investigates what went wrong This is a measured yet unsparing appraisal which interleaves individual cases with compelling legal and moral argument Hirst takes us deep into the workings of the Court and the domestic apocalypses it sees every day He explores the Court's fervour to uphold the best interests of the child no matter what and traces its chilling consequence a court where malicious allegations regularly go unpunished He notes the Court's enormous power over individual lives as well as its self-proclaimed status as a caring court and wonders at its ability to overlook the defiance of its own authority In closing he considers how to reform an institution that has bred antagonism and extremism and too often entrenched paranoia and despair

Lucid and urgent Kangaroo Court is a cautionary tale about the perils of high-mindedness when it comes to dealing with the breakdown of families When Family Court judges talk piously of the caring court I wish they could hear the roar of pain that their piety has caused John Hirst Kangaroo Court This issue also contains correspondence discussing Quarterly Essay 16 Breach of Trust from Paul Kelly Paul Bongiorno Mungo MacCallum Natasha Cica Alex Miller and Raimond Gaita

Philosophical Notes: an Outlook Adrian Brockless, 2009-12-16 This book is not a typical philosophical text it is only really a series of notes what one might call short philosophical reflections on various subjects grouped loosely into topics Discussions in the book include an examination of the relationships between art and culture what counts as good judgment and why rights and their relationship with our understanding of individuality individuality and its relationship to ethical perspectives what it means to receive a good education and how this nourishes our understanding of the differences between education and training It also looks at the role of art in education the nature of art and its relationship with meaning and the impact of the natural world on our understanding Adrian Brockless is currently on the academic staff of Heythrop College University of London

The Self in Moral Space David Parker, 2018-07-05 All of us take our moral bearings from a conception of the good or a range of goods that we consider most important We are in this sense selves in moral space Building on the work of the philosopher Charles Taylor among others David Parker examines a range of classic and contemporary autobiographies including those of St Augustine William Wordsworth Friedrich Nietzsche Edmund Gosse Roland Barthes Seamus Heaney and J M Coetzee to reveal a whole domain of life narrative that has been previously ignored one that enables a new approach to the question of what constitutes a good life narrative Moving from an ethics toward an aesthetics of life writing Parker follows Wittgenstein's view that ethics and aesthetics are one The Self in Moral Space is distinctive in that its key ethical question is not What is it right for the life writer to do but the broader question What is it good to be This question opens up an important debate with the dominant postmodern paradigms that prevail in life writing studies today In Parker's estimation such paradigms are incapable of explaining why life writing matters in the contemporary context Life narrative he argues faces readers with the perennial ethical question How should a human being live We need a new reconstructive paradigm as offered by this book in order to gain a fuller understanding of life narrative and its humanistic potential

Citizenship, Law and Literature Caroline Koegler, Jesper Reddig, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2021-10-25 This

edited volume is the first to focus on how concepts of citizenship diversify and stimulate the long standing field of law and literature and vice versa Building on existing research in law and literature as well as literature and citizenship studies the collection approaches the triangular relationship between citizenship law and literature from a variety of disciplinary conceptual and political perspectives with particular emphasis on the performative aspect inherent in any type of social expression and cultural artefact The sixteen chapters in this volume present literature as carrying multifarious at times opposing energies and impulses in relation to citizenship These range from providing discursive arenas for consolidating challenging and re negotiating citizenship to directly interfering with or inspiring processes of law making and governance The volume opens up new possibilities for the scholarly understanding of citizenship along two axes Citizenship as Literature Enacting Citizenship and Citizenship in Literature Conceptualising Citizenship Simone Weil and Continental

Philosophy A. Rebecca Rozelle-Stone, 2017-11-08 Simone Weil is an often overlooked thinker whose insights could radically reshape contemporary discourses on religion nature art ethics work politics and education This collection of essays situates Simone Weil's thought alongside prominent Continental thinkers and their philosophical concerns to show the ways in which she belongs to but also stands outside some of the major streams of Continental discourse including phenomenology ethics of embodied disposition and difference and post Marxian political thought For the first time in a major work intersections between the ideas of Weil and figures such as Nietzsche Berdyaev Foucault Blanchot Merleau Ponty Levinas Chr tien Agamben Fanon and Ranci re are closely examined The volume is authored by an international team of leading scholars in Weil studies and in contemporary Continental philosophy of religion more broadly Simone Weil and Continental Philosophy is not only an unprecedented resource for Weil scholars who seek to read her in broader and more current philosophical terms but also an important addition to the libraries of scholars and students of Continental philosophy and theology engaged in thinking about some of the most pressing questions of our time
