History of the Karmapas Lama Kunsang, Lama Pemo, Marie Aubele, 2012-04-16 Masters of esoteric knowledge and miraculous practices the lineage of the Karmapas is the earliest of all the recognized incarnate lineages and is said to descend from the great Indian tantric master Tilopa through a chain that includes Naropa Marpa and Milarepa The Karmapas are distinguished by their black crowns said to have been woven by dakinis and symbolizing the activity of the buddhas Unlike other Tibetan Buddhist lineage heads each Karmapa has specific knowledge of his next reincarnation and leaves behind a Last Testament a letter to his disciples describing the place and circumstances of their future rebirth the name of their parents and so on At a very young age each successive incarnation is often able to recognize himself as the Karmapa In their recounting of the histories of the seventeen Karmapas the authors reveal the universal and marvelous concealed in the everyday world Their lively account peppered with anecdotes is the most comprehensive in the West on this subject with information from Tibetan Chinese Mongolian French and English sources Straight from the Heart Jamgon Mipham, 2014-04-22 Straight from the Heart brings together an inspiring collection of Buddhist teachings songs of realization meditation instructions and enlightened poetry all chosen for their power to speak directly to the student Drawn from Indian Mahayana and Vajrayana Buddhism as well as from all four schools of Tibetan Buddhism some will impress with their beautiful poetry and powerful imagery others with their profound power of instruction Still others share personal advice for life that seems to come directly from the mouth of the author and some serve as immediate and profound practice instructions Several are just delightfully unconventional even outrageous letting in fresh air on petrified views or musty traditions Most of them are simply unknown precious gems which deserve a wider audience Each of the works is preceded by a brief introduction and a short biography of its author Many of these are legendary accounts of supernatural feats edifying examples for students on the same spiritual path meant to expand their limited outlook with mind blowing stories Miraculous deeds magnificent songs and pithy instructions distinguish this collection assembled by the Buddhist scholar and translator Karl Brunnhölzl whose years of work among dharma texts and his skill as a translator yield a rich mine of teachings all chosen for their ability to speak directly to the heart Psychedelic Experience Aidan Lyon, 2023-09-26

Psychedelic Experience presents a philosophical account of psychedelic experience A central premise of the book is that such experiences are mind revealing experiences and that they can be induced by means other than psychedelics In particular the book argues that psychedelic experiences can also be had as the result of meditation Aiden Lyon presents a unified conceptual framework for thinking about the different kinds of psychedelic experiences one may have as a result of psychedelics meditation and their combination This framework is then used to shed new light on various commonalities between psychedelics and meditation such as the ability to promote long lasting increases in mindfulness and their reputation for inducing mystical experiences Finally the book uses these new philosophical resources to flip things around and shine the light back on philosophy itself arguing that psychedelic experiences can be used as tools for doing philosophy The result is a new approach to philosophy or the revival of an ancient one which integrates traditional analytic methods with a range of psychedelic techniques Tilopa's Mahamudra Upadesha Sangyes Nyenpa Rinpoche, 2014-04-15 All lineages of Mahamudra meditation have their source in a verse teaching a song of realization sung by the Mahasiddha Tilopa to his disciple Naropa on the banks of the Ganges River more than a thousand years ago Since that time the meaning of Tilopa's instructions has been passed directly from master to disciple in a continuous stream that exists unbroken to this day This book offers the reader a rare glimpse into the Mahamudra oral transmission given in a traditional Tibetan context by one of the lineage's most learned and accomplished contemporary masters Mahamudra meditation while highly advanced is yet simple practical and accessible for anyone because what is identified and meditated upon is the very nature of one's own mind In Sangyes Nyenpa Rinpoche's words The distinction between deception and liberation lies in whether we understand the ever present nature of our own mind or not Knowing our own face is liberation not knowing our own face is samsara This is not something far distant from us The instructions are ideal for Westerners because the root text is manageable and Rinpoche has provided an outline of his own composition that makes it easily understandable He explains terminology with frequent comparisons between Dzogchen and Mahamudra quotes prolifically from scripture gives clear examples and generally cajoles admonishes and encourages his listeners to be true to their own spiritual path Open Mind Eva Natanya, 2018-02-06 Get to know the teachings and legacy of the celebrated Lerab Lingpa the influential confidant of the Thirteenth Dalai Lama in this collection of practical instructions on the Great Perfection and reflections on the nonsectarian rim approach to Tibetan Buddhism Lerab Lingpa 1856-1926 also known as Tertön Sogyal was one of the great Dzogchen Great Perfection masters of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and a close confidant and guru of the Thirteenth Dalai Lama This volume contains translations by B Alan Wallace of two works that are representative of the lineage of this great treasure revealer or tertön The first work composed by Lerab Lingpa himself is The Vital Essence of Primordial Consciousness It presents pith instructions on all the stages of the Great Perfection which is the highest form of meditation and practice in the Nyingma school of Tibetan Buddhism In this practice the meditator comes to see directly the ultimate nature of consciousness itself The work guides the reader from the common preliminaries through to the highest practices of the Great Perfection the direct crossing over and the achievement of the rainbow body The second work Selected Essays on Old and New Views of the Secret Mantrayana is a collection of seven essays by two of Lerab Lingpa's close disciples Dharmasara and J Tsultrim Zangpo Dharmasara wrote six of the essays providing detailed erudite explanations of the compatibility among the theories and practices of Great Perfection Mahamudra a parallel practice tradition found in other schools and the Madhyamaka view especially as these are interpreted by the Indian pandita Candrakirti the Nyingma master Longchen Rabjam and Tsongkhapa founder of the Geluk school of Tibetan Buddhism The one essay by J Tsultrim Zangpo aka a Tulku Tsulpo An Ornament of the Enlightened View of Samantabhadra contextualizes the Great Perfection within the broader framework of Mahayana and Vajrayana Buddhism and then elucidates all the stages of practice of the Great Perfection unifying the profound path of cutting through and the vast path of the spontaneous actualization of the direct crossing over This volume will be of great interest for all those interested in the theory and practice of the Great Perfection and the way it relates to the wisdom teachings of Tsongkhapa and others in the new translation schools of Tibetan Buddhism
