Gary Snyder and the Pacific Rim Timothy Gray, 2006-10 In Gary Snyder and the Pacific Rim Timothy Gray draws upon previously unpublished journals and letters as well as his own close readings of Gary Snyder's well crafted poetry and prose to track the early career of a maverick intellectual whose writings powered the San Francisco Renaissance of the 1950s and 1960s Exploring various aspects of cultural geography Gray asserts that this west coast literary community seized upon the idea of a Pacific Rim regional structure in part to recognize their Orientalist desires and in part to consolidate their opposition to America's cold war ideology which tended to divide East from West The geographical consciousness of Snyder's writing was particularly influential Gray argues because it gave San Francisco's Beat and hippie cultures a set of physical coordinates by which they could chart their utopian visions of peace and love Gray's introduction tracks the increased use of Pacific Rim discourse by politicians and business leaders following World War II Ensuing chapters analyze Snyder's countercultural invocation of this regional idea concentrating on the poet's migratory or creaturely sensibility his gift for literary translation his physical embodiment of trans Pacific ideals his role as tribal spokesperson for Haight Ashbury hippies and his burgeoning interest in environmental issues Throughout Gray's citations of such writers as Allen Ginsberg Philip

Whalen and Joanne Kyger shed light on Snyder's communal role providing an amazingly intimate portrait of the west coast counterculture. THE EVOLUTION OF THE GOD ILLUSION Ir. Jim K K

Wong, 2012-06-16 As one may have read Cicero in The Nature Of The Gods, ancient people were vivid observers of the sky and the celestial bodies because of their livelihood they were mostly engaged in agriculture and animal husbandry. The cycles of nature and seasons were the most important factors affecting farming civilizations. The brilliant stars Jupiter, Saturn, Venus, and the zodiac were also objects of great interest. These heavenly bodies were regarded as deities even by learned philosophers. Cicero and Socrates had a field day demolishing these strongly held prevailing ideas. One popular god illusion of the West and Middle East began with patriarch Abraham who was an astronomer from Mesopotamia. He studied Jupiter avidly and could predict its behavior which he used it to his advantage in his migration to the Fertile Crescent and in his encounters with hostile inhabitants. Abraham had the delusion that Jupiter/Yahweh was a deity who could be depended to assist him in troubled times. The Yahweh Delusion was passed down from Abraham to son Isaac and grandson Jacob. Jacob's 12 sons migrated to Egypt, multiplied, and eventually became slaves. Moses, a pariah Egyptian prince, became the rebel leader of the Hebrew slaves when he discovered his roots. At the opportune moment c. 1450 BCE, Venus erupted from an unstable fast-spinning Red Giant, Jupiter, and shot into the inner solar system like a billiard ball along a highly elliptical orbit. It had several close encounters with Earth, Moon, and Mars and created stunning phenomena or miracles such as the much exaggerated Ten Plagues, parting of the Red Sea, the rain of manna, apparent stopping of the Earth's rotation, and even the destruction of the mighty army of Sennacherib near Jerusalem. Moses and his successors apparently knew and could predict more or less unusual celestial phenomena and attributed them to a tribal deity, Yahweh, who was connected with their deliverance and survival. Every successful prediction or expectation resulted in augmenting the god illusion. The god illusion evolved through stupendous sagas, cross-fertilized by neighbors and reformers, roughly from 1500 BCE to 500 BCE. However, the Hebrews had a confused idea of this savior deity and its feminine aspects such as the Celestial Cow giving manna/milk. In the evolutionary process, Yahwist patriarchs literally wrote off the influential Goddess and made Yahweh a lone male god of Judaism and Christianity. The underlying motive in developing this god illusion is Moses and Israel's covetousness of the fertile Holy Land. Moses needed a justification to commit genocide, to rob, loot, destroy, and drive out people inhabiting the land of milk and honey. The justification is a tribal god of Israelites who gives mandate to his chosen race to rob and steal the Promise Land from evil worshippers of false gods. The underlying theory for this god illusion evolution hypothesis is based on Immanuel Velikovsky's bestseller of the 1950s, Worlds in Collision. This hypothesis met fierce opposition in academia and Establishment.

Science The AAAS Symposium 1974 was convened to address the serious challenge Here the author produces abstracts from various experts in various disciplines of sciences and arts to counter objections to the underlying theory The god illusion presented here is my own interpretation of the psychological impacts and aspects of these astounding celestial phenomena I am using appropriate knowledge in several disciplines to support my thesis such as radiation chemistry upper atmosphere chemistry and behavioral science My training as a stock analyst to read the underlying environment enables me to read in between the lines to speculate and connect the gaps and dots together and present a satisfying version of the god illusion
