No End To The World:

The End of the World Marcia Sa Cavalcante Schuback, Susanna Lindberg, 2017-03-29 The end of the world opens up philosophical questions concerning the very notion of the world which is a fundamental element of all existential phenomenological and hermeneutical philosophy Is the end of the world for us somebody's death the end of being in the world or the extinction of many or of all the end of the world itself Is the erosion of the world a phenomenon that does not in fact affect the notion of the world as a fundamental feature of all existential ontological inquiry This volume examines the present state of these concerns in philosophy film and literature It presents a philosophical hermeneutics of the present state of the world and explores the principal questions of the philosophical accounts of the end of the world such as finality and finitude It also shows how literature and cinema have ventured to express the end of the world while asking if a consequent expression of the end of the world is also an end of its expression World Without End Joseph A. Bracken, 2005 Marjorie Suchocki's ground breaking work The End of Evil Process Eschatology in Historical Context SUNY 1988 serves as the backdrop for a series of essays by distinguished Christian philosophers and theologians on the usefulness of process thought for the articulation of a contemporary Christian Eschatology in the light of postmodernism and contemporary natural science

World Without End James H. Moorhead, 1999-10-22 In the nineteenth century many American Protestants expected almost limitless orderly progress as Christianity and democracy spread and as technology and prosperity increased Yet they also believed that many centuries hence after progress had run its course the Second Coming of Jesus and a supernatural End to the world would occur If these Protestants had one foot in the world of steamships and the telegraph the other remained firmly planted in the cosmos of the Apocalypse a universe where angels poured out vials of wrath where the dead would rise again and where the wicked would be cast forever into a lake of burning fire A Concordance to All the

opens out a perspective in which no permanent Self is accepted but a rich analysis of changing and potent mental processes is developed It explores issues relating to the not Self teaching self development moral responsibility the between lives period and the undetermined questions on the world on the life principle and on the liberated one after death It examines the person as a flowing continuity centred on consciousness or discernment vinnana configured in changing minds sets cittas The resting state of this is seen as brightly shining like the Buddha nature of Mahayana thought so as to represent the potential for Nirvana Nirvana is then shown to be a state in which consciousness transcends all objects and thus participates in a timeless unconditioned realm The Middle Way Lou Marinoff, 2007 The human world is wobbly wildly off balance Everywhere you look from the halls of Congress to the deserts of the Middle East institutions and societies are riven by discord To his crisis laden situation one that globalization cannot correct by economic means alone philosopher Lou Marinoff brings a much needed antidote to extremism offering hope and guidance to everyone who feels powerless frustrated or frightened in a world that flirts daily with disaster Drawing inspiration from three of humankind s greatest philosophers Aristotle Buddha and Confucius Marinoff maps a route from chaos to order a path whose signposts can be read in the perennial wisdom of these ABCs Marinoff offers us a way to travel into a less violent more cooperative and most fulfilling future The Middle Way From publisher s description True Gospel Revealed anew by Jesus Vol I James E.

Padgett,2014-06-26 This is the first of four volumes of messages received by James Padgett The first edition was published in 1941 and contains the most significant of the spiritual concepts that he learned from Jesus and his disciples Included in these concepts are The true mission of Jesus the structure of the Heavens immortality who and what is God the Holy Spirit the Resurrection Forgiveness and the Vicarious Atonement This is an amazingly coherent yet very simple set of teachings cover every question one might have Yet these are sadly not the teachings that the churches currently teach even though one can see where in the New Testament support lies for what Padgett received This edition has dates added and a great many useful footnotes It also has a message from James and Helen Padgett received in 2014 giving a great many personal details that were not previously known Sermons on Selected Lessons of the New Testament Saint Augustine (of Hippo),1844 A

Harmony of the Four Gospels: in which the Natural Order of Each is Preserved James Macknight,1809 Hegel's Grand Synthesis Daniel Berthold-Bond,1989-01-01 This book offers the first genuinely systematic treatment of Hegel s eschatology in the literature It is an investigation into Hegel s project to demonstrate the ultimate unity of thought and being consciousness and reality self and world The author traces the project through Hegel s epistemology metaphysics and philosophy of history The grand synthesis creates a basic tension an ambivalence that reaches its most acute formulation in Hegel s eschatological language of a final completion or fulfillment of history This conflicts with his dialectic and Heraclitian metaphysics of becoming Berthold Bond concludes that a substantially new approach to Hegel s eschatology is needed

The Whole Works of the Late Reverend Thomas Boston ... Now First Collected, and Reprinted Without Abridgment; Including His Memoirs, Written by Himself. Edited by the Rev. Samuel McMillan Thomas BOSTON (the Elder.),1849 The Works of President Edwards ... Jonathan Edwards,1852 The Coming of God Jürgen

Moltmann,Margaret Kohl,2004-07-27 Winner of Grawemeyer Award In this remarkable and timely work in many ways the culmination of his systematic theology world renowned theologian Jurgen Moltmann stands Christian eschatology on its head Moltmann rejects the traditional approach which focuses on the End an apocalyptic finale as a kind of Christian search for the final solution He centers instead on hope and God s promise of new creation for all things Christian eschatology he says is the remembered hope of the raising of the crucified Christ so it talks about beginning afresh in the deadly end Yet Moltmann s novel framework deeply informed by Jewish and messianic thought also fosters rich and creative insights into the perennially nettling questions of eschatology Are there eternal life and personal identity after death How is one to think of heaven hell and purgatory What are the historical and cosmological dimensions of Christian hope What are its social and political implications In a heartbreakingly fragile and fragment world Moltmann s comprehensive eschatology surveys the Christian vista bravely envisioning our horizons of expectation for personal social even cosmic transformation in God

Drama of the Divine Economy Paul M. Blowers,2012-10-11 The theology of creation interconnected with virtually every aspect of early Christian thought from Trinitarian doctrine to salvation to ethics Paul M Blowers provides an advanced introduction to the multiplex relation between Creator and creation as an object both of theological construction and religious devotion in the early church While revisiting the polemical dimension of Christian responses to Greco Roman philosophical cosmology and heterodox Gnostic and Marcionite traditions on the origin constitution and destiny of the cosmos Blowers focuses more substantially on the positive role of patristic theological interpretation of Genesis and other biblical creation texts in eliciting Christian perspectives on the multifaceted relation between Creator and creation Greek Syriac and Latin patristic commentators Blowers argues were ultimately motivated less by purely cosmological concerns than by the urge to depict creation as the enduring creative and redemptive strategy of the Trinity The drama of the divine economy which Blowers discerns in patristic theology and piety unfolded how the Creator invested the end of the world already in its beginning and thereupon worked through the concrete actions of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit to realize a new creation
