Nurturing Today's Children Cultivating The Family Of Faith:

Nurturing Today's Children Gaynell Bordes Cronin, John J. Rathschmidt, 2002 Jesus often used planting analogies in his parables Following Jesus example and using the imagery of a garden Nurturing Today's Children shows us that raising children requires special care if the harvest is to be good Just as a garden starts with soil preparation Christian families must prepare their homes to be good soil for growing children Once planted a garden must be blessed with favor flavor and gratitude just as our children require models of kindness joy and appreciation Without water a garden dies and without healing respect for feelings and diversity our children will suffer the dryness of a spiritual desert As our garden grows we must tend it in the same way we must encourage our children by providing a safe place for them to become their own persons Some important topics covered in this helpful book are how to be together as a family cultivating good intentions fostering the habit of gratitude dealing with fear and death learning patience and setting up a household church Nurturing Today's Children will bring thoughtful guidance about each stage of raising your children and encouraging their growth especially in spirit and faith A welcome companion and thoughtful resource that can make your home and family yield an abundant spiritual harvest

Enduring Connections Janice A Haywood, 2007-06-01 Enduring Connections gives churches and ministers significant guidelines for establishing a quality childhood ministry with preschoolers and grade schoolers Enduring Connections is especially helpful to ministers and directors of childhood ministry that are called from the laity to staff positions By focusing on building a childhood ministry that intentionally connects children to God and the community of faith through paths that are driven by relationship rather than programs Janice Haywood has produced a resource that will help churches of any size design their own unique ministry for children A TCP Leadership Series title

Roehlkepartain, Elanah Dalyah Naftali, Laura Musegades, 2000-11-01 This groundbreaking addition to Alban's acclaimed Money Faith and Lifestyle Series creates a mosaic of what is happening and could happen in American Jewish and Christian congregations to cultivate in young people a deep and lasting commitment to giving and serving The Impact of the Family John Witte, Michael Welker, Stephen Pickard, 2022-07-28 The family is humanity's oldest and most basic social institution but today it is fragile fractured and fraught in many liberal lands This volume gathers scholars from sociology psychology history religion ethics law and medicine from five continents to analyze the complex nature and place of the family in character formation and human flourishing The chapters study the impact of catechesis schooling work and discipline on the development of individual moral agency and responsibility They document the critical roles of family love trust fidelity and storytelling in shaping the moral character of all family members from infancy to old age They describe effective strategies of resistance and resilience for family members who face abuse divorce death chauvinism racism and homophobia And several chapters challenge modern arguments and policies that aim to flatten if not abolish the marital family even while they call for family law reforms Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith, 2008 Griffith's narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community Josh McDowell's Youth Ministry Handbook Zondervan, 2000-10-10 Drawing on the wisdom of insightful leaders around the country Josh McDowell's Youth Ministry Handbook equips youth workers to help kids connect with God and with their parents their peers and a world in need of Christ Featuring articles from Dawson McAllister Barry St Clair Jim
