religions and sexual identifications this four volume set identifies the many ways in which women have helped to shape and strengthen the United States This encyclopedia is organized into four chronological volumes with each volume further divided into three sections Each section features an overview essay and thematic essay as well as detailed entries on topics ranging from Lady Gaga to Ladybird Johnson Lucy Stone and Lucille Ball and from the International Ladies of Rhythm to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union The set also includes a vast variety of primary documents such as personal letters public papers newspaper articles recipes and more These primary documents enhance users learning opportunities and enable readers to better connect with the subject matter

Feminism's Queer Temporalities Sam McBean, 2015-07-16 Despite feminism's uneven movements it has been predominantly understood through metaphors of generations or waves Feminism's Queer Temporalities builds on critiques of the limitations of this linear model to explore alternative ways of imagining feminism's timing It finds in feminism's literary and cultural archive narratives of temporality that might now be diagnosed as queer where queer designates modes of being historical that exceed the linear and the generational Few theorists have looked to popular feminist figures literature and culture to theorize feminism's timing Through methodologically creative readings McBean explores non generational anti linear and asynchronous time in the figure of Antigone Marge Piercy's Woman on the Edge of Time the film Ladies and Gentlemen The Fabulous Stains Valerie Solanas and SCUM Manifesto and Alison Bechdel's Fun Home The first to substantially bring together the ways in which time has come to matter in both feminist and queer disciplines this book will appeal to students and scholars of feminist queer and gender studies cultural studies and literary studies

Feminist Thought, Student Economy Edition Rosemarie Tong, 2018-10-03 This book provides a clear comprehensive and incisive introduction to the major traditions of feminist theory from liberal feminism radical feminism and Marxist and socialist feminism to care focused feminism psychoanalytic feminism women of color feminisms and ecofeminism Making Matters Leigh Gruwell, 2022-04-15 Craft is a process oriented practice that takes seriously the relationships between bodies both human and nonhuman and makes apparent how these relationships are mired in and informed by power structures Making Matters introduces craft agency a feminist vision of new materialist rhetorics that enables scholars to identify how power circulates and sometimes stagnates within assemblages of actors and provides tools to rectify that uneven distribution To recast new materialist rhetorics as inherently crafty Leigh Gruwell historicizes and locates the concept of craft both within rhetorical history as well as in the disciplinary history of writing studies Her investigation centers on three specific case studies craftivism the fibercraft website Ravelry and the 2017 Women's March These instances all highlight how a material ecological understanding of rhetorical agency can enact political change Craft agency models how we humans might work with and alongside things nonhuman sometimes digital sometimes material to create more equitable relationships Making Matters argues that craft is a useful starting point for addressing criticisms of new materialist rhetorics not only because doing so places rhetorical action as a product of complex relationships between a network of human and nonhuman actors but also because it does so with an explicitly activist agenda that positions the body itself as a material interface

Rhetorical Feminism and This Thing Called Hope Cheryl Glenn, 2018-09-04 Rhetoric and feminism have yet to coalesce into a singular recognizable field In this book author Cheryl Glenn advances the feminist rhetorical project by introducing a new theory of rhetorical feminism Clarifying how feminist rhetorical practices have given rise to this innovative approach Rhetorical Feminism and This Thing Called Hope equips the field with tools for a more expansive and productive dialogue Glenn's rhetorical feminism offers an alternative to hegemonic rhetorical histories theories and practices articulated in Western culture This alternative theory engages addresses and supports feminist rhetorical practices that include openness authentic dialogue and deliberation interrogation of the status quo collaboration respect and progress Rhetorical feminists establish greater representation and inclusivity of everyday rhetors disidentification with traditional rhetorical practices and greater appreciation for alternative means of delivery including silence and listening These tenets are supported by a cogent reconceptualization of the traditional rhetorical appeals situating logos alongside dialogue and understanding ethos alongside experience and pathos alongside valued emotion Threaded throughout the book are discussions of the key features of rhetorical feminism that can be used to negotiate cross boundary mis understandings inform rhetorical theories advance feminist rhetorical research methods and methodologies and energize feminist practices within the university Glenn discusses the power of rhetorical feminism when applied in classrooms the specific ways it inspires and sustains mentoring and the ways it supports administrators especially directors of writing programs Thus the innovative theory of rhetorical feminism a theory rich with tactics and potentially broad applications opens up a new field of research theory and practice at the intersection of rhetoric and feminism The Cultural and Historical Heritage of Colonialism Kenneth

