In the Shadow of the Mountain Silvia Vasquez-Lavado,2022-02-01 In climbing the Seven Summits Silvia Vasquez-Lavado did nothing less than take back her own life one brave step at a time She will inspire untold numbers of souls with this story for her victory is a win on behalf of all of us Elizabeth Gilbert Endless ice Thin air The threat of dropping into nothingness thousands of feet below This is the climb Silvia Vasquez-Lavado braves in her page turning pulse raising memoir chronicling her journey to Mount Everest A Latina hero in the elite macho tech world of Silicon Valley privately she was hanging by a thread Deep in the throes of alcoholism hiding her sexuality from her family and repressing the abuse she'd suffered as a child she started climbing Something about the brute force required for the ascent the risk and spirit and sheer size of the mountains and death's close proximity woke her up She then took her biggest pain as a survivor to the biggest mountain Everest The Mother of the World as it is known in Nepal allows few to reach her summit but Silvia didn't go alone She gathered a group of young female survivors and led them to base camp alongside her It was never easy At times hair raising nerve racking and always challenging Silvia remembers the acute anxiety of leading a group of novice climbers to Everest's base all the while coping with her own nerves of summiting But there were also moments of peace joy and healing with the strength of her fellow survivors and community propelling her forward In the Shadow of the Mountain is a remarkable story of heroism one which awakens in all of us a lust for adventure an appetite for risk and faith in our own resilience

In the Shadow of Girls in Blossom Marcel Proust, 2024-11-25 I was at one of those periods in youth vacant without any particular love object when like a lover seeing his beloved in all things we desire we seek we see Beauty everywhere In the Shadow of Girls in Blossom the second volume of Proust's In Search of Lost Time 1913-27 is a novel of exploration and self discovery continuing the story of the narrator's youth and adolescence From the enclosed spaces of the fin de siècle social world that revolves around Madame Swann we move to the fictional town of Balbec on the Normandy coast a place where the social classes intermingle with mutual fascination Against the ever changing backdrop of the sea a constant reminder of beauty mutability and the vastness of the world beyond individual human affairs the narrator encounters individuals who will shape his experience and indelibly colour his outlook on that world He finds a friend in the aristocratic Robert de Saint Loup and is perplexed by his enigmatic uncle the Baron de Charlus he finds a tutelary figure in Elstir the gifted idiosyncratic painter and in Albertine he comes to recognise the blossoming girl who will become the love and the bane of his life The novel provides a breath taking illumination of what it is to encounter beauty and to seek to understand our relation to it in people in experiences in art or the landscape around us An exploration of the thrills of infatuation the fallibility of perception and how desire builds and ebbs the narrative prepares readers for the love affair that will define the narrator's future existence and shape the volumes of In Search of Lost Time to come ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more
