

A man in a dark suit and patterned tie is holding a small, spiral-bound notepad. The notepad has a white cover and a grid pattern. The words "PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION" are written in large, red, capital letters across the middle of the notepad. The man's hands are visible, holding the notepad from the sides. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

New Approach To Continuing Education For Business And The Professions:

A New Approach to Continuing Education for Business and the Professions Philip M. Nowlen,1988 Continuing Professional Education in Australia Barrie Brennan,2016-09-01 This book offers a history of Continuing Professional Development CPD in the Australian context It presents an approach that links the development of CPD to a series of missed opportunities and the identification of three key themes mandatory CPD competencies and regulation registration as well as with national regulation for select health professions It not only relates the evolution of CPD in Australia but also serves as a guide to examining the situation in other countries and the emergence of CPD in individual professions CPD has been provided for many decades but it has not been rated as a high priority or a key area of provision and has not been the focus of discussions or disputes in the higher education sector or in vocational education circles Nevertheless in describing CPD s development evidence is presented that CPD has made a significant contribution to the broad field of vocational education
