formal analysis of diverse films as well as innovative contributions to current film theory The book defines queer cinema less as a specific genre or in terms of gay and lesbian identity but more broadly as a kind of filmmaking that conveys sexual desire and orientation as potentially fluid within any individual's experience and as forces that can therefore unite unlikely groups of people along new lines socially sexually or politically The films driving this analysis range from celebrated fixtures of the New Queer Cinema of the 1990s including Cheryl Dunye's The Watermelon Woman and Todd Haynes's Velvet Goldmine to sexually provocative films of the same era that are rarely classified as queer David Cronenberg's Dead Ringers and Naked Lunch to breakout films by 21st century directors Rodney Evans's Brother to Brother John Cameron Mitchell's Shortbus To frame these readings and to avoid heterosexist assumptions in other forms of film analysis The Desiring Image revisits the work of the philosopher Gilles Deleuze whose two major works on cinema somehow never address the radical ideas about desire he expresses in other texts This book brings those notions together in innovative ways making them clear and accessible to newcomers and field specialists alike with clear illustrated examples drawn from a wide range of movies extending beyond the central case studies Thus The Desiring Image speaks to readers interested in queer and gay lesbian studies in film theory in feminist and sexuality scholarship and in theory and philosophy putting those discourses into rich surprising conversations with popular cinema of the last 30 years

La India María Seraina Rohrer, 2017-12-20 La India Mar a a humble and stubborn indigenous Mexican woman is one of the most popular characters of the Mexican stage television and film Created and portrayed by Mar a Elena Velasco La India Mar a has delighted audiences since the late 1960s with slapstick humor that slyly critiques discrimination and the powerful At the same time however many critics have derided the iconic figure as a racist depiction of a negative stereotype and dismissed the India Mar a films as exploitation cinema unworthy of serious attention By contrast La India Mar a builds a convincing case for Mar a Elena Velasco as an artist whose work as a director and producer rare for women in Mexican cinema has been widely and unjustly overlooked Drawing on extensive interviews with Velasco her family and film industry professionals as well as on archival research Seraina Rohrer offers the first full account of Velasco's life her portrayal of La India Mar a in vaudeville television and sixteen feature film comedies including Ni de aqu ni de all Neither here nor there and her controversial reception in Mexico and the United States Rohrer traces the films financing production and distribution as well as censorship practices of the period and compares them to other Mexploitation films produced at the same time Adding a new chapter to the history of a much understudied period of Mexican cinema commonly referred to as la crisis this pioneering research enriches our appreciation of Mexploitation films
