Transatlantic Radio Dramas Daniel Mandur Thomaz,2023-11-28 The BBC Latin American Service was created in 1938 funded by the British Ministry of Information to counter fascist propaganda broadcast to Latin America Now considered one of the major Latin American novelists of the twentieth century

Brazilian writer Antonio Callado 1917-1997 got his start writing radio drama scripts for the BBC LAS during and after World War II. Largely forgotten until Daniel Mandur Thomaz collected them in a 2018 volume published in Brazil, these radio scripts were propaganda in their own right and were part of a concerted effort to win sympathy for Britain and the Allies in Latin America. They reveal how Callado's experiences during the war influenced his writing and had a critical impact on themes he would revisit consistently throughout his literary career. Transatlantic Radio Dramas analyzes the scripts themselves but also examines the institutions, material practices and beliefs that allowed modernist transatlantic networks like the BBC LAS to flourish.

The Birth of Top 40 Radio Richard W. Fatherley, David T. MacFarland, 2013-12-24 Top 40 was the preeminent American radio format of the 1950s and 1960s. Although several radio station group owners offered their own versions of the format, the AM stations owned by Todd Storz and his father were acknowledged as the principal developers of Top 40 radio and the prime movers in making it a nationwide ratings and revenue success. The Storz Stations in St. Louis, Omaha, New Orleans, Minneapolis, St. Paul, Kansas City, Oklahoma City, and Miami are profiled in this book, as are various Storz air personalities and executives. A detailed chapter examines the unique Storz Station sound, revealing the complexity of what detractors portrayed as a simplistic format. Another covers Storz advertising in radio trade magazines, which cemented the company's image as the format's most successful station group, and Top 40 as the dominant programming of the day. There are extensive quotations from the memoirs of several of the founders of the format.

Women in Radio Geneviève A. Bonin-Labelle, 2020-09-22 Who are the women who shaped radio in Canada? What did they contribute locally, regionally, and nationally? How was their experience in radio broadcasting different from that of their male counterparts? Women in Radio presents the women who built careers in the radio industry, yet whose contribution has often been overlooked, simply because they were women. This collection of stories highlights the multifaceted contributions they made to their field and explores issues specific to them. Academic research, interviews, personal reflections, and accounts, historical reviews, and hybrid texts combine neatly in this eclectic yet well-researched, edited volume to reflect the fast-paced world of radio broadcasting. Whether through storytelling, direct quotes, or quasi-transcriptions, best read aloud, the reader will come away with a real sense of the aural nature of radio, of the voice unaccompanied by the pure spoken word, and how it differs from the printed word. Published in English.

Radio Fun and the BBC Variety Department, 1922-67 Martin Dibbs, 2018-09-17 This book provides a narrative history of the BBC Radio Variety Department, exploring along chronological lines the workings of tensions within and the impact of BBC policies on the programme making department which generated the organisation's largest audiences. It provides an insight into key events, personalities, programmes, internal politics and trends in popular entertainment, censorship and anti-American policy as they individually or collectively affected the Department. Martin Dibbs examines how the Department's programmes became markers in the daily and weekly lives of millions of listeners and helped shape the nation's listening habits when radio was the dominant source of domestic entertainment. The book explores events and topics which while not directly forming part of the Variety Department's history nevertheless intersected with or had an impact on it. Such topics include the BBC's attitude to jazz and rock and roll, the arrival of television with its impact on radio, the pirate radio stations and the Popular Music and Gramophone Departments, both of whom worked closely with the Variety Department.

1941--The Greatest Year In Sports Mike Vaccaro, 2008-06-10

Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams, Joe Louis, Billy Conn, Whirlaway. Against the backdrop of a war that threatened to consume the world, these athletes transformed 1941 into one of the most thrilling years in sports history. In the summer of 1941, America paid attention to sports with an intensity that had never been seen before. World War II was raging in Europe and headlines grew worse by the day; even the most optimistic people began to accept the inevitability of the United States being drawn into the conflict. In sports pages and arenas at home, however, an athletic perfect storm provided unexpected and uplifting relief. Four phenomenal sporting events were underway, each destined to become legend. In 1941, The Greatest Year in Sports, acclaimed sportswriter Mike Vaccaro chronicles this astounding moment in history. Fueled by a somber mania for sports, a desire for good news to drown out the bad, Americans by the millions fervently watched, listened and read as Joe DiMaggio dazzled the country by hitting in a record-setting fifty-six consecutive games. Ted Williams powered through an unprecedented 406-season Joe Louis and Billy Conn, the heavyweight and light heavyweight champions, battled in unheard-of fashion for boxing's ultimate championship and the phenomenal, some say deranged thoroughbred Whirlaway raced to three heart-stopping victories that won the coveted Triple Crown of horse racing. As Phil Rizzuto perfectly expressed, "You read the sports section a lot because you were afraid of what you'd see in other parts of the paper." Gripping and nostalgic, 1941: The Greatest Year in Sports focuses on these four seminal events and brings to life the national excitement and remarkable achievement. Many of these records still stand today, as well as the vibrant lives of the athletes who captivated the nation. With vast insight, Vaccaro pulls back the veil on DiMaggio's anxieties and the building pressure of The Streak and chronicles the brash young confidence Williams displayed as he hammered his way through the baseball season, largely in DiMaggio's shadow. He takes readers inside the head of Billy Conn, a kid who traded in his light heavyweight belt for a shot at the very decent and very powerful Joe Louis, and tells the story of the fire-breathing racehorse Whirlaway, who was known either for setting track records or tearing off in the wrong direction. Rich in historical detail and edge-of-your-seat reporting, Mike Vaccaro has crafted a lasting, important book that captures a portrait of one of America's most trying and extraordinary eras.
