collection of essays by eminent authors illustrating the gentle Christian ethos and health sustaining ministry of Holy Rood House under the leadership of Elizabeth Baxter Hexagonal Variations Jo McCormack, Murray Pratt, Alistair Rolls Alistair Rolls, 2011-03 Hexagonal Variations provides an essential overview of key debates about contemporary French society and culture Concise challenging and comprehensive its chapters each address the processes of change and redefinition that characterise France today Contributors analyse and situate cinematic literary online and visual texts mediatic political and everyday discourses in each case pinpointing how diversity plurality and reinvention inflect cultural and social evolution in France The chapters in the collection share a key set of thematic concerns and raise topics for debate among scholars and students alike Central to these are questions about France s uncertain place and role in Europe and the wider world the morphing topography of its capital and the many conundrums posed by the persistence of Republican paradigms in a global environment If France is no longer the exception what are the versions and varieties of being French that are lived thought and imagined in the new millennium Commercial News USA , 1981 The Road Movie Neil Archer, 2016-01-12 Though often seen as one of America s native cinematic genres the road movie has lent itself to diverse international contexts and inspired a host of filmmakers As analyzed in this study from its most familiar origins in Hollywood the road movie has become a global film practice whether as a vehicle for exploring the relationship between various national contexts and American cinema as a means of narrating different national and continental histories or as a form of individual filmmaking expression Beginning with key films from Depression era Hollywood and the New Hollywood of the late 1960s and then considering its wider effect on world cinemas this volume maps the development and adaptability of an enduring genre studying iconic films along the way The Heart Has Its Reasons Michael Cart, Christine A. Jenkins, 2006-03-30 Society does not make it easy for young people regardless of their sexual orientation to find accurate nonjudgmental information about homosexuality. It makes it even more difficult for young homosexuals to find positive role models in fiction either written or published expressly for them or if published for adults relevant to them and their lives. The Heart Has Its Reasons examines these issues and critically evaluates the body of literature published for young adults that offers homosexual themes and characters. Cart and Jenkins chart the evolution of the field of YA literature having GLBTQ gay lesbian bisexual transgendered and or queer questioning content. They identify titles that are remarkable either for their excellence or failures noting the stereotypic wrongheaded and outdated books as well as the accurate thoughtful and tactful titles. Useful criteria for evaluating books with GLBTQ content are provided. Books and resources of all types are reviewed based on a model that uses the category descriptors of Homosexual Visibility, Gay Assimilation and Queer Consciousness Community. An annotated bibliography and a number of author title lists of books discussed in the text arranged by subject round out this valuable reference for teachers librarians parents and young adults.

The Real Life Build Kris Ripper, 2015-08-04 You can build anything in Minecraft. With one exception your life. Dillon Aldham loves being on his computer. He's a little bit awkward and most of his relationships have been online. When a pipe explodes in his apartment he holes up in the local bar for a few days waiting for repairs to be done. He figures the hot redheaded bartender is just being polite but every now and then he thinks they might have a spark. And Gage's tone of command is pretty evocative. Gage Maher isn't in the closet he's just private. At least he's private until he meets Dillon. But Dillon and his fun mix of awkward and fearless really gets under his skin. Between an inheritance he never asked for the feud that comes along with it and New Halliday's first gay wedding Gage could use a little fun. Can a computer geek and a small town bartender really hit it off? Is a love for kink a healthy fear of gossip and a huge helping of sexual chemistry enough to build a life on.

Pink Tourism Howard L. Hughes, 2006 This is a study of gay and lesbian tourism from primarily a marketing perspective but it also examines how marketing activity engages with and affects social issues relating to homosexuality. It includes an overview of the nature of homosexuality and relevant issues that bear upon tourism and marketing. Content includes holiday profiles of both gay men and lesbians supply of related holiday products popular and non popular destinations tour operators and accommodation provision tourism and sex and sexually transmitted infections barriers and inhibitors to choice including host reactions appropriate marketing strategies. The book locates gay and lesbian tourism and holiday marketing within a context of current issues such as citizenship identity and consumerism political activity and distraction and contested space and de gaying.
