Life and Moral Education in Greater China John Chi-Kin Lee, Stephen Yam-wing Yip, Raymond Ho-Man Kong, 2021-03-29 Arguing for life moral and values education as a bedrock for the original goals of school education this monograph explores how life and values education is conceptualised and imparted in Greater China Under a globalized transnational and technological world where there has been an increase in people's mobility in information and cultural exchanges there is also a growing emphasis on personal and professional ethics Against this context life moral and values education has gained attention for its impact on shaping students' characters as future citizens However the cultivation of these values is made deeply diversified and complex by varying interpretations of life education and values education across societies given that different societies are influenced by different socio-cultural traditions educational ideologies and religious beliefs The means and approaches towards life education also vary vastly from formal school subjects school-based programmes as well as teachers and peers role modelling community services extra-curricular activities school discipline charity work pastoral care and school ethos

Recognising this inherent diversity and complexity in the approach to and the dissemination of life education the contributors to this volume survey the practice of life education in Greater China so far suggesting that life education is most effective when it is diversified dynamic and developmental across contexts This book will provide the opportunity for engaging in important and serious debates about the future and the values that will underpin it and will prove of special interest to scholars and practitioners working on education policies curriculum development and teacher education in Greater China

The Life and Afterlife of Gay Neighborhoods Alex Bitterman, Daniel Baldwin Hess, 2021-03-19 This open access book examines the significance of gay neighborhoods or gayborhoods from critical periods of formation during the gay liberation and freedom movements of the 1960s and 1970s to proven durability through the HIV AIDS pandemic during the 1980s and 1990s to a mature plateau since 2000 The book provides a framework for contemplating the future form and function of gay neighborhoods Social and cultural shifts within gay neighborhoods are used as a framework for understanding the decades long struggle for LGBTQ rights and equality Resulting from gentrification weakening social stigma and enhanced rights for LGBTQ people gay neighborhoods have recently become less gay following a 50 year period of resilience Meanwhile other neighborhoods are becoming more gay due to changing preferences of LGBTQ individuals and a propensity for LGBTQ families to form community in areas away from established gayborhoods The current plateau in the evolution of gay neighborhoods is characterized by generational differences between Baby Boom pioneers and Millennials who favour broad inclusivity signaling various possible trajectories for the future afterlife of these important LGBTQ urban spaces The complicating impacts of the COVID 19 pandemic provides a point of comparison for lessons learned from gay neighborhoods and the LGBTQ community that bravely endured the onset of the HIV AIDS pandemic This book will be of interest to students and scholars in various disciplines including sociology social work anthropology gender and sexuality LGTBQ and queer studies as well as urban geography architecture and city planning and to policymakers and advocates concerned with LGBTQ rights and social justice Life and Letters of F.
