Selected One Act Plays:

Selected One Act Plays Bernard Shaw, Dan H. Laurence, 1982 Selected One-act Plays for Radio Ireneusz Iredyński, 2002 This vibrant anthology of radio plays features works by one of Poland's angry young men playwrights Ireneusz Iredyński made his debut in literature as a Polish angry young man in the late 1950s. He moved with great versatility from verse to stage plays, film scripts and plays for radio. While some of the plays in this collection seem to present a bleak view of life, they show a gentler side of Iredyński. Here it is people's dreams rather than their worst nightmares that are explored. In these plays, situations are kept simple and the theatrical technique is spare and economical, but yet the playwright demonstrates an unfailing theatrical flair and shows himself a master of dramatic tension and the final unexpected twist.

Ten Selected One-act Plays, Chosen by M.H. Fuller Ten Selected ..., 1944 Selected One Act Plays George Bernard Shaw, Dan Hyman Laurence, 1984 Selected One-act Plays of Horton Foote Horton Foote, 1989 This volume brings together seventeen one act plays by the distinguished American playwright and screenwriter Horton Foote. Like his acclaimed Orphans Home Cycle, these one act plays are about the men and women of Harrison, Texas, a quiet farming town turned bedroom community. To neighboring Houston, Harrison is a place in transition where the old ways are fast being replaced by a new order whose values are money and professional success. Against this backdrop of change, Horton Foote tells tales of grief and rebirth, despair and healing, going away and coming home. The first eight plays in this volume were presented on television between 1952 and 1954, at the height of the Golden Age which saw Foote, Paddy Chayevsky and others achieve national recognition for the memorable work presented on Playhouse 90. Philco Television Playhouse and other pioneering showcases of serious drama. The nine plays which complete this collection were first produced on stage some three decades later, decades which saw Foote win new acclaim as author of two Academy Award winning screenplays, To Kill a Mockingbird and Tender Mercies, and the Oscar nominated The Trip to Bountiful. Though linked to Foote's earlier work, these nine plays of the late seventies and the eighties are marked as well by revealing dissimilarities. The subtle evolution of style and theme in the playwright's work is explored by Gerald C. Wood in his insightful introduction and headnotes to the plays. Foote's own fascinating comments on his continuing commitment to the one act form preface this invaluable collection. Selected One-act Plays, 1956 Contemporary One-Act Plays Various Authors, Selected

Poems and Pygmalion and Galatea, a One-Act Play Robert Manns, 1999-12-02 Robert Manns' Selected Poems is comprised of two large poems and a number of smaller verses of various forms that recount his happy, sometimes frustrated years of bachelorhood. By a Turning Root is his invasion of several classical forms and a very sound illustration of the poet as visionary. Pygmalion and Galatea was first produced by Lucille Lortel at the White Barn Theatre in Westport and clearly signals an early influence by England's Christopher Fry. The sculptor makes a statue, then falls in love with it. That's transcendental love. When the statue comes to life, she's interested in more than love in that form. The comedy investigates
