The Jewish American Novel Philippe Codde, 2007 Philippe Codde provides a comparative cultural analysis of the unprecedented success of the Jewish novel in the postwar United States by situating the process and event in the context of three closely related American cultural movements the popularity in the US of French philosophical and literary existentialism the increasing visibility of the Holocaust in US American life and the advent of radical theology Codde argues that the literary repertoire of the postwar Jewish novel consists of an amalgam of these cultural elements that were making their mark in the political religious and philosophical systems of the United States at the time and that this explains in part the Jewish novel's sweeping success in the American literary system
