Nurturing Program for Teenage Parents and Their Families Stephen J. Bavolek, Juliana Dellinger Bavolek, 1988

Programs and Interventions for Maltreated Children and Families at Risk Allen Rubin, 2011-10-18 Evidence based interventions are increasingly being required by third party payers and an evidence based orientation has come to define ethical practice This compendium of short how to chapters focuses on the programs and interventions to prevent child maltreatment that have the best scientific evidence supporting their effectiveness Interventions and programs discussed include Cognitive Behavioral Therapy EMDR Multisystemic Therapy Coping Cat and many more Busy practitioners will appreciate this book s implementation of evidence based practices by providing the practical and what now rather than using the typical academic approach The Nurturing Parenting Programs Stephen J. Bavolek, 2000 Handbook on Children with Incarcerated Parents J. Mark Eddy, Julie Poehlmann-Tynan, 2019-09-13 The second edition of this handbook examines family life health and educational issues that often arise for the millions of children in the United States whose parents are in prison or jail It details how these youth are more likely to exhibit behavior problems such as aggression substance abuse learning difficulties mental health concerns and physical health issues It also examines resilience and how children and families thrive even in the face of multiple challenges related to parental incarceration Chapters integrate diverse interdisciplinary and rapidly expanding literature and synthesizes rigorous scholarship to address the needs of children from multiple perspectives including child welfare education health care mental health law enforcement corrections and law The handbook concludes with a chapter that explores new directions in research policy and practice to improve the life chances of children with incarcerated parents Topics featured in this handbook include Findings from the Fragile Families and Child Wellbeing Study How parental incarceration contributes to racial and ethnic disparities and inequality Parent child visits when parents are incarcerated in prison or jail Approaches to empowering incarcerated parents of color and their families International advances for incarcerated parents and their children The second edition of the Handbook on Children with Incarcerated Parents is an essential reference for researchers professors clinicians practitioners and graduate students across developmental psychology criminology sociology law psychiatry social work public health human development and family studies This important new volume provides a cutting edge update of research on the impact of incarceration on family life The book will be an essential reference for researchers and practitioners working at the intersections of criminal justice poverty and child development Bruce Western Ph D Columbia University The comprehensive interdisciplinary focus of this handbook brilliantly showcases the latest research interventions programs and policies relevant to the well being of children with incarcerated parents This edition is a must read for students researchers practitioners and policy makers alike who are dedicated to promoting the health and resilience of children affected by parental incarceration Leslie Leve Ph D University of Oregon Handbook of Psychological Services for Children and Adolescents Jan N. Hughes, Annette M. La Greca, Jane

Close Conoley,2001-01-11 This handbook provides a comprehensive discussion of the key elements which should be part of any successful program tailored to the needs of children with diagnosable mental behavioral or emotional disorders The overall goal of the book is to provide an overview of the psychological services available to children and adolescents in school and community settings The book is divided into five parts Framing the Issues Delivering Psychological Services in Diverse Settings Preventive Interventions Treatments with Specific Populations and System Level Consultation Settings Preventive Interventions A Handbook of Wisconsin Agencies Supporting Teen Parents ,1998 Handbook of Adolescent

Health Psychology William T. O'Donohue,Lorraine T. Benuto,Lauren Woodward Tolle,2014-07-08 Adolescence is a pivotal period of development with respect to health and illness It is during adolescence that many positive health behaviors are consolidated and important health risk behaviors are first evident thus adolescence is a logical time period for primary prevention In addition the predominant causes of morbidity and mortality in adolescence are quite different from those of adults indicating that early identification and treatment of adolescent health problems must be directed to a unique set of targets in this age group Moreover because of the particular developmental issues that characterize adolescence intervention efforts designed for adults are often inappropriate or ineffective in an adolescent population Even when chronic illnesses are congenital or begin in childhood the manner in which the transition from childhood to adolescence to young adulthood is negotiated has important implications for disease outcomes throughout the remainder of the person s life span Organized in five major sections General Issues Developmental Issues Treatment and Training Mental Health and Physical Health and 44 chapters Handbook of Adolescent Health Psychology addresses the common and not so common health issues that tend to affect adolescents Coverage includes Context and perspectives in adolescent health psychology Health literacy health maintenance and disease prevention in adolescence Physical disorders such as asthma obesity physical injury and chronic pain Psychological disorders such as substance abuse attention deficit hyperactivity disorder depression and eating disorders Congenital chronic diseases such as type 1 diabetes and spina bifida Handbook of Adolescent Health Psychology is the definitive reference for pediatricians family physicians health psychologists clinical social workers rehabilitation specialists and all practitioners and researchers working with adolescents Serving Teen Parents Ellin Klor,Sarah

Nordhausen,2011-09-12 A comprehensive guide to working with teen parents and their children that provides practical program ideas for successful school and public library program development implementation and evaluation Teen parents and their children represent an underserved high need population in many communities Libraries have the potential to significantly influence the quality of life for teen parent families by providing free access to information and resources developing specific programs and serving as a safe public learning environment Serving Teen Parents From Literacy to Life Skills helps library staff support teen parents as their children s first teachers positively affecting two generations at once The authors explain how to successfully communicate with this group and build upon their competencies and strengths They offer best practices professional anecdotes and step by step direction on connecting with teen parents collaborating with community partners locating funding options and implementing successful programs This invaluable guide is the most comprehensive resource currently available that directly addresses the needs of librarians serving the teen parent demographic
