An Historian in Peace and War T.G. Otte,2016-04-15 The First World War and subsequent peace settlement shaped the course of the twentieth century and the profound significance of these events were not lost on Harold Temperley whose diaries are presented here An established scholar and later one of Britain s foremost modern and diplomatic historians Temperley enlisted in the army at the outbreak of the war in August 1914 Invalided home from the Dardanelles campaign in 1915 he spent the remainder of the war and its aftermath as a general staff officer in military intelligence Here he played a significant role in preparing British strategy for the eventual peace conference and in finalising several post war boundaries in Eastern Europe Later in the 1920s and 1930s Temperley was to co edit the British diplomatic documents on the origins of the war and the vicissitudes of modern Great Power politics were to be his principal preoccupation Beginning in June 1916 the diary presents a more or less daily record of Temperley s activities and observations throughout the war and subsequent peace negotiations As a professional historian he appreciated the significance of eyewitness accounts and if Temperley was not at the very heart of Allied decision making during those years he certainly had a ringside seat Trained to observe accurately he recorded the concerns and confusions of wartime conscious always of the historical significance of what he observed As a result there are few sources that match Temperley s diary which presents a fascinating and unique perspective upon the politics and diplomacy of the First World War and its aftermath Edward Gibbon: History Books, Essays & Autobiographical Writings Edward Gibbon,2017-06-28 This unique collection of Edward Gibbon s history books essays autobiographical writings has been designed and formatted to the highest digital standards Edward Gibbon 1737 1794 was an English historian and Member of Parliament He is best known for his book The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire The work covers the history of the Roman Empire Europe and the Catholic Church from 98 to 1590 and discusses the decline of the Roman Empire in the East and West Because of its relative objectivity and heavy use of primary sources unusual at the time its methodology became a model for later historians This led to Gibbon being called the first modern historian of ancient Rome Table of Contents The History of the Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Memoirs of My Life and Writings Private Letters of Edward Gibbon Gibbon Biography by J C Morison Making Men in the Age of Sail Graeme J. Milne,2024-06-15 Myths and stereotypes surrounding seafarers in the Age of Sail persist to this day Sailors were celebrated for their courage strength and skill yet condemned for militancy vice and fecklessness As sail gave way to steam sailing ship mariners became nostalgic symbols of maritime prowess and heritage representing a timeless heroic masculinity

in an era when the modernizing industrial world was challenging assumptions about gender class work and society Drawing on British seafaring memoirs from the late nineteenth century Making Men in the Age of Sail argues that maritime writing moulded the reading public's image of the merchant seaman Authors chronicled their lives as they grew from boy sailors to trained seafarers telling colourful tales of the men they worked with most never doubted that the sailing ship had made them better men Their testimony reinforced and preserved conservative perspectives on seafaring manhood as Britain's economic and technological priorities continued to evolve in the new steamship age Offering a gender analysis of the image of the seafarer Making Men in the Age of Sail brings the history of British sailors into wider debates about modernity and masculinity
