autobiographies and diaries represent the most personal and most intimate of genres as well as one of the most abundant and popular. Gain new understanding and better serve your readers with this detailed genre guide to nearly 700 titles that also includes notes on more than 2,800 read-alike and other related titles. The popularity of this body of literature has grown in recent years and it has also diversified in terms of the types of stories being told and persons telling them. In the past, readers' advisors have depended on access by names or Dewey classifications and subjects to help readers find autobiographies they will enjoy. This guide offers an alternative organizing the literature according to popular genres, subgenres, and themes that reflect common reading interests. Describing titles that range from travel and adventure classics and celebrity autobiographies to foodie memoirs and environmental reads. Life Stories: A Guide to Reading Interests in Memoirs, Autobiographies, and Diaries presents a unique overview of the genre that specifically addresses the needs of readers' advisors and others who work with readers in finding books. Iran Today Manochehr Dorraj, Mehran Kamrava, 2008-10-30. Iran dominates the media headlines once again and has taken center stage in the U.S. and European Union strategy toward the Middle East. A more nuanced understanding of Iranian society has assumed even greater significance and urgency. Iran Today: An Encyclopedia of Life in the Islamic Republic offers crucial insight for students and the general reader into an often misunderstood and complex country that is shrouded in mystery and misperception. Heir to a long history and a great culture and civilization, Iran embodies a rich, complex, and diverse mosaic that defines its national identity. Diversity is also the operative word that describes Iranian landscapes and geography, its multiple ethnic groups, and their varied cultures and traditions, as well as the uneven and vastly different levels of economic and industrial development, conflicting political tendencies, and different and often contradictory social and cultural outlooks. Because of its tumultuous recent political history, Iran appears to encapsulate all of these internal differences and stark contrasts somewhat more distinctly than most of its neighbors. The 1978-1979 revolution transformed the society and culture in fundamental ways and redefined social life. It created new institutions of governance and Islamicized the culture, education, and the legal system in an attempt to create a new society that would usher in the reign of piety and virtue. Yet Islamization had to come to terms with pre-Islamic and illustrious Persian history and culture, as well as the realities of an interdependent, postmodern, globalized world in which, as a developing country, Iran resides in the periphery. Within this framework, the dynamics and complexity of social life in the Islamic Republic unfold. This encyclopedia is the source for up-to-date, authoritative information on a full range of critical topics of interest. Coverage of the Islamic Republic here falls into the general categories of history, politics, economics, society, and culture. The most significant aspects of the life in Iran since the revolution, the era of the Islamic Republic so far, are stressed. The wide range of entries shows the richness and complexity of Iranian society, its multiple and varied facets, its expressions and outward manifestations, and its nuanced responses to political repression, instability, war, pervasive crisis, and the chronic tension between modernity and tradition. Some of the entries designed to highlight these important phenomena revolve around the country's ethnic mosaic the social role and position of women veiling the educational system sports intellectuals the arts and artistic expression literature poetry cuisine healthcare and the family Other entries range from regionalism and urban development to the petroleum industry agriculture the banking system issues of wealth and poverty class structure and economic mobility and the private sector In a number of significant areas economic social and cultural phenomena intersect These intersections are reflected in entries on broadcasting and communications technology the Internet public relations electronic and print media and family planning and healthcare A chronology selected bibliography and photos complement the entries

Tribeswomen of Iran Julia Huang, 2014-09-19

Since the revolution in 1979 the Islamic Republic of Iran has permitted very few Western scholars to conduct research in the country Foreign travellers and media persons have limited access and much Iranian scholarship tends to focus on the realms of politics and government Here Julia Huang provides a remarkable account of local tribal Iranian life offering a rare glimpse into the daily rhythms and social richness beyond the capital city of Tehran The Qashqa'i are a confederation of nomadic tribes of which the Qermezi Red Ones are one migrating semiannually between winter pastures near the Persian Gulf and summer pastures southwest of the city of Isfahan Huang has visited and traveled with the Qermezi for extended periods across fourteen years Drawing on her experiences participation and observation she offers an intimate window onto their life She focuses on a small group of women spanning four generations who are part of a large extended family and describes their ways of life their activities and interactions and their distinctive sociocultural and ecological setting Like other nomadic peoples around the world the Qashqa'i increasingly face pressures that threaten their livelihoods lifestyles and culture Huang shows us how women negotiate compromises between customary tribal values and external influences and sketches their efforts to resist the influences of an Islamizing modernizing and centralizing government With shadows and resonances that rebound across the stories of these women Huang is able to present multiple perspectives on events and contentious issues for instance the politicized issue of women's state mandated modest dress Huang also explains how the Turkic speaking Qashqa'i relate to the wider Iranian society and the Islamic Republic of Iran adapting to a rapidly changing world while retaining tribal values and a distinctive ethnolinguistic identity as one of Iran's national minorities In describing life at the local level in Iran Huang depicts a community largely beyond the scope and reach of foreign travellers and the Western media With rich ethnographic description and analysis intimate portraits of the private lives and spaces of women and children and diverse perspectives this engagingly written account documents a disappearing way of life Tribeswomen of Iran is essential reading for all those interested in Iran the Middle East anthropology nomadism and gender

Women Write Iran Nima Naghibi, 2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora Nima Naghibi investigates auto biographical narratives across genres including memoirs documentary films prison testimonials and graphic novels and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices By drawing on the empathy of the reader spectator witness Naghibi contends life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi's best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering

Propp,2009-12-30 Youre Jewish arent you This blunt question is the way that college freshman Richard Cohn is introduced to an outspoken fellow student named Dov Epstein who calls himself a Messianic Jew and believes that God has a special purpose for the Jewish people in these Last Days Raised by secular Jewish parents Richard is completely oblivious to his own Jewish background until this ongoing dialogue forces him to confront his own heritage The two young men vigorously argue with each other over the interpretation of the Hebrew Bible particularly its reputed predictions of a Messiah Christian doctrines such as the Trinity and most significantly about the identity and significance of Jesus of Nazareth The rigorous process of self examination this initiates leads Richard to embrace his Jewish identity even as he vehemently denies the same for Dov The two ultimately become fast friends but as they progress from an academic environment to the professional world they are challenged by racist statements made by prominent national figures anti Semitic doctrines such as Christian Identity which teaches that white Anglo Saxons are the true Israel and also purported scholars who deny the reality of the Holocaust itself Circumstances in life connect them with a young Iranian migr named Jahangir Khatami whose Muslim beliefs conflict