Usongo,2022-02-17 In the time since most African countries achieved independence from European colonial powers it is unfortunate that these nations are still politically economically and culturally reordered by their former colonisers This book argues that these nations often slavishly emulate Western values to the detriment of indigenous ones It challenges the postcolony to ground itself in local experience and then nativise external values which entails delicately sifting through both the domestic and foreign worlds to build a decent and humane society Valerie Solanas Breanne Fahs,2014-04-15 The authoritative biography of the 60s countercultural icon who wrote SCUM Manifesto shot Andy Warhol and made an unforgettable mark on feminist history Valerie Solanas is one of the most polarizing figures of 1960s counterculture A cult hero to some and vehemently denounced by others she has been dismissed but never forgotten Known for shooting Andy Warhol in 1968 and for writing the infamous SCUM Manifesto Solanas became one of the most famous women of her era But she was also diagnosed with paranoid schizophrenia and spent much of her life homeless or in mental hospitals Solanas s SCUM Manifesto a sui generis vision of radical gender dystopia predicted ATMs test tube babies the Internet and artificial insemination long before they existed It has sold more copies and been translated into more languages than nearly all other feminist texts of its time And yet shockingly little work has investigated the life of its author This book is the first biography about Solanas including original interviews with family friends and enemies and numerous living Warhol associates It reveals surprising details about Solanas s life the children nearly no one knew she had her drive for control over her own writing and her elusive personal and professional relationships Valerie Solanas reveals the tragic remarkable life of an iconic figure It is not only a remarkable biographical feat but also a delicate navigation of an unwieldy demanding and complex life story

BOMB Magazine Exquisite Corpse Kate Haanzalik,Nathalie Virgintino,2019-02-11 Out of the 1920s Surrealist art studios emerged the exquisite corpse a collaboratively drawn body made whole through a series of disjointed parts whose relevance today is the subject of Exquisite Corpse Studio Art Based Writing in the Academy This collection draws from the processes and pedagogies of artists and designers to reconcile disparate discourses in rhetoric and composition pertaining to 3Ms multimodal multimedia multigenre multiliteracies translingualism and electracy With contributions from a diverse range of scholars artists and designers the chapters in this collection expand the conversation to a broader notion of writing and composing in the 21st century that builds upon traditional notions of composing but also embraces newer and nontraditional forms In the section devoted to process readers will find connections between art design and academic writing that may encourage them to incorporate nontraditional strategies and styles into their own writing In the section devoted to pedagogy readers will encounter art based writing projects and activities that highlight the importance of interdisciplinary work as students continue to compose in ways that are more than solely alphabetic Both sections provide insight into experimental process inquiry based work play and risk taking They also reveal what failure and success mean today in the composition classroom Throughout the collection readers will encounter a variety of stylized critical essays poetic vignettes lavish contemporary visual art 20th century Surrealist exquisite corpse drawings and candid snapshots from the artists own studios Contributors include John Dunnigan Brian Gaines Felix Burgos Meghan Nolan Derek Owens Jason Palmeri Christopher Rico Jody Shipka S Andrew Stowe Vittoria S Rubino Tara Roeder Gregory L Ulmer and K A Wisniewski The Handbook of Community Practice Marie Weil, Michael S. Watching Women's Liberation, 1970 Bonnie J. Dow, 2014-10-30 In 1970 ABC CBS and NBC the Big Three of the pre cable television era discovered the feminist movement From the famed sit in at Ladies Home Journal to multi part feature stories on the movement s ideas and leaders nightly news broadcasts covered feminism more than in any year before or since bringing women s liberation into American homes In Watching Women s Liberation 1970 Feminism s Pivotal Year on the Network News Bonnie J Dow uses case studies of key media events to delve into the ways national TV news mediated the emergence of feminism s second wave First legitimized as a big story by print media the feminist movement gained broadcast attention as the networks eagerness to get in on the action was accompanied by feminists efforts to use national media for their own purposes Dow chronicles the conditions that precipitated feminism s new visibility and analyzes the verbal and visual strategies of broadcast news discourses that tried to make sense of the movement Groundbreaking and packed with detail Watching Women s Liberation 1970 shows how feminism went mainstream and what it gained and lost on the way

