Saint Jenni:

Super Hero Meg Harper, 2020-11-20 The continuing story of Jenni the irrepressible little girl who wants to be a saint inspired by her current favourite book My Big Book of Saints This time she decides to perform some brave deeds like St George and other saintly heroes Jenni can't find a dragon to slay but there are always the playground bullies She also has to face up to her fear of swimming and discovers that bravery can be expressed in different ways Despite her good intentions all does not go as planned These entertaining stories have underlying themes of family values and encourage positive behaviour and relationships

Chilling Out Meg Harper, 2020-11-20 This is the third book in a new trilogy aimed mainly at 7-9 year old girls Inspired by My Big Book of Saints a gift from her grandfather hero Jenni wants to be a saint In this book she decides to chill out and follow the example of many peaceful and contented saints But Jenni finds it hard to be calm and quiet even when she tries her best These entertaining stories have underlying themes of family values and encourage positive behaviour and relationships

Animal Crazy Meg Harper, 2020-11-20 Jenni wants a pet She also wants to be a saint So where better to start than by imitating St Francis patron saint of animals But all does not go as planned for the trainee saint She causes chaos in the park at the zoo and at home Even the vicar declines her offer of a family of homeless church mice but he does help some of her dreams to come true These entertaining stories have underlying themes of family values and encourage positive behaviour and relationships In the following two books in the series Jenni has similar mishaps while trying to imitate other saints renowned for daring deeds and good works both with hilarious results

Forget Me Not Jennifer Lowe-Anker, 2009-04-14 Forget Me Not will stay with you forever It is a beautifully written story of great love great daring great loss and great recovery Most of all it is a story of great courage Tom Brokaw High in the Himalaya a world class adventurer dies leaving a wife three young sons and a best friend to cope with their grief In 1999 well known mountaineer Alex Lowe died tragically in an avalanche on the remote Himalayan Mountain Shishapangma leaving his wife Jennifer alone to raise their three children Alex was widely considered one of the greatest modern climbers of our time and the world mourned his loss Tom Brokaw interviewed Jennifer Lowe and Conrad Anker for Dateline and Sting narrated and composed music for a tribute film The Endless Knot While Jenni and her sons faced the absence of a husband and father Alex's longtime climbing partner Conrad Anker who survived the accident that killed Lowe faced his own grief and survivor's guilt Jenni and Conrad gradually and unexpectedly found solace in each other Through letters and expedition notes from Alex Forget Me Not spans continents and tells the story of three people whose lives intertwine to a degree they could never have imagined Jenni's account takes readers inside a woman's heart and mind as she navigates her shattered life and survives finding love through loss From the valleys of Montana to the peaks of the Himalayas this is the story of growing up falling in love finding adventure rejoicing in parenthood living through heartbreak and believing in possibility above all else Readers will be spit from their armchairs soaring across the heights of the highest peaks and into the heart of the American west with the voice

Representing Infirmary John Henderson, Fredrika Jacobs, Jonathan K. Nelson, 2020-11-17 This volume is the first in depth analysis of how infirm bodies were represented in Italy from c 1400 to 1650 Through original contributions and methodologies it addresses the fundamental yet undiscussed relationship between images and representations in medical religious and literary texts Looking beyond the modern category of disease and viewing infirmity in Galenic humoral terms each chapter explores which infirmities were depicted in visual culture in what context why and when By exploring the works of artists such as Caravaggio Leonardo and Michelangelo this study considers the idealized body altered by diseases including leprosy plague goitre and cancer In doing so the relationship between medical treatment and the depiction of infirmities through miracle cures is also revealed The broad chronological approach demonstrates how and why such representations change both over time and across different forms of media Collectively the chapters explain how the development of knowledge of the workings and structure of the body was reflected in changed ideas and representations of the metaphorical allegorical and symbolic meanings of infirmity and disease The interdisciplinary approach makes this study the perfect resource for both students and specialists of the history of art medicine and religion and social and intellectual history across Renaissance Europe

Paradise Plundered Steven P. Erie, Vladimir Kogan, Scott A. MacKenzie, 2011-08-15 The early 21st century has not been kind to California's reputation for good government But the Golden State's governance flaws reflect worrisome national trends with origins in the 1970s and 1980s Growing voter distrust with government a demand for services but not taxes to pay for them a sharp decline in enlightened leadership and effective civic watchdogs and dysfunctional political institutions have all contributed to the current governance malaise Until recently San Diego California America's 8th largest city seemed immune to such systematic governance disorders This sunny beach town entered the 1990s proclaiming to be America's Finest City but in a few short years its reputation went from Futureville to Enron by the Sea In this eye opening and telling narrative Steven P Erie Vladimir Kogan and Scott A MacKenzie mix policy analysis political theory and history to explore and explain the unintended but largely predictable failures of governance in San Diego Using untapped primary sources interviews with key decision makers and public documents and benchmarking San Diego with other leading California cities Paradise Plundered examines critical dimensions of San Diego's governance failure a multi billion dollar pension deficit a chronic budget deficit inadequate city services and infrastructure grandiose planning initiatives divorced from dire fiscal realities an insulated downtown redevelopment program plagued by poorly crafted public private partnerships and for the metropolitan region inadequate airport and port facilities a severe underinvestment in firefighting capacity despite destructive wildfires and heightened Mexican border security concerns Far from a sunny story of paradise and prosperity this account takes stock of an important but understudied city its failed civic leadership and poorly performing institutions policymaking and planning Though the extent of these failures may place San Diego in a league of its own other cities are experiencing similar challenges and political changes As such this tale of civic woe offers valuable lessons for urban scholars practitioners and general readers concerned about the future of their own cities

Scales of Governance and Indigenous Peoples' Rights Irene

Bellier, Jennifer Hays, 2019-10-08 This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to the complicated power relations surrounding the recognition and implementation of Indigenous Peoples rights at multiple scales The adoption of the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in 2007 was heralded as the beginning of a new era for Indigenous Peoples participation in global governance bodies as well as for the realization of their rights in particular the right to self determination These rights are defined and agreed upon internationally but must be enacted at regional national and local scales Can the global movement to promote Indigenous Peoples rights change the experience of communities at the local level Or are the concepts that it mobilizes around rights and political tools essentially a discourse circulating internationally relatively disconnected from practical situations Are the categories and processes associated with Indigenous Peoples simply an extension of colonial categories and processes or do they challenge existing norms and structures This collection draws together the works of anthropologists political scientists and legal scholars to address such questions Examining the legal historical political economic and cultural dimensions of the Indigenous Peoples rights movement at global regional national and local levels the chapters present a series of case studies that reveal the complex power relations that inform the ongoing struggles of Indigenous Peoples to secure their human rights The book will be of interest to social scientists and legal scholars studying Indigenous Peoples rights and international human rights movements in general
