The Novels of Mrs Ann Radcliffe Anne Radcliffe, 1824

Novels and the Sociology of the Contemporary Arpad Szakolczai, 2016-04-14 This book substantiates two claims First the modern world was not simply produced by objective factors rooted in geographical discoveries and scientific inventions to be traced to economic technological or political factors but is the outcome of social cultural and spiritual processes Among such factors beyond the Protestant ethic Max Weber the rise of the absolutist state and its disciplinary network Michel Foucault or court society Norbert Elias a prime role is played by theatre The modern reality is deeply theatricalized Second a special access for studying this theatricalized world is offered by novels The best classical novels not simply can be interpreted as describing a world like the theatre but they capture and present a world that has become thoroughly transformed into a global theatre The theatre effectively transformed the world and classical novels effectively analyze this theatricalized reality much better than the main instruments supposedly destined to study reality philosophy and sociology Thus instead of using the technique of sociology to analyze novels the book will treat novels as a royal road to analyze a theatricalized reality in order to find our way back to a genuine and meaningful life

Nadine Gordimer's Fiction is a major study of the life and writings of Nadine Gordimer, a towering figure in the literary and cultural life of South Africa in the late 20th and early 21st centuries, recognised for her fiction through several prizes most notably the 1991 Nobel Prize for Literature. It has the makings of a guide taking the reader through the complexities in Gordimer's life literature and society backed by academic research doctoral and postdoctoral and informed by Dr Mazhar's study visit to South Africa including a face to face interview with Gordimer. The reader gets a rich picture mediated by the author's own intellectual journey from Pakistan the country of her birth and the United Kingdom. Dr Mazhar maps the complexities of colonialism in South Africa and beyond in different forms most notably in the legislated discrimination based on race ethnicity Apartheid 1948 1994 Covering the literary writings and political activism of Gordimer both during and after Apartheid the book provides the reader with a detailed account of individual works of fiction and vistas of critical thought and action that serve as their source and backdrop Dr Mazhar draws on the cultural theories of Homi Bhabha especially on the notion of The Third Space a fictional space borderland between social and political polarisations which allows for reflection refinement and re action that is transformational and psychologically uplifting She demonstrates that Gordimer takes her characters through such spaces which allow for a transformational experience that leads to perspectives realisations that were missing as a result of constraints that were externally imposed by law and tradition and interiorised as a survival mode Dr Mazhar concludes that Gordimer gracefully articulates her vision for a world free of complexities which one must strive for Although the book presents the academic analysis of Gordimer s fiction and the memoir as separate parts there are organic connections between the two which link the social ethos political struggles varied ideological perspectives and ethnic and trans ethnic identities from which Gordimer draws her subjects and their lives and depicts them through appropriate narrative techniques Nadine Gordimer s Fiction is a welcome addition to books on author studies literary criticism and South African culture and society It offers excellent material for both academic and non academic readers The style of writing used in the book is clear and simple yet powerful This can help the reader to appreciate the enormous achievement of Gordimer which has established her as a major literary figure in South Africa and beyond Dr Balasubramanyam Chandramohan PhD Shef FHEA Senior Research Fellow Institute of Commonwealth Studies School of Advanced Study University of London Latin American Mystery Writers Darrell B.