Voice in Qualitative Inquiry Alecia Y Jackson, Lisa A Mazzei, 2008-09-02 Voice in Qualitative Inquiry is a critical response to conventional interpretive and critical conceptions of voice in qualitative inquiry A select group of contributors focus collectively on the question What does it mean to work the limits of voice from theoretical methodological and interpretative positions and the result is an innovative challenge to traditional notions of voice The thought provoking book will shift qualitative inquiry away from upproblematically engaging in practices and interpretations that limit what counts as voice and therefore data The loss and betrayal of comfort and authority when qualitative researchers work the limits of voice will lead to new disruptions and irruptions in making meaning from data and in turn will add inventive and critical dialogue to the conversation about voice in qualitative inquiry Toward this end the book will specifically address the following objectives To promote an examination of how voice functions to communicate in qualitative research To expose the excesses and instabilities of voice in qualitative research To present theoretical methodological and interpretative implications that result in a problematizing of voice To provide working examples of how qualitative methodologists are engaging the multiple layers of voice and meaning To deconstruct the epistemological limits of voice that circumscribe our view of the world and the ways in which we make meaning as researchers This compelling collection will challenge those who conduct qualitative inquiry to think differently about how they collect analyze and represent meaning using the voices of others as well as their own

Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka, 2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon's critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon's Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon's thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon's contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation's wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon's own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory

Feminist Rhetorical Resilience Elizabeth A Flynn, Patricia Sotirin, Ann Brady, 2012-06-16 Although it is well known in other fields the concept of resilience has not been addressed explicitly by feminist rhetoricians This collection develops it in readings of rhetorical situations across a range of social contexts and national cultures Contributors demonstrate that resilience offers an important new conceptual frame for feminist rhetoric with emphasis on agency change and hope in the daily lives of individuals or groups of individuals disempowered by social or material forces Collectively these chapters create a robust conception of resilience as a complex rhetorical process redeeming it from its popular association with individual heroism through an important focus on relationality community and an ethics of connection Resilience in this volume is a specifically rhetorical response to complicated forces in individual lives Through it Feminist Rhetorical Resilience widens the interpretive space within which rhetoricians can work

Germaine Greer, Celebrity Feminism and the Archive Anthea Taylor, 2024-11-29 Germaine Greer

Celebrity Feminism and the Archive the first scholarly book on this internationally renowned feminist draws upon Greer's largely unexplored archive to demonstrate her impact on readers and viewers since the 1970s Across many decades in the limelight and through multiple media forms the provocative Greer has worked to shape audience understandings of gender sexuality and feminism Through deep engagement with archival material Anthea Taylor offers a compelling reassessment of Greer's celebrity feminist labour and its effects over time Examining archived letters from fans anti fans and those in between this innovative volume shows how and why readers and viewers have come to affectively invest or disinvest in this iconoclastic feminist Advancing debates about the social and political function of celebrity Germaine Greer Celebrity Feminism and the Archive is essential reading for scholars in Gender Studies History Archival Studies and Media and Cultural Studies

Feminist Organizing Across the Generations Karen Bojar, 2021-11-24 Feminist Organizing Across the Generations spans almost 60 years of feminist history and traces the evolution of feminist activism from the 1960s until the present Using the Philadelphia chapter of the National Women's Organization as a starting point Karen Bojar explores how feminist organizing was unfolding in similar ways across the country The book examines the enormous energy put into building feminist service organizations such as women's shelters and rape crisis centers which were to have a profound impact on major social institutions health care delivery and the justice system The book also looks at the differences between the organizing strategies of second wave feminists and those of the 21st century Much 21st century feminist organizing is taking place outside of explicitly feminist groups with young feminists bringing a gender justice perspective to a range of racial economic and climate justice organizations This book is suitable for students and scholars in women's and gender history political history and gender studies
