Nwanyibu Womanbeing African Literature:

Meditations on African Literature Dubem Okafor, 2001-02-28 While African literature is presently enjoying much attention from the scholarly community its heritage and identity are becoming less clearly defined While Africa has a rich oral tradition African writers find themselves writing in the languages of their colonial oppressors So too many of the best African writers now live outside Africa particularly in North America Much of the criticism of African literature is written by American professors African writers sometimes teach their literature at American universities and American publishers issue African literary works At the same time the political climate of many African countries has been detrimental to literacy and writing This book explores many of the issues currently facing African literature Each chapter is written by an expert contributor to provide the volume with a broad coverage of numerous topics related to the present state of African literature The opening chapters examine issues of language and postcoloniality in African literary works Later chapters discuss such concerns as the formation of an African literary canon representations of history and ideology in African writing the role of women in African literature and African ritual theater Through its various chapters the volume makes clear that African writers continue to engage pressing social and political issues and that they are intellectuals rather than entertainers The Literary History of the Igbo Novel Ernest N. Emenyonu, 2020-02-07 This book looks at the trends in the development of the Igbo novel from its antecedents in oral performance through the emergence of the first published novel Omenuko in 1933 by Pita Nwana to the contemporary Igbo novel Defining Igbo literature as literature in Igbo language and Igbo novel as a novel written in Igbo language the author argues that oral and written literature in African indigenous languages hold an important foundational position in the history of African literature Focusing on the contributions of Igbo writers to the development of African literature in African languages the book examines the evolution themes and distinctive features of the Igbo novel the historical circumstances of the rise of the African novel in the pre colonial era and their impact on the contemporary Igbo novel This book will be of interest to scholars of African literature literary history and Igbo studies Postcolonial

Identities and West African Literature Anwesh Das, 2022-11-29 Anchored in postcolonial theory this book highlights the concept of postcolonial soliloquies as an original idea in analyzing West African literature It uses the political theory of dialogue to broaden the reader's understanding of history culture identity and indigenous memories The book shows how the novels of T Obinkaram Echewa plunge into the known territory of colonial history with new boundaries Ethnosensitive

Dimensions of African Oral Literature Ebeogu, Afam, 2017-05-25 Ethnosensitive Dimensions of African Oral Literature Igbo Perspectives is a collection of nineteen essays spanning all genres of African Oral literature from the poetic genre to the rhetorical genre Part One of the book is introductory and includes three essays that are of a general kind touching all aspects of the genres while Part Two includes six essays concerned with the poetic genre Part Three made up of two essays and concern the prose genre while Part Four of two essays examines the drama genre Part Five made up of three essays addresses the rhetorical genre and Part Six has three essays that cut across all the genres The contributions examine the implications of ethnocentric imperatives of oral literature in relation to nationalistic demands Research in African Literatures ,2000 Vol 1 spring 1970 include A Bibliography of American doctoral dissertations on African literature compiled by Nancy J Schmidt Legacies of Departed African Women Writers Helen O. Chukwuma, Chioma Carol Opara, 2022-08-29 Legacies of Departed African Women Writers Matrix of Creativity and Power proffers varied perspectives of the invaluable contributions of ten deceased African writers from all across Africa who have cleared the path to a vibrant African feminist arena The dynamics of change gleaned from both their textual and contextual concerns unarguably set the pace for contemporary African women writers who have striven to follow in the footsteps of their literary mothers as well as their oral foremothers This book edited by Helen Chukwuma and Chioma Carol Opara shows the collective testament of ample creativity and power generated by these departed heroes Flora Nwapa Mariama Ba Grace Ogot Zulu Sofola Bessie Head Buchi Emecheta Nawal El Saadawi Assia Djebar Yvonne Vera and Nadine Gordimer These chapters revolve around the positive impact of the celebrated writers on creative writing theoretical formulations and socio cultural change The contributors argue that these corpuses of works have illuminated creativity rooted in power vision and freedom African Literature Today Eldred D. Jones, 1994 Nwanyibu Phaniel Akubueze Egejuru, Ketu H. Katrak, 1997 Women, Literature and Development in Africa Anthonia C. Kalu, 2019-12-09 This book is a powerful exploration of the role of women in the evolution of African thinking and narratives on development from the precolonial period right through to the modern day Whilst the book identifies women's oppression and marginalization as significant challenges to contemporary Africa's advancement it also explores how new written narratives draw on traditional African knowledge systems to bring deep rooted and sometimes radical approaches to progress The book asserts that Africans must tell their own stories expressed through the complex meanings and nuances of African languages and often conveyed through oral traditions and storytelling in which women play an important role The book's close examination of language and meaning in the African narrative tradition advances the illumination and elevation of African storytelling as part of a viable and valid knowledge base in its own right rather than as an extension of European paradigms and methods Anthonia C Kalu's new edition of this important book fully revised throughout will also include fresh analysis of the role of digital media education and religion in African narratives At a time when the prominence and participation of African women in development and sociopolitical debates is growing this book's exploration of their lived experiences and narrative contribution will be of interest to students of African literature gender studies development history and sociology Feminism in African Literature Helen Chukwuma, 1994
