Safari Diary Kenya:

Safari Diary, 1989 Safari Journal Boyd Norton, 2006-12 This beautiful and informative journal makes it easy to capture the adventures and wonders of your safari Population, Tradition, and Environmental Control in Colonial Kenya Martin S. Shanguhya, 2015 Examines land management programs pushed by the colonial government in western Kenya between 1920 and 1963 analyzing how those programs were negotiated or contested by the local community Safari Journal Hudson Talbott, 2003-04-01 Twelve year old Carey Monroe has no idea what he's in for when his wacky aunt Elaine drags him along on an African safari Soon after arriving in Kenya Carey meets a Maasai man and his son who open Carey's eyes to the ways of their people and the beauty of the African landscape and wildlife Their adventures turn suspenseful when they encounter an international poaching ring that trades illegally in rhino horns and elephant tusks Explore the world of the Maasai people at Carey's side by reading his journal filled with his vivid accounts photographs and illustrations Hudson Talbott has created an exciting informative safari story that will fascinate readers of all ages An author's note provides cultural context for Carey's adventures Kenya Federica Brugnolo, Barnaba Salvador, 2019-10-27 A journey to Kenya with pencils and watercolors ready in the backpack A travel book on a quick spectacular experience of the Kenya's boundless horizons and multitude of animals Through paintings photos and words Barnaba and Federica will share their awesome trip from different emotions and sensibilities Diary of Two Safaris Ralph Pulitzer, 1927 Ready for the Safari in Kenya Africa Unique Journal, 2016-09-22 Blank 150 page lined journal for your thoughts ideas and inspiration Chronicles of Kenya Alexander Davis, H. G. Robertson, 1928 Making the Mark Miroslava Prazak, 2016-09-15 Why do female genital cutting practices persist How does circumcision affect the rights of girls in a culture where initiation forms the lynchpin of the ritual cycle at the core of defining gender identity and social and political status In Making the Mark Miroslava Prazak follows the practice of female circumcision through the lives and activities of community members in a rural Kenyan farming society as they decide whether or not to participate in the tradition In an ethnography twenty years in the making Prazak weaves multiple Kuria perspectives those of girls boys family members circumcisers political and religious leaders into a riveting account Though many books have been published on the topic of genital cutting this is one of the few ethnographies to give voice to evolving perspectives of practitioners especially through a period of intense anticutting campaigning on the part of international NGOs local activists and donor organizations Prazak also examines the cultural challenges that complicate the human rights anti FGM stance Set in the rolling hills of southwestern Kenya Making the Mark examines the influences that shape and change female genital cutting over time presenting a rich mosaic of the voices contributing to the debate over this life altering ritual Girl Cases Brett L. Shadle, 2006-08-30 Beginning in the late 1930s a crisis in colonial Gusiiland developed over traditional marriage customs Couples eloped wives deserted husbands fathers forced daughters into marriage and desperate men abducted women as wives Existing historiography focuses on women who either fled their rural homes to escape a new dual patriarchy African men backed by colonial officials or surrendered themselves to this new power Girl Cases Marriage and Colonialism in Gusiiland Kenya 1890 1970 takes a new approach to the study of Gusii marriage customs and shows that Gusii women stayed in their homes to fight over the nature of marriage Gusii women and their lovers remained committed to traditional bridewealth marriage but they raised deeper questions over the relations between men and women During this time of social upheaval thousands of marriage disputes flowed into local African courts By examining court transcripts Girl Cases sheds light on the dialogue that developed surrounding the nature of marriage Should parental rights to arrange a marriage outweigh women s rights to choose their husbands Could violence by abductors create a legitimate union Men and women debated these and other issues in the courtroom and Brett L Shadle s analysis of the transcripts provides a valuable addition to African social history Kenya Marina Carle,1991 African Safari Journal Gary Häng Lee,1998 An illustrated journal of the author s safari in Tanzania and Kenya featuring illustrations of wildlife and landscapes Safari ,1978 Safari Journal Hudson Talbott,2003 Twelve year old Casey is unhappy about being sent on a trip to Kenya with his wacky Aunt Elaine until he encounters fascinating customs endangered animals and wild adventures Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Generations Past Andrew Burton,Hélène Charton-Bigot,2010-09-15 Contemporary Africa is demographically characterized above all else by its youthfulness In East Africa the median age of the population is now a striking 17 5 years and more than 65 percent of the population is age 24 or under This situation has attracted growing scholarly attention resulting in an important and rapidly expanding literature on the position of youth in African societies While the scholarship examining the contemporary role of youth in African societies is rich and growing the historical dimension has been largely neglected in the literature thus far Generations Past seeks to address this gap through a wide ranging selection of essays that covers an array of youth related themes in historical perspective Thirteen chapters explore the historical dimensions of youth in nineteenth twentieth and twenty first century Ugandan Tanzanian and Kenyan societies Key themes running through the book include the analytical utility of youth as a social category intergenerational relations and the passage of time youth as a social and political problem sex and gender roles among East African youth and youth as historical agents of change The strong list of contributors includes prominent scholars of the region and the collection encompasses a good geographical spread of all three East African countries Resource Guide to Travel in Sub-Saharan Africa: East and West Africa Louis Taussig,1994 Kenya Heather Blades,2000 Climate and landscape Population and settlement Urbanisation and city life Village life Agriculture Tea growing Horticulture Advantages and disadvantages of tourism Economic development International trade Water aid Health aid Women in Kenya Entangling Alliances John Maxwell Hamilton,Nancy Morrison,1990 Explores the ties that bind everyday people in the United States with those in seemingly distant developing lands Sources in British Political History, 1900-1951 C. Cook,P. Jones,J. Sinclair,Jeffrey Weeks,2015-12-30 From 1970 to 1977 a major project to uncover source material for students of contemporary British history and politics was undertaken at the British Library of Political and Economic Science Fiananced by the Social Science Research Council and under the direction of Dr Chris Cook this project has attempted a unique and systematic operation to locate and then to make readily available those archives that provide the indispensable source material for the contemporary historian This volume the fifth in the series provides a guide to the papers of propagandists who were influential in British public life Included in this volume are the papers of such persons as newspaper editors leading economists social reformers socialist thinkers trade unionists industrialists and a variety of theologians and philanthropists In all this volume not only completes the findings of the project but opens up the archive sources of a hitherto neglected area of research into contemporary social and political history
